CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, citizens, residents, and landed immigrants of Canada of the Jewish faith, who served in the Wars of Canada and/or its allies, in order that we may be of greater service to our country and to one another, associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To maintain true allegiance to Canada; to foster and perpetuate true Canadianism; to combat whatever tends to impair the efficiency and permanency of our free institutions; to uphold the fair name of the Jew and fight his battles wherever unjustly assailed; to encourage the doctrine of universal liberty, equal rights, and full justice to all men; to combat the powers of bigotry and darkness wherever originating and whatever their target; to preserve the spirit of comradeship by mutual helpfulness to comrades and their families; to cooperate with and support existing educational institutions and establish educational institutions and foster the education of ex-servicemen and ex-servicewomen, and our members in the ideals and principals [sic] of Canadianism; to instill love of country and flag and to promote sound minds and bodies in our members and our youth; to preserve the memories and records of patriotic service performed by the men and women of our faith; to honour their memory and shield from neglect the graves of our heroic dead.

ARTICLE 1. NAME
