Guide for Contributors
The Journal of Haitian Studies accepts original articles in English, Kreyòl, French, and Spanish. JOHS is the only refereed journal dedicated to scholarship on Haiti. Interdisciplinary in its essence, it combines the arts, the sciences, and the humanities. Manuscripts should be prepared in accordance with the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th Edition (2010). JOHS will accept social science articles formatted according to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th Edition (2009). The journal no longer accepts manuscripts formatted in MLA style.

A complete style guide can be found at https://haitianstudies.ucsb.edu/journal-of-haitian-studies/submissions or by e-mailing the journal at JOHS@haitianstudies.ucsb.edu.

1. Submissions: Electronic submissions are required; e-mail materials to JOHS@haitianstudies.ucsb.edu. All submissions should be sent as MS Word documents.

2. Abstract: An abstract of approximately 150 words is required in at least two of the journal’s primary languages (English, Kreyòl, French).

3. Length: The normal maximum length for articles should be between 5,000 and 10,000 words, including endnotes and bibliography.

4. References: Short citations should appear in endnotes, with full publication details furnished in a bibliography at the end of the article. Refer to the JOHS style guide for details (https://haitianstudies.ucsb.edu/journal-of-haitian-studies/submissions).

5. Spelling: Standard US English spelling should be used. For articles, quotations, or references in Kreyòl, use standardized Kreyòl orthography, as in the Haitian Creole–English Bilingual Dictionary (2007).

6. Quotations: Quotations exceeding five lines should be indented at both margins with a space below and above. Permission from the publishers should be secured for the reproduction of copyrighted material over 100 words.

7. Tables: Tables should be typed on a separate sheet at the end of the manuscript with their position clearly marked in the text. If more than one table is submitted, they should be marked with Roman numerals and include a descriptive title.

8. Images: If images are submitted, they should be suitable for publication in a finished format (black and white, minimum resolution of 300 dpi at 5x7 inches) with their position in the text clearly marked. Permission must be obtained to print any materials not created by the author.

9. Blind Review Process: Each article will be reviewed by at least two peer evaluators. The author’s name and any references that would permit identification should appear only on the cover page, which should include the author’s name, institutional affiliation, and e-mail address.

10. Book Reviews: Reviews should include full publication information (author, title, publisher with date and place of publication, ISBN, number of pages, price, and material). For example:

   Book review submissions should be sent as an attachment by e-mail to the book review editors, Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken (a.benedicty@uva.nl) and Marie-José Nzengou-Tayo (HSA.BRE.MJNzengou@gmail.com).

   Review guidelines and the list of books received can be found at: https://haitianstudies.ucsb.edu/journal-of-haitian-studies/book-reviews
