Hispanófila (ISSN 0018-2206) is published three times a year by the Department of Romance Studies, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The journal accepts essays on any literary or cultural topic dealing with the Spanish and Portuguese-speaking worlds. Articles may be written in English, Spanish, or Portuguese but cannot exceed 8,500 words, including notes and works cited. Previously published work and work under consideration by other journals should not be submitted.

All contributions must conform to the current MLA Style Manual. Submissions using other styles or not conforming to the MLA Style Manual may be rejected. Submissions written in Spanish or Portuguese may use traditional punctuation that does not necessarily reflect MLA standards. We only accept electronic submissions. Author's names should not appear on manuscripts. Latin American books for review should be addressed to Professor María del Carmen Caña Jiménez (canajime@vt.edu) and Peninsular books to Professor Ana Corbalán (acorbalan@ua.edu). Unsolicited book reviews will not be accepted. Please send Microsoft Word compatible attachments to romlpub@unc.edu.
