GRACKLES

The day is fastened around the bronze irises of the grackles as they flash en masse through the yard.

An airplane's dumb echo passes over, buzz seeping through clouds. A small toy in my gut is coming apart, the grass pounding fresh spikes at the sky. One grackle in the colony loosens a heavy worm from the earth leaving a dark inlet in its place. So these are the shy, unlit mines of the body's abiding.
