A Special Tribute to Public Safety Personnel

From time to time the journal will present special Legacy Materials. The document below is included in honor of our public safety personnel – including fire fighters and police officers – with gratitude for their unstinting service and sacrifice. The document is the legislation that established the Honolulu Fire Department, one of the oldest organized departments in the United States. John Keoni Clark, Honolulu Deputy Fire Chief, kindly shared this important historical document.

To ensure the protection of the residents of Honolulu from fire, this law established the Honolulu Fire Department and was enacted by King Kamehameha III, Keoni Ana (Premier) and the Legislature on May 8, 1851. Published as part of Kānāwai o ka Mō‘ī Kamehameha III, Ke Ali‘i o ko Hawai‘i Pae ‘Āina, i Kau ‘ia e nā Ali‘i ‘Aha‘ōlelo a me ka Po‘e i Koho ‘ia i loko o ka ‘Aha‘ōlelo o ka Makahiki 1851, Honolulu, 1851, and Laws of His Majesty Kamehameha III, King of the Hawaiian Islands, Passed by the Nobles and Representatives at their Session, 1851, Honolulu, 1851.

7. ARTICLE II. OF THE DUTIES OF THE CHIEF ENGINEER.

SECTION 1. The Chief Engineer shall, in all cases of fire, have the sole and absolute control and command over all the members of the Fire Department, and it shall be the duty of the said Chief Engineer to direct the Fire Wardens to take proper measures that the several fire engines in the possession of the Fire Department be located in the most advantageous situations, and be duly worked for the effectual extinguishing of fires; and moreover it shall be the duty of the said Chief Engineer, to grant the custody and use of the fire engines, fire buckets and other fire apparatus belonging to the government to such firemen as he may deem proper, and assume the control of them at his pleasure, and as often as once in three months examine into the condition of the fire engines, fire buckets and other fire apparatus, and fire engine houses belonging to the government, and report the condition of the same to the Governor of O‘ahu, together with the names of all of the persons in the Fire Department, and when any of the said fire engines and other apparatus shall require to be repaired, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department at the request of the firemen having the same in charge, through their officers, shall cause the same to be well and sufficiently repaired, provided such expense shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

8. SECTION 2. In case the Chief Engineer should be absent from a fire, one of the Fire Wardens, first arriving at a fire shall act as Chief Engineer, until the arrival of that officer.

9. ARTICLE III. OF THE DUTIES OF FIRE WARDENS.

SECTION 1. The Fire Wardens shall attend at all fires, and be subject to the direction of the Chief Engineer or of the Fire Warden acting as Chief Engineer in his absence, and it shall be their duty immediately on an alarm of fire to repair to the place where it may be, and assist in procuring supplies of water to the fire engines, and prevent the hose of the engine from being trodden on, and to keep all idle persons at a proper distance from the fire and from its vicinity, and to order and direct all persons near to or about the fire, to aid and assist in extinguishing the fire as they may think best: provided it is not contrary to the orders of the Chief Engineer, and all residents of Honolulu are hereby enjoined to comply with the orders and directions of the Chief Engineer and the Fire Wardens at fires under the penalties hereinafter provided.

10. SECTION 2. The said Fire Wardens shall divide the city of Honolulu into four districts, and report their boundaries to the Chief Engineer, and shall appoint one of their number to each district for the purpose of making the visitations and examinations directed in the next section, who shall keep a record of the names of the occupants of the houses or other buildings where they shall observe any violations of this law, and cause them to be prosecuted for the penalty fixed for the violation they may have been guilty of.

11. SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the said Fire Wardens, twice in every year, and as much oftener as they may think proper, to examine the dwelling houses and other buildings in their respective districts for the purpose of ascertaining any violations of this law, and also to examine the fire-places, hearths, chimneys,⁴ stoves and stove pipes in their respective districts, and upon finding any of them defective or dangerous, they or either of them shall direct the owner or occupants, by written notice, to alter, remove or amend the same, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, the party offending shall forfeit and pay

The Privy Council at that time often considered potential legislation; this body discussed and passed this proposal on December 27, 1850, with the King signing on the Council’s behalf. The Legislature then considered the measure and approved it on May 8, 1851, whereupon it was then presented to the King for final signature. Each time the King signed, his signature had to be accompanied by that of the Kuhina Nui (Premier) to become official.

Keoni Ana’s title of Kuhina Nui is often translated as “Premier,” but there is no true equivalent for the Hawaiian.

17. Ua ho‘ololi ‘ia ‘o “Speaker” ‘o ia ‘o “President.”
“Speaker” was changed to “President.”
