Felix Frankfurter

Thomas, Helen Shirley

Published by Johns Hopkins University Press

Thomas, Helen Shirley.
Felix Frankfurter: Scholar on the Bench.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/70845
Table of Contents

Preface vii

ONE: From Ivory Tower to Marble Halls
I. The Making of a Scholar 3
II. New Deal and National Prominence 22

TWO: Symbolism and Social Unity
III. "We Live by Symbols" 45
IV. Group Conflict in Modern Society 69
V. The Supreme Court and the Interests of Society 96

THREE: The Uses of History
VI. History and the Bill of Rights 123
VII. History and the Fourteenth Amendment 148
VIII. Precedents, Doctrines, and Statutes 174
xiv  Table of Contents

FOUR:  The Constitution as an Instrument of Power
IX. Subversion and Self-Preservation  197
X. “Preferred Freedoms”—A Negative View  219
XI. “It Is a Constitution We Are Expounding”  242

FIVE:  Decentralization and Dispersal of Control
XII. The Court and Congress  267
XIII. The Institutional Role of the Court  290
XIV. The Court between Nation and States  315

SIX:  The Role of the Judge
XV. “The Man Who Talks So Much”  337
XVI. Scholar on the Bench  361

Index  373