The Journal of Korean Religions (JKR) is a peer-reviewed journal, publishing articles of original research, review articles, book reviews, and issue papers that seek to discuss, elaborate, and extend the study of Korean religions. Featured in the Arts & Humanities Citation Index, JSTOR, and ATLA, it is published semiannually in April and October by the Institute for the Study of Religion, Sogang University. The electronic edition of each issue is available on Project MUSE through the cooperation of the University of Hawai'i Press. Funding for the publication of this journal is supported by the SK SUPEX Fund of Sogang University.
