Asian Music welcomes articles on all aspects of the performing arts of Asia. Preferred length is 10,000–12,000 words. The journal is refereed; all articles receive consideration by at least two readers. Contributors of essays will receive two copies of the issue in which their essay appears. Manuscripts in Word format (at least Word 97 or newer) should be made to conform to Asian Music style and should be submitted electronically in two files—an original version and a masked version for reviewing purposes. If the article is accepted for publication, the editors will request a revised file in Word and in PDF. We can duplicate nearly any diacritical. Submit articles to:

Ricardo D. Trimillos, editor, asmusic@hawaii.edu.

Review copies of print publications should be sent to:

Randal Baier, rbaier@emich.edu, Bruce T. Halle Library,

Review copies of other media (audio and/or video) should be sent to:
