Comparative Literature

The official journal of the American Comparative Literature Association

George E. Rowe, editor
Published quarterly

The oldest journal in its field in the United States, Comparative Literature explores issues in literary history and theory. Drawing on a variety of theoretical and critical approaches, the journal represents a wide-ranging look at the intersections of national literatures, global literary trends, and theoretical discourse.

SAQ welcomes

new editor

Michael Hardt.

"Quite simply one of the best sources of new ideas in political thought, social motion, and human mentality."

—Andrew Ross, New York University

The South Atlantic Quarterly presents bold analyses of the current scene—national, cultural, intellectual—worldwide. Recent special issues include "Global Christianity, Global Critique," "Theory Now," and "Sovereignty, Indigeneity, and the Law."

In 2011 the journal will introduce a new section, "Against the Day," focusing on contemporary political events and modes of resistance.
