SFS ADVISORS

Mark Giordano, Faculty Advisor, Professor of Geography and Cinco Hermanos Chair in Environment and International Affairs, Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University.
Joel Hellman, Dean of the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University.

The Georgetown Journal of International Affairs is the flagship publication of the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service. The print edition of the Journal is the creation of nearly eighty dedicated Georgetown undergraduate and graduate staff students—the culmination of an academic year's worth of collaboration and effort, embodying the diversity of views, experiences, and perspectives of our staff and authors. The Journal is made possible by the generous support of SFS leadership, notably our faculty advisor Professor Mark Giordano, Dean Daniel Byman, Dean Joel Hellman, and our contributors and peer reviewers. We thank our staff, advisors, supporters, and the School of Foreign Service for their tireless work and dedication to the Georgetown Journal of International Affairs.
