Spring, David.
The English Landed Estate in the Nineteeth Century: Its Administration.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/68485

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2412578
Adam, W. and W. G., 68, 79, 90; advice to sixth Duke of Bedford, 34-35; policy on the sale of land, 38
Administrative revolution in nineteenth-century England, 150-51
Agricultural revival in the 1830's, 47
Albert, Prince, 26, 70; his respect for the Duke of Bedford, 54; on financial aid to landowners, 150
Alnwick, estate of the Dukes of Northumberland: size and administration of, 8-13, 183; expenditure on and return from permanent agricultural improvements, 49; bailiwicks, 183
Althorp, Lord, third Earl Spencer, 20. See also Spencer, Earl Ampthill: its purchase, 78
Arbuthnot, Charles: employed the Thompson brothers as bailiffs, 104. See also Bailiffs; Thompson, Andrew
Aristocracy in England: its defensiveness, 40; change of social type in the nineteenth century, 53; increased activity in politics and agriculture, 55; impact of professionalism on, 56-58
Attorneys: social attitude of, 57; competence as estate agents, 59-68; Sir George Stephen on integrity of, 60; reputation for respectability, 61-62; social status of, 61, 96; technical adequacy of, 62-68; as farmers, 64-67; decline in number as agents, 67; additional functions of, 68. See also Handbooks on estate administration
Auditors: functions of, 4; Sir W. Scott on barristers as, 79; Hall dane on functions of, 87; decline of barrister-auditor, 96. See also Barristers; Estate accounting
Avington, estate of the Dukes of Buckingham: size and administration of, 16-19
Bagehot, Walter, 71; on aristocracy and business, 54; on the art of business, 63
Bailiffs: functions on small estates, 3, 5, 6; on the Duke of Northumberland's estate, 3, 8-10; the Thompson brothers, 104
Barristers: as chief agents, 58, 79; as farmers, 65; Sir Walter Scott on, 79; Tocqueville on, 79; decline of barrister-auditor, 96. See also Auditors
The English Landed Estate

Beadel, agent, 87

Beasley, John: agents' training offered by, 102 and n; on industry of agents, 105–6; on versatility of agents, 106; on improvements, 108; on leases, 114; his paternalism, 119–20; on indebtedness, 128; searches for coal, 129; his sons' careers, 133. See also Land agents; Leases; Spencer, Earl

Bedford, Dukes of, the Russell family: estate administration under the sixth Duke, 14, 24–25; estate administration under the seventh Duke, 14, 20–54; political career of seventh Duke, 21; his Whiggism, 21–22; his Christianity, 23; sixth and seventh Dukes as art collectors, 23; seventh Duke's miserliness, 25; Lord Clarendon's description of seventh Duke, 26; seventh Duke on reporting estate business, 27; on household expenditure, 27–34; on electoral expenditure, 31; on indebtedness, 35–40; on debt reduction, 38–39; on his London estate, 41, 43; his mining policy, 43; his agricultural policy, 44–53; on rural society, 44; on economies in rural estate administration, 44–45; on profits of home farm, 46 and n; as an agricultural improver, 47–48; paradoxical nature of seventh Duke's policy, 50; his conception of social leadership, 51–53; on laborers' cottages, 52; on dismissing inefficient tenants, 75; his powers under family settlement, 142, 180; reduction of investment in agriculture by eighth Duke, 182; persons employed on Russell estates (1861), 184–86; net income, 191; gross rental and expenditures on permanent improvements on Woburn estate, 192

Beech, Henry, 5. See also Bailiffs

Bell, Alfred, 12 and n

Belvoir, main house of the Dukes of Rutland: its administration, 28–29. See also Rutland, Duke of

Bennett, Thomas, 184; enforcing covenants, 113; salary, 133. See also Woburn

Benson, J., 185; his disagreement with Duke of Bedford, 48; instruction of tenants, 75; on small return from agriculture, 129–30. See also West Country estate

Bentham, Jeremy: and the origins of the Inclosure Commissioners, 150–51

Biram, Joshua and Benjamin, 82. See also Wentworth Woodhouse

Blaikie, F.: Scottish origins, 99; on indebtedness, 129; his concern for the honor of the Cokes, 130–31; salary, 133. See also Land agents

Blamire, William, 135n, 137; one of the first Inclosure Commissioners, 138; on reception of first Public Money Drainage Act, 152; his criticism of West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 156; on bill incorporating the General Land Drainage and Improvement Co., 157; biography, 165–67. See also Inclosure Commission

Board of Agriculture, 176

Borrowing by landowners for permanent improvements: legislation to facilitate, 139; Pusey's Act, 143–44; amending Pusey's Act, 145–48; first Public Money Drainage Act, 148–49; Private Money Drainage Act, 152; from West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 155–56; land companies' rates of interest for, 157–58; criticized by G. Darby, 159. See also Lending to landowners; Permanent agricultural improvements
INDEX

Bowes, John: experience of Pusey's Act, 144
Bridgewater Canal, 92; Loch's management of, 93-94; returns from, 93-94; sale of, 94n. See also Ellesmere, Earl of Brown, Lord Monson's agent, 7. See also Land Agents
Buckingham, Dukes of, the Grenville family: estate administration under the first Duke, 17-18; estate administration under the second Duke, 18-19, 18n. See also Avington; Stowe
Buddle, J.: as J. P., 119; model for Morton's son, 133
Burns, Rev. R., 57
Burton, estate of Monson family: size and administration of, 5-6. See also Brown; Gem

Caird, James: on Woburn, 77; recommends agent to Sir R. Peel, 99; on livestock prices, 113; on leases, 114; on farm buildings, 117; on Scottish reception of Public Money Drainage Act, 153; biography, 167-70, 169n; dislike of strict family settlement, 170; criticism of Inclosure Commission, 171; on landowners' returns, 175n; on drainage done under Inclosure Commissioners, 176-77, 177n; on improvement of farming standards, 180. See also Inclosure Commission; High farming
Capital in agriculture: Pusey on its shortage, 141; shortage denied, 181. See also Borrowing by landowners; Strict family settlement
Carrington, Lord, 161
Chancery, Court of: Earl of Durham in, 85; Haldane threatened with, 88; Pusey's Act and, 144; amending Pusey's Act and, 145-48; displaced by Inclosure Commissioners, 149; Private Money Drainage Act and, 152. See also Inclosure Commission
Chandos, Lord, second Duke of Buckingham, 18
Clergy of the Church of England: social and political functions, 57
Cobden, R., 170
Cole of Norfolk, 77, 83, 99, 130-31. See also Blaikie, F.
Collieries on Duke of Northumberland's estate, 124-27. See also Wayleave rent; Taylor, Hugh; Northumberland, Dukes of Collieries on Earl of Durham's estate: Stephenson's inquiry into, 84; Stephenson and Morton disagree about future of, 85; Morton and the striking pitmen, 120-23; Morton's management of, 123-24. See also Morton, Henry; Stephenson, Henry
Collieries on Lord Melbourne's estate, 126-27
Collieries on Sneyd estate: increased income from, 128
Collieries on Wentworth Woodhouse estate: their management, 81-82. See also Fitzwilliam, Earls
Compensation for unexhausted improvements: in the 1860's, 113; on Lord Yarborough's estate in Lincolnshire, 114. See also Farming covenants
Consolidation of debts: by the great landowners, 38. See also Indebtedness of landowners
Cooke, G. W.: brief biography as Inclosure Commissioner, 165-66
Corn-Law repeal, 73, 111, 149, 150
Corn rents: established by Haedy, 77; established by Loch, 95
Cottage building: Duke of Bedford's policy on, 52; return from, 52, 174 and n; standards of the Inclosure Commissioners, 163, 172. See also Permanent agricultural improvements
Covent Garden Market, 13; national importance by 1830, 42; annual net income in 1840, 42. See also Bedford, Dukes of; London estate of Dukes of Bedford

Cruwys, Rev. G. J.: functions as landowner, 4-5

Cruwys Morchard, estate of Cruwys family: size and administration of, 4-5

Curwen, John Christian, 166

Darby, G.: one of three original Inclosure Commissioners, 138; criticizes the West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 156; criticizes power to borrow for investing in railways, 159; brief biography, 165. See also Inclosure Commission

Debt reduction: by sale of land, 38; seventh Duke of Bedford's policy on, 38-39. See also Indebtedness of landowners; Consolidation of debts

Denton, Bailey, 145, 146, 177n

Depression in agriculture: in the 1830's, 2, 47, 110; in the 1870's, 2; conventional interpretation of, 2n, 130n; and leases, 77

Devon Great Consols, 13, 43, 72. See also Bedford, Dukes of; West Country estate

Devonshire, Dukes of, the Cavendish family: seventh Duke on Duke of Bedford as a man of business, 51

Dixons, agents to the Charltons of Hesleyside: social origins of, 100. See also Land agents

Draining: on the Thorney estate, 47; cheap draining tiles, 48; landowner's charge, 50 and n, 174 and n; Loch on, 95; Josiah Parkes on, 95 and n; Andrew Thompson and Hugh Taylor on necessity of, 115; excessive enthusiasm of agents for, 116 and n; Inclosure Commission takes on, 139; Pusey on, 143; Pusey's Act and, 144; farm buildings linked with, 146; standards of the Inclosure Commission, 162, 164, 171-72; extent of under Inclosure Commission, 176-77, 177n. See also Permanent agricultural improvements

Dudley, Lord: on social origins of land agents, 99

Duke of Northumberland's Commissioner, 8, 11. See also Taylor, Hugh

Dungeness lighthouse, 129 and n

Durham, Earls of, the Lambton family: estate administration under first and second Earls, 8, 83-85, 106, 110-11, 120-24. See also Morton, Henry; Stephenson, Henry

East, Sir Edward, 17-18

Ecclesiastical Commissioners, 98; on wages of land agents, 132-33

Egerton, Algernon, 98

Electoral expenditure: by seventh Duke of Bedford, 31

Elliot, George, 72, 106; on agents' honesty, 134

Ellesmere, Earl of, Lord Francis Egerton: employed James Loch, 89; Loch's administration of his estates, 92-95; on his canal, 94. See also Bridgewater Canal

Estate accounting: by bailiffs, 3; by landowners, 3, 5, 8, 16, 18, 81, 88; by professional accountants, 4, 7, 12; by resident agents, 4, 7, 17; by non-resident agents, 5-6; by chief agent or auditor, 4, 8n, 11, 14, 15, 50-81, 88; lack of on Duke of Buckingham's estate, 17; Haedy's reform of, 73-74; Henry Stephenson's, 84; Loch's reforms of, 93
Evans, Robert, 72; social origins of, 100; his versatility, 106

Fair, James, 161

Farm buildings: cost of on Woburn estate, 45, 76; disrepair on the Woburn estate, 47; revolution in farm buildings, 117; Pusey proposes that limited owners be allowed to charge for buildings, 146; what came of Pusey's proposal, 147; the Private Money Act and power to charge for, 154; second Public Money Act and power to charge for, 154–55; West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co. and power to charge for, 155–56; General Land Drainage and Improvement Co. and power to charge for, 156–57; standards of the Inclosure Commission, 163, 164, 172; landowners' return from investment in, 174 and n. See also Permanent agricultural improvements

Farmers' societies, 118

Farming covenants: failure to enforce them on Woburn estate, 47; on West Country estate of Duke of Bedford, 75; chief object of, 112; enforcement of, 113; secondary object of, 113

Gilbert, J. H.: experimental station at Woburn, 51

Fitzwilliam, Earls: estate and administration under fifth Earl, 15–16, 16n, 81–82. See also Maude, Daniel

Fox, F. F.: on agents and tenants, 107; on tenants' continuity, 111–12; on compensation for unexhausted improvements, 114; on draining, 116–17; on farm buildings, 117; on instructing tenants, 118; on the function of agents in local government, 119–20; on mining tenants, 126–27. See also Land agents

Gart, Caleb, 72, 73, 102, 134; on improvements, 107. See also Eliot, George

Garth, Caleb, 72, 73, 102, 134; on improvements, 107. See also Eliot, George

Gem, Harvey, 7, 64. See also Attorneys

General Land Drainage and Improvement Co., 156–57. See also Lending to landowners

Gilbert, J. H.: experimental station at Woburn, 51

Gladstone, W. E., 140, 141

Graham, Sir James, 168, 170; as auditor of his estate accounts, 7–8; contemplating sale of Netherby, 127; on indebtedness, 128. See also Netherby

Greenwich Hospital estates: Grey of Dilston's labors on, 105

Gresley, Sir Roger, 5

Greville, Charles: on seventh Duke of Bedford, 21, 22, 54; on sixth Duke of Bedford, 25; on Woburn estate, 27n, 33 and n; on Duke of Bedford's mines, 43 and n

Grey, Earl: defends relaxation of strict family settlement, 159; sceptical of Lord Salisbury's avowed motives, 173n

Grey, Frederick, 98

Grey of Dilston, John: social origins of, 100; education of, 101; labors on Greenwich Hospital estates, 105; his versatility, 106; abolished letting farms by tender, 109; on leases, 114; on farm buildings, 117–18; instructing tenants, 118; as J. P., 119. See also Land agents

Grey, Sir George, 171
Haedy, Christopher (continued)
rural estate administration, 44-45; his remuneration, 69; his industry, 69; grasp of detail, 70; awareness of land values, 71; retirement, 72; George Eliot's Caleb Garth as a guide to Haedy, 72; reform of accounting system, 73-74; on domestic servants, 74; on tenant farmers, 75-76; on leases, 77; on businesslike qualities, 78; on Loch, 89; on farming covenants, 113. See also Attorneys Haldane, Alexander, 79, 80; biography, 86; enters Lady Sparrow's service, 86-87; peculiarities of his auditorship, 87-88. See also Auditors; Barristers
Hall, G. W.; career as farmer and agricultural politician, 65-67. See also Attorneys
Handbooks on estate administration: on lawyers as estate agents, 59 and n, 64, 67; signs of professionalism, 97 and n; on duty to improve, 107; on value of non-agricultural resources, 127; on agricultural profits, 129 and n. See also Land agents
Handley, Henry, 143 and n
Hawkins, J. of Hitchin, 67
Henning, agent to Duke of Newcastle, 120
Heron, Sir R., 64
High farming: the years of, 2; landowners return from, 50; definition of, 108; decline of agricultural profits and, 129; state intervention and, 136; its publicist, 167. See also Caird, J.
Home farm: profits of, 46 and n
Home Office: responsibility of Inclosure Commissioners to, 138 and n; Home Secretary requests Inclosure Commission for an account of its rules, 171
Household accounts: at Woburn, 28-29; at Belvoir, 28-29; at Wentworth Woodhouse, 82
Household expenditure: its reform at Woburn, 28-34; extraordinary expenditure at Woburn, 30-31; itemized expenditure at Woburn and the other houses of the Duke of Bedford, 32-33, 187-88
Household servants: their honesty, 30; Haedy on their duties, 70, 74
Improvement of Land Act (1864), 172; provisions, 158; criticized, 159. See also Permanent agricultural improvements
Inclosure, bill for general scheme of, 41
Inclosure, by private act of parliament: defects of, 136-38
Inclosure Commission: contemporary accounts of, 1; origins, 136-38, 138n; takes on draining, 139; early proposal for, 146; new functions under first Public Money Drainage Act, 148-49; functions under the Private Money Drainage Act, 152; ignored by West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 155-56; used by General Land Drainage and Improvement Co., 157; on agricultural profits, 158; eulogy of, 160; work of its inspectors, 161-64; relations with landowners, 162-65; members of, 165; Scottish criticism of, 171; their rules for draining and farm buildings, 171-72; limitation of their powers, 172-73; relaxation of their rules, 174; decline of, 176; sums invested in agriculture under authority of, 176, 193
Indebtedness of landowners: seventh Duke of Bedford's itemized, 35-36, 189-90; proportion of his net income taken by debt
INDEX

Indebtedness (continued)
charge, 36; third Earl Spencer's, 36–37; effect of indebtedness on estate development, 39n; reasons for alarm about, 40. See also Debt reduction

Inspectors under Inclosure Commission, 161-64, 172

Irish estate, of Earls Fitzwilliam: size and administration of, 15–16, 82–83

Jones, Rev. Richard, 137–38
Justice of the Peace: growth of his functions, 57; clerical J. P.'s, 57; land agents as, 119; and the pitmen's strike, 121; and the West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 155

Keary, H. W., 103, 161
Keele, estate of Sneyd family: size and administration of, 7. See also Thompson, Andrew
Ker, Bellenden, 146

Lake, Henry, 146
Lambton estate in county Durham: size and administration of, 8 and n. See also Morton, Henry; Stephenson, Henry

Land agents: functions of, 4; functions of non-resident agent, 6; growth in number of professional, 67, 97, 132; social origins of, 98–100; Scots, 99; education of, 100–103; qualified agents hired by unbusinesslike landowners, 104; desirable qualities in, 105–107; their promotion of improvements, 107–108, 114–18; selection of tenants, 108–11; instruction of tenants, 118; paternalism of, 119; in local government, 119–20; in non-agricultural affairs, 120–23, 123–27; social conservatism of, 127–32; remuneration of, 132–33; modest social ambitions, 133; their integrity, 134; employed by Inclosure Commission, 161; and politics, 178–79

Land Agents' Society, 132n
Land Commissioners, successors to Inclosure Commissioners: decline of their work, 176

Landed estates: size of, 1, 4, 5; administration of small, 4–6, 63–64

Landowners' Drainage and Inclosure Co., 155. See also Lending to landowners

Lands Improvement Co., 157, 159. See also Lending to landowners; Permanent agricultural improvements

Lawes, J. B.: experimental station at Woburn, 51

Lead mines on the Beaumont estate, 133. See also Sopwith, Thomas

Leases: renewal of, 75; on the Duke of Bedford's estate, 77; agents' preference for, 114; prevalence and significance of, 179

Lending to landowners: by banks and insurance companies to the Duke of Bedford, 35; by the Bank of England and the Equitable Assurance to the Duke of Rutland, 38; under Pusey's Act, 144; amending Pusey's Act and, 145, 147–48, 148n; by the state, 148–49; by land improvement companies, 154–55; by West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 155–56; the reasons for the popularity of the land improvement companies as lenders, 157–58. See also Borrowing by landowners

Limited Owners' Improvement Bill (1872), 172

Lincoln, Lord, 150, 165; bill to establish the Inclosure Commis-
Lincoln, Lord (continued) 138; one of the first Inclosure Commissioners, 138; bill adding drainage to Inclosure Commissioners' functions, 139

Loch, James, 79, 80; his reputation, 89; biography, 89–90; his account of Lord Stafford's improvements, 90–91; administration of Earl of Ellesmere's estates, 92–95; grasp of detail, 92; selection of subordinates, 92–93; reform of accounts, 93; management of canal, 93–94; on agriculture, 94–95; relations with his employer, 95–96; evidence on Irish public works, 147. See also Barristers

London estate of Dukes of Bedford: size and administration of, 13–14, 42; wisdom of selling, 38; income from in the 1830's, 41, 191; leasing and development of, 41–42; Haedy's management of, 71–72

Londonderry, Marquis of, 119; on the pitmen's strike, 122; and the regulation of the vend, 123–24

Malton, estate of Earls Fitzwilliam: size and administration of, 15–16

Marshall, William, 91, 169; on improvements, 107; on tenants' continuity, 111

Matthew, John: of Scottish origin, 99

Maude, Daniel, 79, 84; biography of, 80; and the Fitzwilliam accounts, 80–81; advising Earl Fitzwilliam on expenditure, 81–83. See also Auditors; Barristers

Maude, Francis, 79, 80

Melbourne, Lord, 21

Mill, John Stuart: on great landowners, 19, 53; on primogeniture and entail, 19

Milton, estate of Earls Fitzwilliam: size and administration of, 15

Milton, Lord, sixth Earl Fitzwilliam: his management of Irish estate, 82–83

Monson, Lord, 6; on his solicitor, 64. See also Burton

Montgomery Act, 153. See also Scottish landowners

Morpeth, Lord, 165

Morton, Henry, 84; dispute with Stephenson, 85; social origins, 100; education of, 101; his versatility, 106; weeding tenants, 110–11; as J. P., 119; and the striking pitmen, 120–23; and the colliery affairs of the Earl of Durham, 123–24; on indebtedness, 129; his concern for honor of Lamington family, 130; electoral activities, 131–32; son's career, 133. See also Land agents

Morton, J. C., 161

Mules, H. C.: brief biography as Inclosure Commissioner, 165

Netherby, estate of Sir James Graham: size and administration of, 7–8; return from permanent agricultural improvements, 50; difficulty with large tenants, 109–10; farmers' society at, 118; sale of, 127–28. See also Yule, John

Newman, William, 81–82

Noel, Henry, 99

Northumberland, Dukes of, the Percy family: estate administration under the fourth Duke, 8–13; estate administration under the second Duke, 11; bailiwicks, 183; gross rental, 183. See also Alnwick

Oastler, Richard, 103

Paget, John Moore, 5

Parkes, Josiah: ideas on draining, 95 and 11; recommended Andrew Thompson as Assistant Commis-
INDEX

Parkes, Josiah (continued)
itioner, 104; supervised draining at Alnwick, 116; inefficiency of his one-inch pipe, 116. See also Draining
Peel, Sir Robert, 140, 149, 168, 170; on the Woburn workyard, 45; on solicitors, 59 and n; lack of leases on his estate, 114; on Pusey, 140; and the first Public Money Drainage Act, 149–50; encouraged Caird to investigate English agriculture, 169
Pensions to tenants, 75–76, 112
Permanent agricultural improvements: on the Duke of Bedford’s estate, 48, 173, 192; return from, 49–50, 158, 172–74, 173n, 174n; landowner’s charge for, 50 and n; Loch on wisdom of, 91; fashionability of, 115; importance of draining and building, 115–18; made possible by Improvement of Land Act (1864), 158; made possible by sale of land, 175–76; explanation of high level of investment in, 182; legislation concerning, 194. See also Inclosure Commission
Petre, Henry, 99n
Private Money Drainage Act (1849), 152, 154, 157–58. See also Tenant for life
Professions in England: Jane Austen on, 56; Lord Eldon on, 56; social consequences of, 56–57; growth of land agent’s profession, 97; conservatism of a rising profession, 132
Public Money Drainage Act (1846), 104, 157; its provisions and general significance, 148–49; public discussion of, 149; its English and Scottish reception, 152–53. See also Tenant for life
Public Money Drainage Act (1850), 157; provisions, 153; debated in Parliament, 153–54
Pusey, Philip, 157, 167, 168; biogra- raphy, 139–40, 140n; on shortage of agricultural capital, 141; on intervention by the state, 141; on general legislation to facilitate borrowing, 143; Act of 1840, 143–44; amending Act of 1840, 145–48; evidence before Duke of Richmond’s Committee, 145–46
Pusey’s Act (1840): provisions, 143–44; its amendment, 145–48. See also Borrowing by landowners; Lending to landowners; Tenant for life; Strict family settlement
Railways: Haedy on, 71; competing with canals, 93–94; and the northern coal field, 124; stimulate development of nonagricultural resources, 129
Regulation of the vend, 123–24. See also Collieries on Earl of Durham’s estate
Repairs to farm buildings: periodic inspections for, 76; Inclosure Commission and, 162
Retrenchment by landowners: prescribed for Earl of Durham, 84, 182
Ricardo, David, 6
Richmond, fifth Duke of, the Lennox family, 168; closing of Goodwood, 28; advice to Duke of Bedford on farm buildings, 48; chairman of Select Committee on Entailed Estates (1845), 145–46; chairman of second Committee on Entailed Estates (1849), 154; seeks power to charge for farm buildings, 154
Ridley, G.: brief biography as Inclosure Commissioner, 165; on relaxation of rules, 175 and n
Robsons, solicitors to Duke of Buckingham, 18, 63. See also Attorneys
Royal Agricultural College, 104; its founding, 101; its education, 102. See also Land agents
Royal Agricultural Society, 112, 118; Pusey and, 140
Royal Commission on Agricultural Depression, 175
Royal Commission on the Land of Wales and Monmouthshire: on the proper training of a land agent, 100–101
Russell, Lord John, 21, 80; financial assistance rendered by his brother, the Duke of Bedford, 25, 31n; on estate administration, 28; sum settled on his marriage, 35, 189
Russell, Lord Wriothesley, 23, 39
Rutland, fifth Duke of, the Manners family: fifth Duke's household administration, 28–29; his borrowing from Bank of England and Equitable Assurance, 38; his agent on the Derbyshire Bench, 119

Sale of land: by third Earl Spencer, 38; Haedys policy on, 38, 43; Adams's policy on, 38; selling Netherby, 127–28; legislation dealing with, 136; facilities provided by Settled Land Act, 175. See also Tenant for life
Salisbury, Lord, 147, 172; his motives in presenting the Limited Owner's Improvement Bill, 173 and n; defence of strict family settlement, 173
Scottish farmers: and leases, 179
Scottish landowners: acracy in connection with first Public Money Drainage Act, 153; criticism of Inclosure Commissioners, 171
Select Committee on Charging Estates for Railways (1863), 159
Select Committee on Commons' Inclosure (1844), 137–38, 167
Select Committee on Entailed Estates and Draining (1845), 145–47. See also Strict family settlement; Tenant for life
Select Committee on Improvement of Land (1873): on draining, 116; significance and findings, 173–74, 174n
Select Committee on Powers of Land Companies (1854–55), 156
Selection of tenants, 108–11, 109n
Settled Land Act (1882), 136; significance and provisions, 175–76; agricultural improvements done under, 176 and n. See also Strict family settlement; Tenant for life
Shaftesbury, Lord: description of Woburn, 27; his dishonest agent, 134
Sharland, Arthur Cruwys, 5
Shelburne, Lord: on solicitors, 59; on the barrister-auditor, 79
Smith, H. H., 67. See also Handbooks on estate administration
Smith of Deanston, 145. See also Draining
Sneyd, R., 7, 89, 99, 104. See also Thompson, Andrew
Sopwith, T.: biography, 133–34
Sparrow, Lady Olivia, 79; her Evangelical background, 86; her estates, 87; relations with Hal- dane, 87–88
Spencer, Earl, 168; on his indebtedness, 36–37
Squarey, E. P., 67
State intervention in agriculture: history of, 1, 135; the state and the landowner, 2; Pusey on, 141; purpose of, 177. See also Inclosure Commission
Stephen, Sir George: on the integrity of solicitors, 60. See also Attorneys Stephenson, Henry, 79, 80, 96, 124; biography, 83–84; hired to scrutinize the Lambton finances, 84; his annual reports, 84; reasons for retirement, 85. See also Morton, Henry; Durham, Earls of
INDEX

Stowe, estate of the Dukes of Buckingham: size and administration of, 16-19
Strict family settlement: its obstacles to borrowing for improvement, 141-43, 180-81; private acts of parliament and, 142-43; Inclosure Commissioners become protectors of, 149; Earl Grey defends its relaxation, 159; Lord Carrington misinformed about, 161; Caird's criticism of, 170; under general attack in the 1870's, 173; its sanctions being undermined, 173, 175; impact of Settled Land Act, 175-76; and state intervention, 177; consequences for English farming, 180-81; consequences for estate administration, 181. See also Tenant for life
Sturge, W., 98; on solicitors as agents, 64; social origins of, 100; education of, 102. See also Land agents
Sugden, Sir E.: on Pusey's Act, 144; on Improvement of Land Act (1864), 159; rebuked by Earl Grey and the Lord Chancellor, 159
Surtees, R. S.: on solicitors, 61; on social origins of land agents, 99; on agents' relations with tenants, 107, 110; on farming improvements, 115n; on agents' honesty, 134
Surveyors, Institution of, 67
Sutherland, Dukes of, the Leveson-Gower family, 79; employed James Loch, 89, 90; his Scottish estate, 91

Tenant for life: Pusey seeks to improve position of, 141, 143; degree of freedom to borrow, 141-43, 161; private acts of parliament and, 142-43; his power to charge for farm buildings, 154 and n; his unusual position as a borrower from West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 155-56; right to invest his own money without supervision of Inclosure Commissioners, 172; and Settled Land Act, 175-76. See also Strict family settlement
Thompson, Andrew, 7; of Scottish origin, 99; employed by Charles Arbuthnot, 104-105; on draining, 115, 116n; on indebtedness, 128-29; his work for the Inclosure Commission, 161-64. See also Land agents
Thorney, estate of the Dukes of Bedford: size and administration of, 13-14, 185; state of its agriculture, 47; expenditure on and return from permanent agricultural improvements, 48-49; pensioning tenants, 76; net annual income (1832-38), 191
Tithe Commissioners, 135, 137, 146, 151
Tithe commutation, 166
Trelawny, J. S., 153
Trevelyan-Northcote inquiry: on size of Inclosure Commission, 165
Tweeddale, Marquis of: his draining tiles, 48
Tyne Improvement Commissioners, 125-26

Taylor, Hugh, 11; social origins of, 100; on draining, 115-16; and management of Duke of Northumberland's collieries, 125-27. See also Alnwick; Duke of Northumberland's Commissioner

Votes of tenant farmers, 178-79

Wainwright, Charles, 5
Wakefield, Edward, 6. See also Land agents
Wayleave rent: paid to the Duke of Northumberland, 125-26, 125n. See also Collieries on Duke of Northumberland’s estate; Northumberland, Dukes of; Taylor, Hugh

Wentworth Woodhouse, estate of Earls Fitzwilliam: size and administration of, 15, 81-82

West Country estate, of the Dukes of Bedford: size and administration of, 13-14, 185; state of its agriculture, 47; expenditure on and return from permanent agricultural improvements, 48-49, 129-30; number of cottages built on, 52; backwardness of its tenants, 75; net annual income (1832-38), 191

West of England and South Wales Land Drainage Co., 155-56. See also Lending to landowners; Strict family settlement

Williams, G. M.: on compensation for unexhausted improvements, 114 and n

Wing, Tycho, 74; social origins of, 100 and n; his affairs in disorder, 134

Woburn, estate of the Dukes of Bedford: size and administration of, 13-14, 184-85; economies effected, 44-46; the workyard, 44-45; home farm, 46; state of its agriculture, 47; expenditure on and return from permanent agricultural improvements, 48-49; experimental station of Gilbert and Lawes, 51; number of cottages built on, 52; the Duke’s forester, 74; enforcement of covenants, 113; net annual income (1832-38), 191

Woburn, main house of the Dukes of Bedford: descriptions of, 27; reform of its administration, 28-34; itemized household expenditure (1839-41), 32-33, 187-88; annual cost of the upkeep of, 33

Woburn sheephearings: end of, 24

Wood, Sir Charles: on the fate of small farmers, 111; on the second Public Money Drainage Act, 153-54

Woolley, T. S., 98, 104

Worsley, Lord: his bill of 1843, 136-37

Yorkshire Land Drainage Co., 144-45, 155. See also Lending to landowners; Pusey, Philip

Young, Arthur, 91, 169

Yule John, 7; of Scottish origin, 99; education of, 102; on advertising for new tenants, 109-10; tenants’ continuity, 112; enforcing covenants, 113; on leases, 114; instructing tenants, 118-19; paternalism, 119-20; on sale of Netherby, 127-28; on indebtedness, 128, 130; salary, 133. See also Land agents; Netherby