First published in 1967, The Hawaiian Journal of History is an annual journal devoted to original unpublished articles on the history of Hawai'i, Polynesia, and the Pacific area. HJH welcomes scholarly submissions from all writers. Submissions are reviewed and refereed by the editors and the associate editors who are listed on the inside cover of each issue. For information regarding submission procedures, prospective authors can refer to the Guidelines for Contributors at the Hawaiian Historical Society's website, www.hawaiianhistory.org.

MEMBERSHIP

Members receive the Journal and the newsletter free of charge and are entitled to a discount on publications. Checks for membership dues should be made payable to the Hawaiian Historical Society and mailed to the editorial address above. See the back page of the Journal for membership information. Single copies and back issues of The Hawaiian Journal of History are available from the Society. Please notify the Society of changes of address.

SUBSCRIPTIONS
