List of Illustrations

Published by

Graham, Hugh Davis and Numan Bartley.
Southern Politics and the Second Reconstruction.

➢ For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/68467
Illustrations

1.2. Democratic percentage of the major party presidential vote in the South, 1868–1936
1.3. Democratic percentage of the major party presidential vote in the Deep South and in the Rim South, 1868–1936
1.4. Democratic percentage of the major party presidential vote, 1896–1948
1.5. Republican vote in Tennessee gubernatorial elections, 1920–50

2.1. South Carolina counties voting 60 percent or more dry in the Prohibition amendment election, 1940
2.2. South Carolina counties voting 40 percent or more against the segregationist amendment permitting closure of public schools, 1952
2.3. South Carolina counties containing populations 50 percent or more nonwhite in 1950
2.4. South Carolina counties voting 50 percent or more for Johnston in the 1950 senatorial primary
2.5. Percentage of the vote received by Long faction candidates in rural, urban, and metropolitan parishes in Louisiana, 1948–56
2.6. Percentage of the vote received by Long faction gubernatorial candidates in Shreveport, Baton Rouge, and New Orleans, by socioeconomic class and race
2.7. Percentage of the vote received by Earl Long in the 1956 primary
2.8. Percentage of the vote received by Browning and Kefauver in 1948 and by Gore in 1952 in Nashville, by socioeconomic class and race

3.1. Percentage of the vote received by Faubus in Little Rock, 1954–62, by socioeconomic class and race

ix
3.2. Percentage of the vote received by Morrison in the 1960 runoff in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, and Shreveport, by socioeconomic class and race

3.3. Percentage of the vote received by progressive candidates in north and south Florida, 1952–64

3.4. Percentage of the vote received by progressive candidates in Jacksonville, 1952–64, by socioeconomic class and race

3.5. Mississippi counties voting 80 percent or more for the right-to-work amendment in 1960

3.6. Mississippi counties containing 50 percent or more nonwhite population in 1960

3.7. Mississippi counties voting 50 percent or more for White in the 1951 runoff

3.8. Mississippi counties voting 70 percent or more for Eastland in the 1954 primary

4.1. Increase in the Republican percentage of the presidential vote between 1948 and 1952, by demographic and geographic categories of counties

4.2. North Carolina and South Carolina counties casting Republican majorities in the 1952 presidential election

4.3. North Carolina counties casting Republican majorities and South Carolina counties casting combined majorities for Eisenhower and Byrd in the 1956 presidential election

4.4. The Republican vote cast for governor in Florida, North Carolina, and Virginia, 1940–61, in percent

4.5. Alabama counties voting 40 percent or more for Nixon in the 1960 presidential election

4.6. Alabama counties voting 50 percent or more for Martin in the 1962 gubernatorial election

4.7. Percentage of the vote received by Yarborough in Fort Worth in the 1964 senatorial election, by socioeconomic class and race

5.1. Voter turnout in presidential elections, 1952–64, by race and education

5.2. Percentage of the vote received by Maddox in metropolitan, urban, and rural counties in Georgia in 1966

5.3. Percentage of the vote received by Maddox in Macon and Atlanta in 1966, by socioeconomic class and race

5.4. Presidential vote in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, and Shreveport in 1968, by socioeconomic class and race

5.5. Presidential vote in Raleigh, Charlotte, and Greensboro in 1968, by socioeconomic class and race

5.6. Republican vote in Greensboro in 1968, by socioeconomic class and race

5.7. Percentage of the vote received by Smith in Houston in the 1968 runoff primary and general elections, by socioeconomic class and race
6.1. Party identification in the southern and border states, 1952–70, by race and income 137
6.2. Percentage favoring federal support for school desegregation, 1956–70 139
6.3. Percentage favoring federal guarantee of fair-employment opportunities for blacks, 1956–68 140
6.4. Percentage favoring federal guarantee of employment for all who wish to work, 1956–68 141
6.5. Percentage of the vote for Howell in Norfolk, Roanoke, and Richmond in 1969, by socioeconomic class and race 143
6.6. Louisiana parishes voting 50 percent or more for Edwards in the 1971 gubernatorial runoff primary 156
6.7. Tennessee counties voting 50 percent or more for Dunn in the 1970 gubernatorial election 159
6.8. Tennessee counties voting 50 percent or more for Brock in the 1970 senatorial election 159

7.1. Florida counties voting 60 percent or more for Wallace in the 1972 presidential primary 166

8.1. Percentage of southern seats in the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate held by Republicans, 1946–74 190
8.2. Percentage of seats in southern state legislatures held by Republicans, 1954–68 191