T'ang Studies is a publication of the T'ang Studies Society, produced at the University of Colorado, Boulder; it appears annually.

Submission of original research, reference notes, and bibliographic materials in the area of T'ang studies is encouraged. Manuscripts for consideration should be sent to the Editor; please submit two (2) copies.

Manuscripts should conform, as far as possible, to the guidelines of the Chicago Manual of Style. They should be cleanly typed, in double-space (including double-space for quotations), on 8½" by 11" paper. Footnotes must be listed in sequence on separate sheets of paper and placed at the end of the MS. For proper citation format in footnotes, please refer to articles published in this or earlier issues of the journal. Manuscripts that do not conform to these guidelines cannot be considered and will be returned to the author.

Authors whose work is published in T'ang Studies will receive 25 offprints of their contribution.
