Fellow Travellers

Thomas Beaumont

Published by Liverpool University Press

Beaumont, Thomas.
Fellow Travellers: Communist Trade Unionism and Industrial Relations on the French Railways, 1914-1939.

Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/72685.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/72685 accidents
  Lagny-Pamponne 138
  Le Mans 195–197
  Montereau 144–145
  Saint-Elier 138
  Alsace-Lorraine 108–109, 155, 156–157
  Armand, Louis 241

Bedaux system 168
Belin, Réne 224, 230
Berthon, André 124, 195–196
Besnard, Pierre 100

Bidegaray, Marcel condemning wartime working conditions 29 dominance of postwar Cheminot Federation 57 leadership of Syndicat national 16 pressure from radical opponents 61 relations with Claveille 61 relations with Clemenceau 58 support for reformism 57–58
Bloch, Marcel 186–187
Blum, Léon 213
Bukharin, Nikolai 171, 189
Bulgakov, Mikhail 133

cheminots demonstrations 1936 214–215 and non-statutory workers 215 response to events of 6 February 1934 209–210 salaries 59, 168–169, 211–212

Claveille, Albert 58

Communist International
  class against class 171–172
  criticisms of PCF 97
  critique of rationalisation 189
  founding, 1919 52
  united front 92–94
Confédération Française des Travailleurs Chrétiens (CFTC)
  192–193
Confédération Générale du Travail (CGT) attitudes to planning 223–224
  membership 52, 91–92
  Orléans Congress, 1920 89–90
Confédération Générale du Travail Unitaire (CGTU) foundation 92
  headquarters 91
  membership 106–107
  railway workers 94–95
  views on rationalisation 189
Conseil National Économique 165–166

Daladier, Édouard break with Popular Front 228 railway reorganisation 170
Dalbiez law 30
Dautry, Raoul 127, 128
Le Mans catastrophe 197
rationalisation 166–167, 190
road competition 165–166
Depression, The (generally) 162–163 see also railways, France Doriot, Jacques 153
Doumergue, Gaston 168

eight-hour day 64–65, 68 cheminot opposition to Le Trocquer decree laws 120–121
Le Trocquer’s repeal of 119–120

6 February 1934 169, 208
12 February 1934 208, 209
Fédération Nationale des Cheminots 1917 nationalisation plan 45
founding 1917 43
membership 1917 17
membership 1919 52–53
membership 1936 214
negotiations over forty-hour week 227–228 oversight of forty-hour week 229 reaction to Nazi-Soviet Pact 235–236 reaction to Reynaud decrees 232–233 relations with membership 217–218, 219–220 relations with Popular Front government 217 re-unification, 1935 212, 213 schism 1921 90–91
Fédération Nationale des Cheminots
Confédérée (FNCC)
links to SFIO 171
membership 107–110
views on nationalisation 171
Fédération Nationale des Cheminots Unitaire (FNCU) see also Parti Communiste Français activities on High Council 180–184 attitudes towards elected railway personnel delegates 175–176 attitudes towards railway High Council 177–179, 180
membership 107–110
politics of safety 195
rejection of reformism 161, 174, 175 relations with Soviet railway workers 132–133 see also Gudok responses to psychotechnics 191 responses to rationalisation 187–188 safety delegates 198–201
significance of Paris 109

First World War
armistice, 1918 49
attitudes to war, August 1914 18–22 cheminot losses 32
cost-of-living crisis 40–42, 48–49 demobilisation and Transport Crisis 55–56 foreign and colonial workers on wartime railways (including Americans) 36–38, 55 military discipline on railways 26–27, 28–30 praise for cheminots 25 refugees 23–24
strikes, 1917 42–43
women and railway employment 38–39, 55
Frachon, Benoît 211

Gitton, Marcel 189
Gudok 132–133 see also Rabkory
Herriot, Édouard 170
Humbert-Droz, Jules 98–99
Jarrigion, Jean
  joint leader of reunited Fédération des Cheminots 225 support for nationalisation 225
Javary, Paul-Emile
  Javary Plan 165
  rationalisation 190, 191
Joffre, General Joseph 25
Jouhaux, Léon 28, 223, 224, 230
Kriegel, Annie 73, 58–86
Laval, Pierre 168
Le Besnerais, Robert
  praise for Fédération des Cheminots 229 President of SNCF 229
  and rationalisation 190
Le Guen, Paul 28, 29
Le Havre, metalworkers’ strike 1921 242
Le Trocquer, Yves 70, 194
Lefranc, Georges 223
Loucheur, Louis 58, 119, 128
Lyautéy, Hubert 128
Marchandeau, Paul 228
Marty, André 123, 235
May Day
  1919 62–64
  1936 214
  cheminot failure to participate 116, 168 metalworkers’ strike (June 1919) 53, 67 cheminot’s attitude towards 53, 69–70 Midol, Lucien
  background and wartime activities 46 call for pragmatism, 1919 65–66 editor of La Tribune des cheminots 131–132 see also Rabkory exile, 1920 72, 82, 123 January 1919 strike 60 outbreak of war, August 1914 18
PCF campaign for return from exile 123–124 see also révoqués railway safety 201
role as Comintern courrier 139–140 views of Russia 147–148 visit to Russia 132 see also Gudok migrant workers 140–142 elite anxieties regarding 143–145 Moch, Jules railway reform 170–171
  railway safety 194
Monnatte, Pierre 65
  debates over responsibility for CGT schism 92 Monmousseau, Gaston
  background and wartime activities 47, 48
  criticism of united front 94, 174 gains leadership of Fédération des Cheminots, 1921 90–91 leadership of minoritaires and demands, 1919 61–62 writing as Jean Brécot 90 Mounier Law 30, 33–34
  nationalisation (railways) 1936–1937 223–226 post-war demands 56–57 wartime demands 43, 45
Nazi–Soviet pact 233–235
Noblemaire, Gustav 138
Paganon, Joseph 170
Parti Communiste Français (PCF) bolshevisation 110–112
  ‘class-against-class’ 172–174 criticism of railway workers 115, 127, 153, 211 forty-hour week 229–230 main d’ouevre étrangère 141
  membership 105–106
railway nationalisation 224–225 railway workers and party organisation 110–111 Périgueux (railway workers of) confrontation between communists and syndicalists 102–105 impact of 1920 strike 101–102 strike January 1920 see railway strikes strike on President Wilson’s arrival in France 53 Péroche, Marcel 83, 139 planning 223–224
Poincaré, Raymond 179, 183
Popular Front (generally) 203–204
30 November 1938 205, 230–232 experiment in industrial social democracy 204
forty-hour week 226–227
Matignon Accords, 203–204, 216–217 origins 187–190 social explosion 203–204, 213 professionalism 126–127, 128–129, 145 psychotechnics 190–192

Rabkory 129–134
Rambaud, Antoine 181, 196–197 railways, France 1921 Railway Act 118–119, 169–170 battle of the Marne 24–25 elected personnel delegates 174–175 events of 1936 205–206
German invasion 1914 23–24
High Council 175 impact of depression 161, 163–164 impact of First World War 35, 54–55 mobilisation 1914 22–23 organisation and numbers employed, August 1914 15 Popular Front generally 206–207
rationalisation 166–167, 186–187
road competition 118, 164–165 safety (generally) 193–194
safety delegates 198
wartime manpower crisis 36 railway strikes
January 1919 59–60
1920 generally 71–73
January 1920 73–75
February 1920 75–76
May 1920 79–82
May 1920 victimisation and sackings (impact of) 82–83, 87–88 see also révoqués and Périgueux La Garenne strike 168
June 1936 fears of railway strike 218–219
30 November 230–231
railway trade unionism
overall membership decline, August 1914 18
railway workshops (ateliers) 82–83, 142–143, 185–187 rationalisation (generally) 185 Renaudel, Pierre 28
révoqués 86–87
amnesty campaign 121–122, 124 communist criticism of CGT campaign 122–123 see also Midol, Lucien Reynaud, Paul 228–229
Reynaud decrees 229, 230
Rif War 138–139
Rosmer, Alfred 153
Ruhr Occupation 137, 149–157 expulsions of Germans 151 French railway workers’ involvement 150 growing disillusion 156–157 Reichsbahn response 151–154, 156 relations French and German railway workers 154–155, 156 sabotage and conspiracy elite fears of 125–126, 140, 144, 198 Section Française de l’Internationale Ouvrière (SFIO) atitudes towards planning 223
membership 105
Semard, Pierre
arrest 235
death and funeral 235
demotion 235
joint leadership of reunited Fédération des Cheminots 213 leadership of PCF 99 rejection of ‘collaborationism’ 117 removal from leadership of PCF 174 spelling of name 85n1
visit to Russia 146–148 shirkers 30–31
condemnation of cheminot ‘shirkers’ 31, 32–33
Sirolle, Henri 45
Société Nationale des Chemins de Fer de France (SNCF) collective contract 1938 220 creation 226
Soviet Union
rationalisation within 188 revolutionary significance of 145–146 Spanish Civil War 221–222 syndicalism see also Périgueux attitudes towards Moscow 95–96, 97–98 attitudes towards PCF 96–97 position within CGTU 100–101 rapprochement with communism 86 Syndicat national pre-1914 membership 15 pre-1914 political outlook 16 protesting wartime working conditions 27
Tardieu, André 127, 180, 183, 196
Thomas, Albert 45
Thorez, Maurice 172–173
Tourneuaine, Raymond 181, 182–184 Tours (Saint-Pierre-des-Corps), (railway workers of) demonstration 12 February 1934 210 demonstrations against Ruhr Occupation 155 growing political militancy, 1919 71 revolutionary sentiment 1920 77–79
Vermeersch, Jeannette 172
Villeneuve-Saint-Georges February 1920 railway strike see railway strikes railway workers union organisation 109
Viviani, René 28
X-Crise 185