Essentials of Financial Management

Jason Laws

Published by Liverpool University Press

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/72683

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2495001
2.4 Choosing the optimal portfolio ............................................................................................................ 35
2.5 The risk of large portfolios .................................................................................................................. 37
2.6 Market risk .............................................................................................................................................. 39
2.7 The capital asset pricing model ....................................................................................................... 43
2.8 The beta of a portfolio .......................................................................................................................... 49

3 The time value of money, the dividend discount model and dividend policy ..............51
3.1 The time value of money ..................................................................................................................... 51
3.2 Present values ...................................................................................................................................... 52
3.3 Perpetuities and annuities .................................................................................................................. 54
3.4 Dividend discount model ..................................................................................................................... 57
3.5 The Gordon growth model ................................................................................................................ 60
3.6 Two-period dividend growth model ................................................................................................ 63
3.7 Example with earnings growth ....................................................................................................... 66
3.8 Real-life dividend policy ..................................................................................................................... 68

4 The valuation of bonds .............................................................................................................................71
4.1 Introduction to bonds ........................................................................................................................... 71
4.2 Bond pricing ......................................................................................................................................... 71
4.3 The price yield curve ............................................................................................................................ 73
4.4 The risk of default ................................................................................................................................. 75
4.5 Does the yield to maturity change? .................................................................................................. 76
4.6 Bond duration ...................................................................................................................................... 77
4.7 Characteristics of duration ................................................................................................................... 79
4.8 Relationship between bond prices and duration ............................................................................. 81
4.9 Bond convexity .................................................................................................................................... 83

5 Investment appraisal ........................................................................................................................................87
5.1 Introduction to investment appraisal ................................................................................................. 87
5.2 The net present value decision rule .................................................................................................. 88
5.3 The relationship between NPV and discount rate ......................................................................... 91
5.4 The internal rate of return .................................................................................................................. 93
CONTENTS

5.5 Pitfalls with using the internal rate of return .............................................................. 97
5.6 The crossover rate ...................................................................................................... 101
5.7 Payback ...................................................................................................................... 105

6 The weighted average cost of capital ....................................................................... 107
6.1 Determining the appropriate cost of capital .............................................................. 107
6.2 The cost of debt capital ............................................................................................ 109
6.3 The weighted average cost of capital ....................................................................... 111
6.4 Bringing this all together ......................................................................................... 113

7 Foreign exchange risk ................................................................................................. 117
7.1 Exchange-rate risk and exchange-rate regimes ......................................................... 117
7.2 How big is the foreign exchange market? ................................................................. 119
7.3 Spot and forward markets and currency quotations ............................................... 121
7.4 Calculating the forward rate ..................................................................................... 124

8 An introduction to futures trading and hedging using futures ............................... 129
8.1 Introduction to futures .............................................................................................. 129
8.2 Futures positions ....................................................................................................... 130
8.3 Delivery ...................................................................................................................... 131
8.4 Minimum performance bond requirements ............................................................... 132
8.5 Hedging with futures contracts ............................................................................... 134
8.6 Basis .......................................................................................................................... 138
8.7 Hedge efficiency ....................................................................................................... 142
8.8 Airlines hedging price risk ....................................................................................... 144

9 Introduction to options ................................................................................................. 147
9.1 Option terminology .................................................................................................. 147
9.2 Option strategies ...................................................................................................... 149
9.3 Long call purchase ................................................................................................... 149
9.4 Naked call write ....................................................................................................... 152
9.5 Long put purchase ................................................................................................... 153
9.6 Naked put write ....................................................................................................... 155
9.7 Long and short straddle strategies ................................................................. 157
9.8 The Black–Scholes option pricing model ....................................................... 159
9.9 FX options as foreign currency insurance .................................................. 161

Solution to activities ....................................................................................... 167

Bibliography ................................................................................................. 177
\hspace{1em} Articles .............................................................................................. 177
\hspace{1em} Books ................................................................................................. 178
\hspace{1em} Websites ............................................................................................ 178