Many of these poems—some in different versions—were first published in the following journals, magazines, and e-zines: Arc, Canadian Literature, The Drunken Boat, Israfax, Midstream, Parchment, Spire, Trail & Landscape, Vallum, and Ygdrasil; and in the following anthologies: Body Language (Black Moss Press), Cinquefoil (Mosaic Press), Guessed Book, (A Onion Printshop/Ottawa International Writers Festival), I See a Darkness (Sorrowland Press), Jalapeno Diamond (Sorrowland Press), Norman Drive (Friday Circle), and Polynya (Friday Circle).

A number of poems were also included in Five Word Sonnets (Sasquatch) and Hail: Word Sonnets (Concertina). Golf appeared as a postcard poem on the occasion of the Peter Gzowski Invitational Golf Tournament for Literacy (Ottawa Citizen). Thanks are due to Christal Steck, punctilious reader, and Augustus Young, one of the originators of the word sonnet.

The poems were first collected in Ricochet: Word Sonnets (Mosaic Press) and Overheard: Word Sonnets (Dusty Owl Press).

Fifteen poems in translation were published in the online translation and poetry review, Retors, and five were included in the literary and artistic online journal, Temporel.
