Contributions to The Library may be submitted by email to editorlibrary@bibsoc.org.uk. Further information about submission is available at <http://www.bibsoc.org.uk/contribnotes.htm>.

Offprints of articles and bibliographical notes are available only on request to authors free of charge. Authors of articles will receive a copy of the relevant issue of the journal and access to an electronic copy of their article. In general, publication follows order of receipt of contributions, with some precedence being given to papers read to the Society.

Books for Review should be sent to the new Reviews Editor, Dr Nicolas Bell, The Library, Trinity College, Cambridge CB2 1TQ (reviews@bibsoc.org.uk). Publishers and others are requested to note that space in The Library for reviews is limited, and that only books of a definitely bibliographical character can be noticed fully. Brief, mainly descriptive notes will be published of relevant books received which cannot be given a full-length review. The Library does not deal with the technique of modern library administration.

Advertisements. Enquiries should be addressed to The Bibliographical Society, Institute of English Studies, University of London, Room SB259, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK (email: bibsoc@london.ac.uk).
