The High School Journal publishes research, scholarship, essays, and reviews that critically examine the broad and complex field of secondary education. Founded in 1918, it is one of the oldest peer-reviewed academic journals in education. The journal is managed by students and faculty in the School of Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is published quarterly by the University of North Carolina Press.

Subscriptions and address changes are handled through Duke University Press Journals Services, Box 90660, Durham, NC 27709. For more information, contact Duke University Press at 866-555-0124 (in the US or Canada) or 919-688-5134; subscriptions@dukeupress.edu.

Claims for undelivered copies must be made within the month following the regular month of publication. The publisher will supply missing copies from the bound volume of the current year, provided 2009. Claims for undelivered copies of parts of issues of this publication or the complete volumes of this publication may be made within 90 days of receipt of the publications stock will permit. Copyright ©2020 The University of North Carolina Press

ISSN 0018-1498
Publication No. 243660