ANNIVERSARY

He says, OK, I'm exactly who I am but this one thing is different—I don't have a nose, or don't know the word for table, or I sing with perfect pitch, but all the time—and do you still stay with me? and she says, But do you do this or have this? (No, I'm the same, I told you), or she says nothing, or she hears only the question not the setup and repeats it to herself and pauses, both of them hanging on the answer, and him with no nose.
