Under the direction of the Joint Annals and Administrative Committee

CONFERENCE OF EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATORS OF SCHOOLS AND PROGRAMS FOR THE DEAF

The Conference, originally the Conference of Superintendents and Principals of American Schools for the Deaf and subsequently the Conference of Executives of American Schools for the Deaf, was founded in 1868 and incorporated under Maryland state law in 1958. The Conference is an organization of schools and programs for the deaf in the U.S. and Canada. Its mission is to “promote excellence within a continuum of equitable educational opportunities for all children and adults who are deaf or hard of hearing. CEASD advocates on behalf of individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing and supports the efficient, effective management of schools, programs, program service centers, and governmental units offering educational and related programs and services.” The Conference’s national office is located at PO Box 116, Washington Grove, MD 20880, 202-999-2204 (V) or 202-866-6248 (VP). Barbara Raimondo, Esq., Executive Director.
