AGAIN, PLEASE?

LEE RICHARD HAYMAN

IN THE INDEX of a French-language anthology of American short stories, La Prairie Perdue, edited by Jaques Cabau (Editions du Seuil, Paris, 1981), The Pastures of Heaven is identified as Green Pastures (375).

“The cottage he shared with his first wife stands at 147 Grove. The home where he finished Of Mice and Men and began The Grapes of Wrath is located on Greenwood Lane in Las Gatos.”

SkyWest Magazine. Fall 2002: 7, 8.

(The cottage is located at 147 11th Street and Greenwood Lane is in Los Gatos.)

Greenwood Lane, Los Gatos.

“We have the privilege of viewing [Horace] Bristol’s moving portraits of the period (including the “real” Jode family.)...in Salinas where Steinbeck lived and wrote his great American novels.”

Elderhostel International CATALOG, April 2001, 53.

(The family’s name is Joad. Only East of Eden is set in Salinas, and Steinbeck left the town when he was 18.)
