The Barristers of Toulouse in the Eighteenth Century
(1740-1793)

Berlanstein, Lenard

Published by Johns Hopkins University Press

Berlanstein, Lenard.
The Barristers of Toulouse in the Eighteenth Century (1740-1793).

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/67087

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2383444
Tables

II-1 Social Origins of Barristers and Attorneys .......................... 35
II-2 Size of Dowries Received by Barristers ................................ 41
II-3 Marriage Alliances of Barristers ........................................ 44
II-4 Fortunes of Toulousan Barristers (1789) ............................. 49
III-1 Dowry Size of Barristers' Daughters .................................. 66
III-2 Fortunes of Some Leading Barristers ................................... 70
III-3 Wealth of Barristers with Important Practices ...................... 71
III-4 Practicing Barristers Who Became Capitouls ......................... 83
III-5 Recruitment into the Parlement of Toulouse ......................... 89
III-6 Professions of Sons of Some Barrister-Capitouls .................. 91
V-1 Age and Socializing Preferences of Barristers (1785) ............. 129
V-2 Witnesses to Marriage Contracts .......................................... 130
VI-1 Duration of Careers and Attitudes toward the Revolution ........ 178
VI-2 Level of Fortune and Attitude toward the Revolution ............. 178
VI-3 Professional Status and Attitude toward the Revolution .......... 179

Figures

I-1 Residences of Toulousan Barristers ...................................... 30
II-1 Geographic Origins of Forty-Nine Non-Native Barristers .......... 37
II-2 Fortunes of Barristers and of All Toulousan Property-Owners ... 50
II-3 Distribution of Fortunes of Barristers and Négociants ............ 52

Abbreviations

A.D. Archives Départementales de la Haute-Garonne
A.M. Archives Municipales, Toulouse
B.M.T. Bibliothèque Municipale, Toulouse
D.E.S. Diplôme des études supérieures

X