Land Economics publishes papers related to the economics of natural and environmental resources, emphasizing conceptual and/or empirical work with direct relevance for public policy. Founded in 1925 as the Journal of Land and Public Utility Economics, the publication features research related to environmental quality, natural resources, housing, urban and rural land use, transportation, and other areas in both developed and developing country contexts.

Land Economics is published quarterly (February, May, August, November) by the University of Wisconsin Press. Land Economics is available online with value-added research tools, at no additional cost, to subscribers of the print version. Correspondence regarding subscriptions, requests for advertising rate cards, ordering back issues, and other business should be sent to: Journals Division, University of Wisconsin Press, 728 State Street, Suite 443, Madison, WI 53706-1418, U.S.A., journals@uwpress.wisc.edu, uwpress.wisc.edu/journals/. Annual print and online subscriptions are $484 for institutions and $140 for individuals; annual online-only subscriptions are $411 for institutions and $114 for individuals. Add $40/year for airmail shipping; Canadian subscribers add 5% goods and services tax.
