The National Trust, concerned about the responsible stewardship of the environment, has published this journal on recycled paper that meets the EPA mandate of containing at least 50% waste paper.

The mission of the National Trust for Historic Preservation is to foster an appreciation of the diverse character and meaning of our American cultural heritage and to preserve and revitalize the livability of our communities by leading the nation in saving America's historic environments.

Historic Preservation Forum (ISSN 0893-9403) is published quarterly by the National Trust for Historic Preservation, 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036 as a benefit of Historic Preservation Forum membership. Forum members also receive six issues of Historic Preservation Forum News, and six issues of Historic Preservation. Annual dues are $90. Second-class mail paid at Washington, D.C. and at additional mailing office. Postmaster: Send address changes to Historic Preservation Forum, National Trust for Historic Preservation, 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Copyright © 1996 National Trust for Historic Preservation in the United States. Printed in the United States. Of the total amount of base dues, $18.00 is for a subscription to Historic Preservation Forum, $2.50 is for a subscription to Historic Preservation Forum News, and $6.00 is for a subscription for Historic Preservation for one year. Support for the National Trust is provided in part by matching grants from the U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, under provisions of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966. The opinions expressed in this publication are not necessarily those of the U.S. Department of the Interior nor of the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Historic Preservation Forum is a forum in which to express opinions, encourage debate, and convey information of importance and of general interest to Forum members of the National Trust. Inclusion of material or product references does not constitute an endorsement by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.
