

INFORMATION FOR READERS AND CONTRIBUTORS

Monumenta Nipponica is published semiannually. A yearly subscription is ¥4,600 in Japan and US$40.00 or €42.00 overseas. Payment may be made by credit card, bank transfer, or (within Japan only) Japanese postal deposit. For details and order form, see the MN website (<https://dept.sophia.ac.jp/monumenta>) or contact Ms. Seiko Tasaki at mnooffice@sophia.ac.jp.

From volume 60 (2005), the journal is available online through Project MUSE (<http://muse.jhu.edu>). The complete run of back issues is available online, with a five-year moving wall, through JSTOR (<http://jstor.org>).

Monumenta Nipponica is indexed by Arts and Humanities Citation Index, EBSCO, CNKI Scholar, ERIH PLUS, Index to the Study of Religions Online, and Scopus.

Submissions

The journal welcomes submissions of article manuscripts at any time. Manuscripts should be submitted by email in both Word and PDF formats. To ensure a full, double-blind review, please do not identify yourself by name anywhere in the article.

Although adherence to all aspects of MN style is not essential at the time of submission, authors whose articles have been accepted for publication will be asked to make sure that their manuscripts conform to the journal's established format. For details see the Monumenta Nipponica website.

Copyright

The copyright to articles and reviews published in Monumenta Nipponica belongs to the journal. MN readily grants permission for the reprinting of published articles in anthologies or other collections or for their reproduction for classroom use. Requests for permission for such uses should be sent by email to the MN office.

Manuscripts submitted should not have been published previously or circulated widely electronically, or be under consideration for publication elsewhere. We ask authors whose manuscripts or reviews have been accepted for publication not to distribute them in printed or electronic form without our permission.
