Contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS ix
FOREWORD: Of Shields xiii
1. PICTURE AND WORD, SPACE AND TIME: The Exhilaration—and Exasperation—of Ekphrasis as a Subject 1
2. REPRESENTATION AS ILLUSION: Dramatic Representation and the Natural-Sign Aesthetic 31
3. REPRESENTATION AS ENARGEIA I: Verbal Representation and the Natural-Sign Aesthetic 67
4. REPRESENTATION AS ENARGEIA II: Nature’s Transcendence of the Natural Sign 93
5. THE VERBAL EMBLEM I: The Renaissance 115
6. LANGUAGE AS AESTHETIC MATERIAL 145
7. THE VERBAL EMBLEM II: From Romanticism to Modernism 197
8. A POSTMODERN RETROSPECT: Semiotic Desire, Repression in the Name of Nature, and a Space for the Ekphrastic 233
APPENDIX: Ekphrasis and the Still Movement of Poetry; or Laokoön Revisited (1967) 263
INDEX 289