Hope and Suffering

Krueger, Gretchen

Published by Johns Hopkins University Press

Krueger, Gretchen.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/60317

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2151554
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

1 “Glioma Babies,” Families, and Cancer in Children in the 1930s 12

2 “Cancer, The Child Killer”: Jimmy and the Redefinition of a Dread Disease 32

3 Death Be Not Proud: Children, Families, and Cancer in Postwar America 53

4 “Against All Odds”: Chemotherapy and the Medical Management of Acute Leukemia in the 1950s 82

5 “Who’s Afraid of Death on the Leukemia Ward?”: Remission, Relapse, and Child Death in the 1960s and 1970s 112

6 “The Truly Cured Child”: Prolonged Survival and the Late Effects of Cancer 138

Conclusion 163

Notes 171

Index 211