FREEDOM SCHOOLS: A JOURNAL OF DEMOCRACY AND COMMUNITY (ISSN 2995-1313 / e-ISSN 2995-1321) was developed from the collaboration of stakeholders in the Texas Historically Black Colleges and Universities annual conference. Freedom Schools is a peer-reviewed scholarly journal that explores the challenges of democracy rooted in civic capacity and community institutions, and models for dealing with them, by drawing inspiration from America's HBCUs. Freedom Schools seeks scholarship from across all disciplines and institutions.

Freedom Schools is published annually by the University of Texas Press. All views or conclusions are those of the authors of the articles and not necessarily those of the editorial staff, the University of Texas Press, the University of Texas at Austin, or the University of Texas System.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES The editor invites scholarly contributions for consideration by the advisory editors and referees. A manuscript of approximately 5,000 to 7,000 words and an abstract of no more than 100 words should be submitted via the journal's online submission platform. Manuscripts and notation must be double-spaced with author-date references, conforming to the current edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. See submission requirements at https://utpress.utexas.edu/journals/freedom-schools/.
