Aims and Scope: The Canadian Review of Comparative Literature/Revue Canadienne de Littérature Comparée is a journal providing a forum for scholars engaged in the study of literature from both an international and an interdisciplinary point of view. The editors define comparative literature in its broadest sense. The journal publishes articles on the international history of literature, theory of literature, methods of literary scholarship, and the relation of literature with other areas of human expression. In addition, the journal publishes shorter reviews of individual books, particularly those published in Canada or published by scholars working at Canadian universities and, in the section "Notes, Documents, and Review Articles," review articles about important publications. Members of the Canadian Comparative Literature Association and our Canadian and foreign colleagues are invited to submit papers, notes and queries, reviews of scholarship, review articles, and suggestions about possible contributions to the editor.

Information to Contributors and Subscribers: Manuscripts should be submitted online on the CRCL/RCLC official site (<https://journals.library.ualberta.ca/index.php/crcl/index>). Texts should follow the MLA format described in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. Ninth Edition (New York: The Modern Language Association of America, 2021). Manuscripts should not have been published previously (except for an abstract, lecture, personal announcement, or thesis), and should not be submitted simultaneously for publication in another journal or medium. It is suggested that English or French be used for the submission; occasionally, and for special reasons only, articles will be accepted in German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish. Preference will be given to manuscripts of 6000 to 8500 words, but the editor will consider a limited number of substantial studies. The Review is published four times each year, in Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall. Single copies Can$20. Individual subscriptions: Members of the Canadian Comparative Literature Association receive the Review as part of their membership dues, which are (dues can be paid in Canadian or US funds for the same number): $60.00 for regular members; $30 for students, emeritus or un(der)employed; $75 for joint membership; lifetime memberships are $375; TWO YEAR regular membership is $120; TWO YEAR student/emergitus/un(der)employed membership is $60, TWO YEAR joint membership is $150. Institutional subscription is $69; (CRCL/RCLC, 200 Arts
