THE

GEORGE AND
ANN RICHARDS
CIVIL WAR ERA
CENTER

The editorial home for the journal is the Richards Civil War Era Center, The Pennsylvania State University, 108 Weaver Building, University Park, PA 16802. The Richards Center serves as a research and outreach initiative within the Department of History at Penn State with a focus on themes relating to the freedom struggle, spanning from slavery to Civil Rights. The main priority of the Center is fostering cutting-edge research and enhancing the training of graduate students. The Richards Center is also committed to sharing the results of innovative scholarship with the public through lectures, public study tours, symposia, and undergraduate internships at national parks.
