From Black Power to Black Studies

Rojas, Fabio

Published by Johns Hopkins University Press

Rojas, Fabio.
From Black Power to Black Studies: How a Radical Social Movement Became an Academic Discipline.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/140

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1642
Index

academia, influenced by black studies, 219 academic black studies, 100–101 academic discipline, example of social movement outcome, 266 activists: arguments among civil rights and nationalists, 28–34; black student, 24–28; transition into mainstream institutions, 223–24
Adams, Russell, 148–49 administrators, 212–13; response to protest, 9, 89 affirmative action, demanded by student activists, 69
Afro-American Institute, 37
Afrocentric Idea, 202, 218. See also Karenga, Maulana Afrocentrism, 2, 67, 216–19: debates over, 239–40
Aid to Families with Dependent Children, 173
Alexis, Jack, 70
Alioto, Joseph, 67
Alkalimat, Abdul, 32, 103, 103, 229 antiracism and/or antidiscrimination, as justification for black studies, 53, 104–8, 140 area studies, model for black studies, 95, 119
Asante, Molefi, 216–19
Asian American Studies, 221
Association for Study of Negro Life and History, 44
Atlanta University Center, 137
Baraka, Amiri, 102, 219
Bay Area soapbox tradition, 37
Beckham, Edgar F., 260
Beloved, 202
Bennett, Lerone, 96, 102, 152
Black Atlantic, 202
black college students, 24–28
black faculty members, 6, 182–84 black higher education, criticisms of, 29, 32 black history: demanded in Ohio public school system, 37; demanded in Merritt College, 38
Black Liberator, 41–42
black nationalism, definition, xvii black nationalists: and black college education, 30–34; criticism of civil rights movement, 28–34; organizations operated by, 34–42
Black Organization of Students at Rutgers University, 145
Black Panther Party, 4, 35, 38, 40, 207; communal aspects of, 39–40; daily life in, 39; Jimmy Garrett, 51; interactions with San Francisco State College students, 51–54; New York branch, 39; strategies of, 38–39 black power. See black nationalism Black Power—The Politics of Liberation, 5
black psychology, 41
Black Scholar, 168
black separatism, among some activists at San Francisco State College, 52–53 Black Student Organization for Communication. See BSOC black students: conflicts with white students, 64–68, 97–98; desegregation of, 24–28;
Black Student Union. See BSU black studies courses: creation at San Francisco State College, 61–64; departments where black studies courses (continued) course is taught, 191–95; first courses in Experimental College, 62–64; Ford Foundation grants for course development, 138–40;
historical predecessor, 43; Merritt College precursor, 38; precursors offered by black nationalist groups, 42. See also Experimental College
black studies’ critics, 2, 33–34, 102–4, 104–5, 119–20, 121–22, 141, 152, 226, 237–39 black studies curriculum: creation at San Francisco State College, 63, 87; as topic needing more attention, 252
black studies discipline, 167–206; accommodation with academia, 1–2, 215–25; development of, 176–206; maturation of, 2–3; precursors, 43; summary of stages of development, 4–7, 10–15
black studies major, low enrollments: as general trend, 247; at Harvard, 122; persistence of, 247; at University of Chicago, 122; at University of Illinois at Chicago, 115–16 black studies movement: conditions facilitating, 22–44; at Harvard University, 98–100; at San Francisco State College, 58–64, 68–86; at University of Chicago, 101–4; at University of Illinois at Chicago, 97–98; viewed as too radical by critics, 33–34
black studies precursors, 43–44
black studies professors: appointment status 189–91; beliefs about prominent books, 200–
203; courses taught by, 191–95; demography, 183; discipline of Ph.D. held by, 187; effects of gender on workload, 193–94, 268; graduate schools that train, 187–89; perceptions and attitudes toward field, 195–200 black studies programs and departments: definition used in this study, 240; factors predicting creation of, 174–81; framed as beneficial for black and white students, 140–43, 162; spread of, 169–81; spread within institutional category, 171; stability of, 93–129 black studies students: excess attention given to by professors, 115; topic needing more attention, xiv
black survey respondents, low response rate of, 271 black think tank. See Institute for the Black World
black university, 32, 246
black youth gangs, 96
Bok, Derek C., 123
Booth, Wayne, 103
Boston University, 118 boundaries, between black studies and other disciplines, 189–95
Bourdieu, Pierre, xi, xiii
Boutelle, Paul, 97
Brown, H. Rap, 27
Brown v. Board of Education, 27, 136
Brown, Willie, 72–73, 78
Bruce, James, 102, 110
BSOC (Black Student Organization for Communication), 98. See also University of Illinois at Chicago
BSU (Black Student Union), 35; demands at San Francisco State College, 69; Fresno State College Black Student Union, 55. See also
San Francisco State College; Third World Strike
Bundy, McGeorge, 132, 134–36, 137, 141–42, 152
California Master Plan, 48–49, 249–50
California state college system, 48–51, black student revolt within, 55–58
California State University at Long Beach, 219
Cameron, Stanford, 31 canonical black studies books, 200–203
Carby, Hazel, 219
Carmichael, Stokely, 5, 26–27, 42, 97
Carruthers, Jacob H., 239–40
Castro, Fidel, 36
Center for Black Education, 153
Chicago, 40–42. See also University of Chicago
Chicano/Latino Studies, 221
Chinese Revolution, inspires black nationalists, 36
Chinese studies, 134
Chisholm, Shirley, 40
civil rights movement: as black studies movement precursor, 24–28; as college desegregation promoter, 24–28; ideological disputes, 28, 34
Clark, Felton, 27
Index

Clark, Kenneth, 120
CoBRA (Coalition of Black Revolutionary Artists), 102 college desegregation, 24–28
College for Struggle, 42
Columbia University strike, 256
Coalition of Black Revolutionary Artists. See CoBRA; Donaldson, Jeff Coleman, Robert, 61 community control, 95 community education: abandonment of, 215–16; defined, 100–101; failure, 100–108; —at University of Chicago, 101–4; —at University of Illinois at Chicago, 104–8 community patrols, 39. See also Black Panther Party Congress of Racial Equality. See CORE Connerly, Ward, xii
CORE (Congress of Racial Equality), 37, 135, 137
Cornell student union takeover, 4 counter center, 21, 220–25
Crane College, black student revolt at, 42
Crisis, 33–34
Crusader, 36–37
Cruse, Harold, 36
Cuba: George Murray speech in, 67; 1959 revolution inspires black nationalists, 36
Daedalus, 138
decolonization of 1950s, inspiration for black nationalism of 1960s, 36–38
Deep Springs College, 58–59, 252
Dellums, Ron, 45, 83
Democratic party of 1972, 40
Derbyshire, John, 238
Diop, Chiekh Anta, 44
Donaldson, Jeff, 102
Douglas, Emory, 62–63
Drake, St. Clair, 1, 44, 120
Dream Team, 2, 237. See also Harvard University, black studies at DuBois Clubs, 35
DuBois Institute, 117, 142. See also Harvard University
DuBois, W. E. B., 25, 44
Duke University, 123
Dumke, Glenn, 50
Durkheim, Emile, xi
East Los Angeles College, 52
Ellis, Curt, 103
Encyclopedia Africana, 125 ethnic studies, relationship to black studies, 3, 221, 225, 239–40
Everett, Ron. See Karenga, Maulana
Experimental College, 58–64, 87, 251
Fanon, Franz, 38
First Congress of African Writers and Artists, 44
Ford Foundation, 130–66; avoids black nationalism, 140–43; civil rights group supporter, 135; Division of Education and Research, 139; grant approval and student protest, 159–61; intervention in Third World Strike, 135; origins of, 133; Special Projects in Education, 139; sponsor of legitimate black studies, 143–47; statistical analysis of grant approval process, 155–62; supporting historically black colleges, 136–37
Foster, Cheryl, 39–40
Franklin, John Hope, 120
Frazier, E. Franklin, 32, 44
Freedom Rides, radicalizing effects on some students, 54
Free School, 42
free spaces, 223–25
Friends College, 145
Friede, Paolo, xi
Fuller, Hoyt, 102
Ganer, Washington, 82–83
Garrity, Donald, 74
Garvey, Marcus, 152
Gater editors: conflicts with black students, 64–64; new editors support for black students and Third World Strike, 86
Gater incident, 64–68
Gater suspension, 86. See also Murray, George; Smith, Robert Gates, Henry Louis, Jr., 3, 117, 123–27, 216–19, 224
Goodman, Paul, 61
Gramsci, Antonio, 223
Great Society, 173
Guinier, Ewart, 116, 120–22
Guinier, Lani, 120

Hamilton, Charles V., 5
Hampton Institute, 25
Harding, Vincent, 151–54
Hare, Nathan, 1, 30, 71–72, 85
Harnack, R. V., 105
Harvard University: African and African American Studies Committee, 118; African American Studies Subcommittee, 118; black studies at, 20, 98–100, 116–27, 208, 216–19; FAS (Faculty of Arts and Sciences) approves black studies at, 119–20; Harvard Afro (Association for African and African American Students), 98–99; Harvard-Radcliffe Policy Committee, 117; Quincy Jones Professorship of African American Music, 125; recent conflicts over black studies at, 238–39; Time Warner donates money for black studies at, 125
Hayakawa, S. I., 20, 46, 71, 76, 77–79, 83–86, 213, 253; antistrike tactics, 83–86, 90; failed negotiations of, 81; fights against BSU, 83–86. See also San Francisco State College; Third World Strike
Heald, Henry T., 134
Herskovitz, Melvin, 31
Higher Education General Information Survey, 156, 234
Hill, Robert, 152
Hine, Darlene Clark, 6
historically black colleges: Stokely Carmichael’s enrollment in, 26; focal points for activism, 25–26; Ford Foundation’s support for, 136–37, 148–48; Howard University, 26–27, 148–49; nationalists criticism of, 32; tendency to create black studies programs, 176–81; recipients of Ford Foundation black studies grants, 155–61
Holt, Grace, 106, 114, 128
Howard University: black studies at, 24, 26–27, 148–49; Stokely Carmichael’s enrollment at, 26; College of Black Studies proposal, 148; student activism at, 26
Huggins, Nathan, 142 imperialism, elimination as justification for black studies, 106
Institute for Black Studies and Economic Development, 145
Institute of the Black World, 151–55, 214, 224
Introduction to Afro-American Studies, 18, 243. See also Alkalimat, Abdul Introduction to Black Studies, 18, 243. See also Karenga, Maulana institutional carrier, 132. See also new institutional theory interdisciplinary research, model for black studies, 34, 100 interdiscipline, black studies as example of, 21, 167–69
Islamic religious colleges, xii
Izzard, Carroll E., 149
Jenkins, Martin David, 141. See also Morgan State College
Jones, LeRoi. See Baraka, Amiri
Journal of African-American Studies, 108
Journal of Black Studies, 168
Journal of Negro History, 29
Karenga, Maulana, 38, 142, 218, 223
Kent, George, 110–12
Kilson, Martin, 33–34, 122, 213
King, Coretta, 152
King, Martin Luther, Jr., assassination motivates black power movement, 93, 154, 211
Ladner, Joyce, 152
legitimacy: black studies seeking, 143; supporting movement outcomes, 12–13
Levine, Don, 110
Lewis, Sir Arthur, 151 liberal arts colleges, creating black studies programs, 169–81 liberation theology, 222
Library Company of Philadelphia, 159
Los Angeles Times, protest data collected from, 156, 175
Malcolm X Liberation University, 246 managers. See administrators
Maoism, inspires Black Panthers, 54. See also Black Panther Party
Marshall, Thurgood, 27
Martin Luther King Memorial Center, 151
Marxism, 201: tradition in black studies needing more analysis, xiv
Marx, Karl, xi
McKissick School, 153
McLaurin, George W., 27
McWhorter, Gerald. See Alkalimat, Abdul Merritt College, 35, 38, 207 microrevolution theory, 88
Mis-Education of the Negro, 29
MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology), 118
Moody, James, 26
Moravecevich, Nicholas, 105
Morgan State College, 138, 141
Morris, Van Cleve, 105–8
movement intellectuals, 223–25
Muhammad, Akbar, 150 multiculturalism: debates over, 219, 239–40; relationship to black studies, 140–41, 239–40
Murray, Donald, 27
Murray, George, 1, 65–70
NAACP, 134, 135
NAG. See Nonviolent Action Group
Nairobi College, 246
Nation of Islam, 36, 39, 42
National Academy of Sciences, 139
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. See NAACP National Council for Black Studies, xiii, 15, 139 nationalist black studies, moderation of, 215–19 Negro Digest, 30, 31–33
neoinstitutional theory. See new institutional theory new institutional theory, 14, 175, 213
Newsweek, 67
New York Education Quarterly, 1
New York Times, protest data collected from, 156, 175
Newton, Huey, 35, 42
Nile Valley scholarship, 1, 237
Nixon, Cynthia, 60–61
Nixon, Jim, 60–61
Nonviolent Action Group, 26, 35
North Carolina Technical and Agricultural College, 26
Oakland, 38, 40, 41
Oakland Community School, 40 organizations: capability to absorb movements, 222–24; change initiated by social movements, 10–17; form, 242; general theories of change, 9–10; internal culture, 208–9; records generated by, 228; as social movement targets, 7–10; stages of change initiated by social movements, 16; tensions mitigated by loose coupling, 125; turbulence, 125
Pan-African Student Congress, 44
Pappenheimer, A. M., 119
Passeron, Jean-Claude, xi, xiii
Payton, Benjamin, 140–41, 144 philanthropy and social movements, 164–66 philosophical profession, example of group containing counter center, 221. See also counter center Plessy v. Ferguson, 27
Plumpp, Sterling, 114 political co-optation, 219 political opportunity structure, 245 political process model, 244 professional and occupational groups, status attainment of, 268 program/department distinction, xvii protest, society’s response to, 172–74
Pusey, Nathan I., 99
racial integration, as black studies goal, 140–43, 162
Ravitch, Diane, 239–40
RAM. See Revolutionary Action Movement
Reagan, Ronald, 57, 67, 71, 75, 77
Reproduction in Education, Culture, and Society, xi research universities, creating black studies programs, 169–81 Revolutionary Action Movement, 35, 37–38
Rivers, Francis, 33
Roman Catholic Church, example of large organization absorbing radicalism, 221
Rosovsky, Henry, 119, 122–23, 128
Russian studies, 134
San Francisco. See BSU; San Francisco State College; Third World Strike
San Francisco State College, 45–92: Black Panthers contact students at, 54; black student enrollments at, 70; Black Student Union at, 51–55, 64, 68; black studies approved at, 71; black studies at, 1, 207; closure during Third World Strike, 75; convocation, 77; discipline code, 56–57, 85, 251; origins of, 47–49; riots at, 73–75
Scanlon, John, 136
Scott, Julius S., 151
Seale, Bobby, 35, 37, 40
Second Congress of African Writers and Artists, 44
Senghor, Leopold, 31
Shils, Ed, 220
Smith, Donald H., 113
Smith, Robert, 1, 20, 67–68, 75–77
SNCC (Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee), 4, 26–27, 35, 52, 96 social control thesis, 173
Socialist Worker’s Party, 97 social movement: creator of new organizations and policy alternatives, 11; as disruptor of organizations, 208, 210–15; effectiveness of tactics, 172–81; effects: —on organization’s environment, 9; —on organization’s internal structure, 7–10; expands institutional vocabulary of targeted organizational field, 214; framing, 10–11; integration of outcomes with institutions, 13–14, 127–29; life cycle, 13; malleability of outcomes, 12–13; modification of demands, 128; outcomes, 12–16; repertoire and tactics, 11; sector, 244; theory overview, 7–9 social skill, 91–92, 127
Souls of Black Folk, 201–3
Soul Students Advisory Council, 38
Southern Christian Leadership Conference, 135
Southern University, 27
Stanton, William, 75
State University of New York. See SUNY Stony Brook structural legitimation, 217 student discipline, 56–57, 58–59, 85, 251
Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee. See SNCC
Summers, Larry, 126, 238–39
Summerskill, John, 50, 57
SUNY Stony Brook, 219
Survey of Issues in Africana Studies, 182–84, 189–200, 235–37; analysis of selection into, 236 symbolism of black studies, useful to administrators, 6, 111
Talmadge, Harriet, 105–6
Tave, Stuart, 110–11
Temple University, black studies at, 216–19
terminology, xvii
Third World Liberation Front. See Third World Strike; TWLF
Third World Strike, 1, 45–92; tactics during, 79–83; first turning point, 73. See also BSU; Hayakawa, S. I.; San Francisco State College; Smith, Robert; TWLF
Tuskegee Institute, 25
Tutorial Center, 53–54. See also Black Student Union; San Francisco State College
TWLF (Third World Liberation Front), 1, 69; demands during Third World Strike, 69–70
UCLA (University of California at Los Angeles), 52, 146
United Negro College Fund, 137 universities: having black studies programs, 169–81; as social movement targets, 211
University of California, xii, 48
University of California at Los Angeles. See UCLA
University of Chicago: Ad Hoc Committee on African and African American Studies, 101; black studies at, 20, 96–97, 101–4, 109–12, 208, 215; Center for Continuing Education, 101; Center for Race, Culture, and Politics, 112; Committee on African and African American Humanities, 110–12
University of Illinois at Chicago: black enrollment at, 115; black studies at, 20, 97–98, 104–8, 110–16, 208, 215; Black Studies Formulating Committee, 105; College of Education, 107; Ethnic Studies Committee, 104; Inner City Studies proposal, 104–8, 215; Masters of Urban Education proposal, 104–5
Index 279

University of Maryland School of Law, 27
University of Oklahoma, 27
University of Wisconsin, 44
Unruh, Jesse, 57–58, 75
Urban Coalition, 113
urban education, as model for black studies, 104–8, 215
US Organization, 37, 224
Vanderbilt University: black studies at, 149–51
Race Relations Committee, 149
Vontress, Clement, 32 war of the flea, 80
West, Cornel, 238–39
Western Journal of Black Studies, 168
Wilkins, Roger, 146
Williams, Robert F., 36–37
women’s studies, 21, 221, 225
Woodson, Carter, 29
Wretched of the Earth, 38
Yale University, 32