Acknowledgments

I would like to thank Ellen Burt, Jonathan Culler, Neil Hertz, Richard Klein, and Philip Lewis for crucial help in thinking through the readings that appear in this book. Other friends and teachers gave me generous encouragement: Reeve Parker, Mary Jacobus, Barbara Johnson, Carol Jacobs, Eve Sedgwick, Andrzej Warminski, and J. Hillis Miller.

For invaluable imaginative and practical help in assembling these chapters, I thank my husband, Jonathan Culler. Without him this book would not exist.

My deepest gratitude is to Paul de Man. My debt to de Man for the thinking he made possible much exceeds what this book could acknowledge.
