EDITOR'S NOTE

With this issue readers will notice a new look! We are pleased to announce that Ethics & the Environment has been acquired by Indiana University Press. Although the design and format will be different, the content will continue our original stated purpose, an interdisciplinary forum for theoretical and practical articles, discussions, reviews, comments, and book reviews in the broad area encompassing environmental ethics. IUP will give the journal more visibility, reduced subscription prices, with the same publishing schedule of twice yearly. We thank you for your support over the past five years and look forward to continuing to serve you.
