T'ang Studies is a peer-reviewed interdisciplinary publication of the T'ang Studies Society. Initially conceived in 1982 as the T'ang Studies Society's newsletter, it has now evolved into a full-fledged scholarly journal open to critical inquiry into all aspects of T'ang China. Major disciplines regularly represented in the journal include literature, history, religious studies, and art history. The journal welcomes submissions of original research, brief communications, and reference notes, as well as bibliographic materials.

T'ang Studies (ISSN: 0737-5034 [print] ISSN: 1759-7633 [online]) is published annually by Maney Publishing in December for the T'ang Studies Society and is available online via IngentaConnect.
