Index

Page numbers in italics refer to illustrations.

abolitionists, expose suicides among slaves, 93–94, 95, 98, 109–12, 111, 118–19
Adeline (enslaved woman), 102
alcoholism, 41, 46, 158–62, 166, 194, 215–16, 224–25
Alford, Frank, 61
Alford, Mary, 61
Allen (army surgeon), 36
Allen (enslaved man), 117
Allen, William G., 165
Allston, Thomas, 146
Almand, James Thomas, 209
Almand, Joseph Hamilton, 209
Amos (enslaved man), 100
Anderson, Charity Brown, 214
Anderson, Olive, 266n17, 287n121
Anderson, Robert Sanders, Jr., 214
Anderson, Samuel J., 186–87
Andrews, Marietta Minnigerode, 179–80
Anna (enslaved woman), 94, 96, 109
Annie (freedwoman), 139
Antoinette (enslaved girl), 94 anxiety: as diagnosis, 289n16. See also Confederate soldiers; Confederate veterans; Confederate women, wartime; Confederate women, postwar; enslaved people; freedpeople Aron (enslaved man), 117
ars moriendi, 48
asylums: admission to, 60–61; and alcoholism, 159–61; and Confederate veterans, 153–55; on domestic discord, 172–73; and enslaved people, exclusion from, 133–34; and financial ruin, 183–86; and former prisoners of war, 164–65; and freedpeople, 133, 134–38, 138–42; as historical source, 8; increase in patients, 248; intake forms, 140–41, 142, 143; as last resort, 344n42; as medical hospitals, 141; and substance abuse, 159–62; veterans’ children admissions, 195; women’s admission during war, 56, 60; and wounded Confederate veterans, 168–69
Atlantic world, suicides in, 89–91
Babcock, J. W., 134
Bagby, George W., 255
Baggett, Jefferson G., 285n107
Bailey, Victor, 79, 266n17, 266n19, 266n21, 287n121
Baker, Benjamin, 66
Baker, Mary, 66
Ball, Charles, 89, 91–92, 92, 93, 118
Barnes, Abigail, 69–70
Barnwell, Robert Woodward, 36–37
Barrow, William, 183–84
Bass, Nathan Henry, Jr., 206
Bass, Valeria, 206
Bates, Edmund, 189
Bates, Malvina, 190
Batts, John, 190–91
Batts, William, 191
Baxter, Sarah, 75
Beach, Lafayette F., 161–62
Beamish, Thomas, 185–86
Beckley, Henry, 165
Bee, Easter, 116
Bell, Richard, 258, 356n9, 358n15
Belsen, Josephine, 232–33
Berry, Charles A., 183
Berry, Fannie, 103
Bethell, George, 58
Bethell, Mary Jeffreys, 55–56, 58, 59, 245–46
Bethell, Willie, 59
Betsey (freedwoman), 142
Bibb, French, 73
Bibb, Harriet, 73
Bibb, Henry, 104–5
Bird, Martha, 75
Bird, Samuel, 75

Birth of a Nation, The (1915), 257, 258
Black, James, 183
Black, John, 252
Blackford, Charles Minor, 54–55
“blue dev ils,” 10, 26, 245
Boisseau, John, 188
Bond, Sarah A., 354n135
Bouiccault, Dion, The Octoroon, 93–94, 95
Boykins, Thad, 169
Bradford, Susan, 152
Bragg, Braxton, 158
brain fever, 116
Bris (slave owner), 105
Brookins, Albert, 140
Broun, Catherine Barbara, 55, 181, 200
Brown, Charles, 42
Brown, Clark, 162
Brown, Edwin, 181
Brown, Lucy, 126
Brown, Robert C., 161
Brown, William Wells, 93, 107, 110
Bruce, Handy H., 40
Brunt, William, 188
Buckner, Betty, 175
Buckner, Eliphalet Frazer, 174–75
Buckner, Jane, 175
Buckner, Robert, 175
Buckner, Thomas Lark, 175
Burgess, Hannah, 297n85
Burnett, William, 195
Burnett, Willie, 195
Burton, Joseph, 182
Buschonce, Augustus, 182
Busey, Eliza, 77

business failure, postwar, 180–88; and economic devastation, 197–99, 201–7, 203, 219–20, 230; and emancipation, economic impact of, 183–84, 197, 205–7
Butler, Matthew C., 151, 198
Butler, Thomas Pickens, 23, 24–25
Bynum, Mary, 205

Calhoun, J. Theodore, 283n90
Campbell, Austin, 71
Campbell, Flora, 129
Campbell, Frances, 71
Campbell, Jack, 129
Campsen, John, 167–68
Camp, Virginia, 69
Capers, William, 102
Carrington, Henry A., 40
Carroll, Eleanor, 72–73
Carroll, John Oliver, 72–73
Cato, 47
Cavey, Michael, 180
Cawley, Ann, 232
Chamberlain, Joshua Lawrence, 334n93
Chambers, William Pitt, 35
Charles (enslaved man), 106
Charlton, John, 331n61
Charlton, Lewis, 105
Chesnut, Mary, 36, 213 child mortality rate, 64–66; among freedpeople, 128–29 children, affected by war, 194–95, 218–21
Christianity: and Christ’s suffering as example, 243–48; as comfort, 75; on depression, 245–46; doctrinal condemnation of suicide, 15–16, 47, 236–38, 239–41, 243–48, 258, 273n19; doctrine versus laypeople, 241–43, 248, 252–53; doctrine versus ministers, 253; on heaven, 248–49; and secularization of suicide, 250–54, 258

Civil Rights Act (1866), 138
Clansman, The (1905), 257, 259
Clara (enslaved woman), 114 class, 8, 229
Clay, Clement C., 158
Clay, Henry, 102
Clewell, Frank, 165
Cobb, A. B., 227
Cobb, Carrie, 226–27
Cobb, Francis, 217
Cobb, James E., 227
Cobb, James H., 226–27
Cobb, Wesley, 217
Cocke, Philip St. George, 38–39, 39, 40
Cocke, Thomas, 238–39, 257
Confederate military defeat, 152, 187–88, 200–201. See also Reconstruction
Confederate nationalism, 3, 13, 16, 261; and Confederate men, 3–4, 27; and Confederate women, 4–5, 54
Confederate officers, 30, 38, 43–44
Confederate soldiers: and alcohol, use of, 41, 46; and carnage, witness of, 35–37; and cowardice, 27, 31, 32, 33, 46–48; death rate, 71; and dislocation, 34–35, 37, 48; family ties, fracturing of, 34–35, 37, 48; and masculine courage, 26–27, 28, 29, 31, 32–33, 42; and masturbation, 42; and “nostalgia,” 26, 34–35; physicians, 35–36; psychiatric screenings of, 33; and shirking, 28; suicide, among officers, 30, 37–39; and suicide before battle, 28–31, 33; and temporary insanity, 24, 30; and traumatic brain injury (TBI), 45–46; and youth, susceptibility to illness, 33–35. See also Confederate veterans
Confederate veterans: and admission to asylums, 153–55; and alcohol, use of, 158–61; children of, 194–95; and cultural proscription against mental illness, 152; as delusional, 155; and desertion, 165–66, 169, 175; and devastation of homes, 152; and domestic discord, 161, 169–73, 190, 331n61; and economic hardship, 4, 152, 180–87; emasculation of, 169–73; and increase in insanity, 153; in insane asylums, 153; and military defeat, 152, 187–88; and opium abuse, 161–62; and physical battle wounds, 4, 162–63, 166–69, 174, 176–77; as prisoners of war, 162–65, 166, 174; and psychological scars of war, 157–58; and PTSD, 152; and reentry to civilian life, 152, 166–68; and suicidal behavior, 155–58; and suicide notes, 173–77, 180; and unemployment, 162, 166–68; and violence, histories of, 154–55. See also Confederate soldiers
Confederate women, wartime: and admission to asylums, 56–57, 60; and brave face, 55; and “Confederate angel,” myth of, 51–53 (see also under Confederate women, postwar); and depression, 10–11; and dislocation, 50, 76, 77; and family ties, fracturing of, 50; gender roles, wartime change in, 4, 57–58; and husbands, injured, 66; and husbands’ absence, 58, 66; and husbands’ deaths, 67, 68–70 (see also widowhood); and invasion, threat of, 69, 76–78; and loss of child, 68–69, 72; and loss of husband, 77; and loss of infant, 64–66, 345n43; and loved ones in military, 55–56; male relatives in war, concern about, 55–56, 60–61; and male relatives’ military service, 74–75, 304n132; and management of slaves, 58–59; and masculine roles, 77; on men’s enlistment, 28, 29; and motherhood, demands of, 57–58, 60–61, 64, 68–69, 72; and Northern women, comparison to, 79; and patriarchy, 78; and patriotic sacrifice, 74; and postpartum disorders, 62–66, 67, 72, 77; and prewar mental illness, 56–57, 62, 64, 69, 70, 74, 77; and rape, fear of, 78; scholarship on, 52–53; and social behavior, 79; and social networks, fracturing of, 64, 67, 69, 78; and sons’ military service, 59, 69–71, 73–74; as successful during war, 54–55; and suicidal behavior, 53–55, 56–57, 61; war-related depression, 53–55; wartime stress, 49–51; and war zone, 69, 75–78; and widowhood, 67–73, 77. See also Confederate women, postwar Confederate women, postwar: and abandonment, 4, 217; and alcohol, use of, 215, 224–25; children’s experiences, 218–21; and “Confederate angel,” myth of, 197–99 (see also under Confederate women, wartime); and death-related hallucinations, 232–33; and death wishes, 201, 205; and depression, 200–202, 208; and dislocation, 217–21; and domestic discord, 213, 214–17; and economic hardship, 201–7, 214, 219–20; and employment, 213; and enslaved labor, loss of, 205–6; and families, reconstitution of, 212–21; and husbands, injured, 212–17, 216–17, 222–23; and indebtedness, 203–4; and kin networks, 217; and loss of child, 209, 230–32; and loss of fathers, 218, 220–21; and loss of husbands, 225–29; and loss of infant, 220, 222; and loss of male relatives, 209, 211, 218, 220–21, 233; and loss of property, 204–5, 225–26, 226–28; and loss of sons, 226, 227, 229–30; and military defeat, 200–201; and opiates, use of, 221–24; and paternalism, postwar breakdown of, 5, 228–29; and physical labor, 207, 227–28; and postpartum disorders, 5, 206, 209, 211, 214, 220; and self-medication, 221–25; and starvation, 202; and survival work, 199–212, 203; and wartime hardships, 207–12; and widowhood, 4, 206, 212, 213, 225–29. See also Confederate women, wartime

Cook, Dorcas, 141
Cook, Samuel Austin, 159–60
Cook, Samuel Austin, coroners’ reports, 24, 40–41, 88, 106, 116–17, 240, 252, 266n17
Cotton, T. W., 102
Covey (slave-breaker), 115–16
Cowardice: fear of being accused of, 32, 46–48; meaning of over course of war, 27; punishment for, 31, 32; and suicide, 33, 239–40, 241, 258. See also masculine courage
Cox, Amanda, 221
Cox, Benjami,n 220–21
Cox, Bettie, 220–21
Cox, George W., 220–21
Cox, John Calvin, 220–21
Cox, Rhoda, 220–21
Cox, William, 220–21
Craft, William, 94
Crawford, John, 226
Crawford, Mary, 226
Crawley, D. M., 156
Cruikshank, George, 111
Cuba, suicides in, 90
Cumming, Alfred, 192–93
Cumming, Harford, 193
Cumming, Henry H., 192–93
Cumming, Joseph Bryan, 193
Cumming, Julia, 246
Cumming, Julian, 193
Cumming, Kate, 35–36, 53
Cumming, Thomas, 193
Dabney, Emmy, 51
Dabney, Thomas, 51, 241
Dumas, James, 41
Dan (enslaved man), 100
Daniel, Ferdinand E., 36, 44
Daniel, John Chesley, 70
Daniel, Mary, 70
Daniel, Woodson, 70
“dark turn” in Civil War historiography, 14–15
Davie, Mattie, 219–20
Davie, Wellborn G., 219–20
Davis, Cornelia, 202
Davis, Jarret, 202
Davis, Jefferson, 51, 192
Davis, William T., 156
Day, Horace B., 161
Dean, Eric T., Jr., 11, 14, 26, 155–56, 270n11–13, 325n1
Dean, Richard, 140
death wishes, 8; and Confederate men, 177; and Confederate women, postwar, 201, 205, 233, 249, 260; and enslaved people, 110, 114–16; as gendered, 50, 79
DeGraffenreid, Robert, 146
Dekle, Eleanor, 72–73
Deloach, Sarah Jane, 225
Deloach, Thomas Clement, 225
delusions: among Confederate veterans, 155, 173, 181, 185–86, 194; among Confederate women, postwar, 201, 232–33; among Confederate women, wartime, 63, 72–74; among freedpeople, 126, 129–30, 131, 144–46; and PTSD, 335n11
Dempsey, Henry, 208–9
Dempsey, Nancy, 208–10, 211
Dempsey, Rebecca, 209
Dempsey, Sophronia, 209
“depression,” 10–11, 267n28, 289n16, 325n2
Devers, Elizabeth, 220
Devers, Henry, 220
Devers, James, 220
Devers, Rachel, 220
Dickson, Williams, 159
Dill, Abraham, 216–17
Dill, Mahuldah Pruitt, 216–17
dislocation: of Confederate soldiers, 34–35, 37, 48; of Confederate women, 50, 76, 77; of Confederate women, postwar, 217–21
Dixon, Thomas, The Clansman, 257, 259
Dollfender, Fred, 252
domestic discord: asylums on, 172–73; and Confederate veterans, 161, 169–73, 190, 331n61; and Confederate women, postwar, 213, 214–17; and freedpeople, 124–27
Dooley, John, 45, 286n108
Douglas, James P., 286n115
Douglass, Frederick, 93, 115–16
Doyle, John, 215–16
Doyle, Margaret, 215–16
Dozier, Willis, 126
dueling, 357n15
Dukes, Matthew Miles, 231
Dunlop, Colin, 219
Dunlop, John, 219
Dunlop, Martha, 218–19
Dunn, Fanny Beattie, 224
Dunn, Lemmon, 183
Dunn, Simon, 141
Dunn, William Logan, 224
Durkheim, Émile, 8, 264n4, 265n7, 266n17, 266nn21–22, 270n7
Earle, C. E., 30
Eason, Mary, 56
Easterby, Washington N., 32
Eberhart, James, 214
Eberhart, Priscilla, 214
Edmondston, Catherine, 200, 203, 208, 219, 222–23, 230
Edwards, Carrie, 224
Edwards, Edward, 186
Eenboom, Henry, 171–72
Eenboom, Lizzie, 171–72
Eegleston, George Cary, 197, 198
Ellis, George, 132–33
Elmore, Grace Brown, 77–78, 247
Elter, Joseph, 43
emancipation: challenges for African Americans, 6, 122–24; economic impact of, 191, 205–7; and family reconstitution, 124–26; historiography of, 6; as source of suffering, 7 (see also freedpeople). See also freedpeople Emily (enslaved woman), 314n137 enslaved people: and child mortality rate, 128; and corporal punishment, 91–92, 99–103, 117; ethnicities of, 91; and families, separation of, 94, 96, 108–12, 111; and family, role of, 108–9, 112–13; and family makeup, 124; flee for Union lines, 58; illiteracy of, 88–89, 118; and “insanity,” 133–34; as lacking courage for suicide, 86–87, 117; and mental health care access, lack of, 133–34; and mental illness, 116–19; and murder-suicide of family, 109, 111; and overworking of, 103, 118; and physical abuse of, 101–2, 104, 105; and postpartum disorders, 314n137; as primitive for insanity, 16, 87–88, 135–36, 147, 261; and property, 87; and recapture, 103–8, 105, 107; religion of, 91; and enslaved people (cont.)
resistance, 94–99, 118–19; responses to suicides, condoned, 117–19; and running away, 103–6, 105, 106–8, 107; and sexual assault of, 93–94, 95, 100, 113–15, 331n77; and slave community, 93, 108–9, 112–13; and slave patrols, 103; and suicidal behavior, lack of evidence of, 88–89; and suicide in eighteenth century, 89–93; and suicides, records of, 117–19; and suicides denied by whites, 5–6, 85–88, 89, 117, 132; and traumatic brain injury (TBI), 314n137; and wartime management of, 58–59. See also freedpeople
Epps, Edwin, 115
Epps, Robert, 184
Ewing, A. G., 161, 167
Fambro, Lucius, 36
Farley, Julia, 218
Farley, Lucy, 218, 224
Farley, William, 218
“fatigue,” 227
Faust, Drew Gilpin, 2–3, 14, 48, 274n22, 359n26
Faver, Lewis D., 159, 279n64
Faw, Enoch, 241
“fear reactions,” 30–31, 33
Fenn, E. White, 186
Fershner, Tom, 164
Fishburne, Clarence S., 184
Fisher (Confederate captain), 40
Fisher, Christopher, 37–38
Fitzhugh, George, 85
Fleet, Maria, 226
Fleet, Maria Louisa, 158
Fletcher, Sarah, 64
Flint (doctor), 115
Flournoy, Maurina, 141
Foshee, Susan, 353n132
Foster, Stephen, 141
Fountain, Waller, 44
Frances (enslaved girl), 113
Freedmen’s Bureau, 125–26, 138–40
freedpeople: citizenship status of, 138–39; and domestic discord, 124–27; emancipation, uncertainties following, 122–24; and families, separation of, 123; illiteracy of, 123, 140; and illness, 122, 141; incarceration of, 130–31, 139–40; and infant mortality rate, 128–29; and “insanity,” 132–38; and labor contracts, 205–7; and loss of child, 127–30, 144–45; and mania, 142–47; and medical access, lack of, 128–29, 130, 140–41; and melancholia, 142–47; and mental health access, 134–38; and mental health access, lack of, 130–31, 139–40; and mental illness, 126, 130–31, 142; as mentally incapacitated, 139–41; mortality rate of, 123; and physical pain, 130; and postpartum disorders, 127–29; and punishment, avoidance, 130–31; and racial violence, 123; responses to, whites’, 132–33; responses to suicide, 121; suicidal behavior, denied by whites, 16, 136–38, 147, 261; suicidal behavior, lack of sources, 121–22, 123–24; and suicidal ideation, denial of melancholy diagnosis, 144–46; as unprepared for freedom, 7, 120–21, 132, 134–38, 146–47; and war trauma symptoms, 32on46; and white attitudes about courage, 132, 147, 261; and widowhood, 129. See also enslaved people
French, Emily, 176
French, George, 117
French, Henry B., 176
French, Hiram, 176–77
Fricks, John, 183
Friend, Charles, 314n137
Fuger, Lucinda, 60–61
Fuller, Hiram, 231–32
Fuller, Pemina, 231–32
Gable, James, 211
Gable, James Asbury, 211
Gaines, Susan, 62
Galbraith, Anne, 71
Galt, John M., II, 87
Gambrell, David Henry, 72
Gambrell, Matthew, 72
Gannon, Bridget, 224
Garey, Joseph, 44
Garland, Samuel, 117
Gibson, Ambrose, 233
Gilligan, Martin, 184
Gladden, Elias, 65
Gladden, Winnie, 65, 76, 205
Glover, Jennie, 127–28
“good death,” 48
Goodwin, Rebecca, 233
Gordon, Lesley J., 265n8, 325n1
Gorgas, Josiah, 259–60
Government Hospital for the Insane, 284n95
Grady, Sidnum, 180
Graham, Margaret, 127
Grandy, Moses, 102
Graves, William, 282n83
Hammond, James Henry, 85, 319n32
Hammond, William, 33–34
Hampton, Sally Baxter, 55
Hanks, Joseph, 106
Hanson, Samuel, 183
Harbin, Martha, 71
Harding, Hartwell, 182
Harding, James, 182
Harper, Mary, 141
Harper, Robert, 187
Harrington, E. K. (pseudonym), 215
Harris, David, 54, 59
Harris, Emily, 49, 54, 58–59
Harris, Louella, 59
Harris, Rose, 141
Harrison, Samuel R., 175–76
Hatje, Ludwig, 181
Hattaway, Elisha, 231
Hattaway, Eliza, 231
Hawkins, Nancy, 73
Hawkins, William, 73
Hayden, Lewis, 114–15
Henderson, Joseph, 42
Hendrix, John M., 180
Herzog, Adolphus, 177, 253
Hess, Earl J., 31, 271n12, 275n38, 278n58
Hicks, Bill, 168
Hise, Elijah, 187
Hobday, George J., 253

Index 423
Hodges, Brantley, 63
Hodges, Martha, 63
Holden, Rachel, 226
Holmes, Emma, 36, 202, 204
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 286n108
Holt, Iverson, 164
homesickness, 3, 34–35, 219 honor, 3–4; and desertion, 169; and financial ruin, 179–88; and indebtedness, 186–87; as provider for family, 4, 184–86, 193; and substance abuse, 162; and wounded Confederate veterans, 166–68. See also masculine courage
Horsely, Henderson, 188
Howe, George, 253
Hudson, E. J., 173–74
Hudson, Ethelbert, 174
Hutchinson, Ida Blackshear, 103 ill health, 42
indebtedness, 180, 184, 186–87, 202–4 insanity, as disease of civilization, 16, 87–88, 135–36, 261 insanity, definition of, 10, 43, 56 insanity, temporary, 24, 30 intemperance. See alcoholism
“irritable heart,” 10, 26, 283n90
Isham (enslaved man), 112
Jackson, Abner B., 74
Jackson, Addie, 162
Jackson, Harvey, 145
Jackson, John E., 162
Jackson, Theresa, 73–74
Jackson, Thomas Jonathan “Stonewall,” 52
Jacobs, Harriet, 101, 110, 115
James (enslaved man), 103
James, William, 154, 164–65
Jarrel, Stinson, 183
Jefferson, Thomas, 137–38, 240
Jenkins, Charles Jones, 188
Jenkins, Thomas, 162
Joe (African American man), 120
Johnson, B. W., 159
Johnson, Charles, 145
Johnson, Emily, 77
Johnson, Henry, 127
Johnson, Nora, 126–27
Jones, Jake, 132
Jones, Mary, 186
Jones, Oscar, 168–69
Jones, Woodson, 186
Jordan, Charlotte, 231
Judy (enslaved woman), 100
Juley (enslaved woman), 86, 103
Kate (freedwoman), 131
Keckley, Elizabeth, 101
Keenan, Michael, 164, 172
Kemp, W., 117
Kimbell, Christopher, 226
Kimbell, Christopher, Jr., 226
Kimbell, Mary, 225–26
King, Virginia, 62
Kirk-Holden War, 223
Ku Klux Klan, 257
LaLaurie, Marie Delphine, 101
Lamback, Frederick, 185
Lamback, George, 185
Larrantree, Harry, 40–41
Lee, Mary Greenhow, 55
Lelman, Louisa, 297n84
Lenoir, William, 244
LeRoy (enslaved man), 110–12
Letson, Gabriel, 73
Letson, Henry, 73
Letson, Nancy, 73
Lewis (enslaved man), 117
Lewis, Henry, 182
Lewis, Hugh, 159
Lincoln, Abraham, 306n15
Lincoln, Mary Todd, 297n83
Linderman, Gerald, 33–34, 273n17
Little, Ann, 68–69
Little, James, 302n112
Loftley, Lucy, 142
London (enslaved man), 102
Lost Cause myth, 260–61; view of Confederate women after war, 197–99; view of Confederate women in war, 51–52

424 Index
Lowther, Charlotte, 141
Luck, John, 280n72
Lucy (enslaved girl), 103
Lucy (freedwoman), 139
Lucy (enslaved woman), 107–8
Mahaffey, Adam, 131
maligners, 26, 28, 31–32, 40
Malloy, Angus P., 67
Malloy, Sarah, 67
Mangham, John, 43–44, 152–53
mania, 145–46
Manigault, Charles, 102
Manly, Basil, Jr., 253
Manning, Edward, 43
Marten, James, 195, 285n107, 329nn35–36
Martin, Catherine, 233
Martin, William, 233
Mary (enslaved woman), 100
Mary (enslaved woman), 314n137 masculine courage: and citizen-soldier, 28; and Civil War, as test of, 31; and enlistment, 28, 29; as fearlessness, 32–33; meaning of over course of war, 26–27; preservation of, 42. See also cowardice Massey, Mary Elizabeth, Bonnet Brigades, 52–53 mastery: and masculine honor, 3–4, 47–48, 89, 101; and loss of, postwar, 152, 170–71, 178
masturbation, 42, 320n46
Matheny, Daniel, 210
Matheny, Louisa, 208, 210–11
Matheny, Lucinda, 210
May, Jane, 59–60
May, John, 59
Mayo, Caroline, 70–71
Mayo, Joseph C., 70
Mayo, Martha, 70
Mayo, Theodoric, 70
Mayo, William C. A., 70
McAlister, Archie, 186
McClurken, Jeffrey M., 11–12, 213–14, 238n90, 244n28
McCrary, J. F., 157
McC ravey, Matilda, 74
McCurry, Stephanie, 199, 274n22
McDonald, Cornelia Peake, 201, 202, 207
McGriff, Silva (or Silvia), 129
McGuire, Judith, 45
McKay, William, 244–45
McMichael, George, 145
McNeely, Anna, 176
McPherson, James M., 201n26, 271n12, 275n38, 340n53
Meacham, Samuel W., 41, 275n34 medication, 291n31 mental health professionals, origins of, 269n6 mental illness, 285n99; difficulty of studying history of, 12; as gendered, 62–66, 291n32; nineteenth-century understanding of, 10; as racialized, 85–88, 117, 132, 135–36, 144–46, 147, 261
Meriwether, Betty, 206
Middle Passage, suicides during, 90 military deaths of the Civil War, number of, 189, 212
Miller, Adam, 130–31
Miller, J. F., 136
Miller, Samuel, 239–40
Milton, John, 187
Mims, George, 43
Minnigerode, Charles, 180
Montgomery, Frank Alexander, 132
Mood, Preston, 251
Moore, Elizabeth, 56
morphine, 44, 132, 223; and suicide, 61, 157, 165, 176, 185, 191, 231. See also opiates
Morris, Martha, 233
Mose (enslaved man), 117
Mullings, Daniel, 164
Murchison, Ida, 56
Murray, Mariah, 298n86
Myers, Ann Eliza, 74
Nancy (enslaved woman), 116
Nellie (enslaved woman), 103
Nellie (enslaved woman), 114
Newton, Eliza, 211–12
Newton, Henry D., 173
Newton, Joel Berry, 211–12
Newton, Mary Mann Page, 226
Newton, William Brockenborough, 226 non-combatants, 184, 189–95
Northup, Solomon, Twelve Years a Slave, 115
“nostalgia,” 10, 26, 34–35, 283n90
O’Cain, Dido, 129–30
Old Will (enslaved man), 58–59 opiates: advertising for, 222; Confederate veterans, use of, 161–62; Confederate women, postbellum use of, 221–25.
See also morphine
Otey, Octavia: on economic hardships, 201, 202, 204; on labor negotiations, 206–7; and opiates, use of, 223; and religion, 246, 249; on support, lack of, 228–29, 233
Owens, Westley, 146
Ozburn, Lucinda, 77
Padgett, Sarah, 232
Pardue, Elizabeth, 295n69
Park, Henry, 141
Parkman, John M., 251
Passmore, Abner, 66
Passmore, Henrietta, 66, 205
Pate, Samuel B., 283n87
paternalism, 3–4, 5, 85–86, 128–29, 130; postwar breakdown of, 228–29, 233–34; wartime collapse of, 57 patriarchy, 57, 77; postwar, breakdown of, 169–73
Patsey (enslaved woman), 115
Paul (enslaved man), 91–93, 92, 118
Payne, James, 154
Pearman, Joseph, 155, 252
Pember, Phoebe Yates, 52
Penny, Berry, 206
Peters, DeWitt C., 34, 283n90
Peters, Thomas, 157–58
Phillips, Mary, 70
physicians, suicides of, 35–36
Piatt, Sarah Morgan Bryan, 249–50
Pierce, Edward, 185
Pitman, William, 37
Pompey (enslaved man), 86
Porter, Algernon Sidney, 279n64 postpartum disorders, 5; and Confederate women, postwar, 206, 209, 211, 214, 220; and Confederate women, wartime, 62–66, 72, 77; and enslaved people, 314n137; and freedpeople, 127–29 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD): and Confederate soldiers, 26; and delusions, 335n111; historiographical issues of, 11, 26; and prisoner of war camps, 163; as problematic diagnosis, 11, 270n11, 326n10; symptoms of, 11; and traumatic brain injury (TBI), 325n2. See also Confederate veterans
Preston, John, 52
Preston, Margaret Junkin, 52–53
Price, Mary Ann, 228 prisoner of war camps, 162–66 prisoners of war, 174
Prochant, Charles, 46
property values, 202–3
Pruitt, Elisha, 216
Pryor, Sarah Rice, 255–56
Pryor, S. G., 191
puerperal insanity. See postpartum disorders
Quintard, C. T., 244
Rawlings, Hannah, 201
Rayner, Sarah Spratt Polk, 230
Reconstruction: and child mortality, 230; and economic devastation, 197–99, 201–7, 203, 219–20, 230; and emancipation, economic impact of, 183–84, 197, 205–7; and military defeat, 187–88; and paternalism, breakdown of, 233–34; and violence, 188. See also Confederate veterans; Confederate women, postwar; freedpeople
Reconstruction Acts of 1867, 187–88
Reese, Ann, 204–5
“religious melancholy,” 120
Richardson, Sampson, 106
Richardson, William, 253
Ridgell, Daniel, 194
Ridgell, Felix, 194
Ridgell, Mark, 193–94
Ridgell, Norris Thomas, 194
Ridgell, Tudor, 194
Ridgell, William, 194
Ridings, Alexander, 30
Riley, William, 286n108
Roberts, J. D., 136
Roberts, William G., 181
Robinson, Charles P., 46–47
Robinson, Louisa, 297n84
Robinson, Samuel A., 36
Rogers, S. H., 117
Rohn, Sarah, 297n84
"Roman" suicide, 47–48
Roper, Moses, 104, 112, 118, 119
Rose (enslaved woman), 314n137
Royall (enslaved man), 106
Rubin, Anne Sarah, 13
Ruffin, Edmund, 235–39, 237, 255–57, 261, 281n75–76, 287n121
Ruffin, Edmund, Jr., 235, 256
Sacco (enslaved man), 99–100
Sam (enslaved man), 100–101
Sanders, King, 146
Sanders, Samuel David, 28
Saxon, Elizabeth Lyle, 114
Scott, Anne Firor, The Southern Lady, 53
Scott, Richard, 168
Scott, W. L., 157–58
Seay, Osburn, 169
Seddon, Elvira, 201
Shampert, Arthur, 126
Shannon, C. N. “Neal,” 157
Sharpe, John, 157
Shaw, Sam, 106
Sheridan, George, 44
Sherman, William T.: march to the sea, 76–78, 187
shirkers, 26, 28, 40, 44
Shockley, Elizabeth, 75
Silkenat, David, 94–97, 117, 121–22, 263n4, 281n73, 328n24
Sims, Jane, 73, 217
skulkers, 28, 31
slave patrols, 103
Smallwood, Allen, 165
Smith, Cornelia, 217
Smith, Phineas, 119
Snelson, Albinus, 156
Snyder, Terri L., 98, 263n4, 273n19, 308n48, 313n130
South Carolina Lunatic Asylum, 276n44
Springer, Caroline, 71
Stamper, A. J., 41
Stanton, Henry, 110
Steedman, James S., 139
Steele, John, 160
Stevens, Marion, 33
Steward, Austin, 104, 105, 117–18
Stewart, Alvan, 94
“Stewart” (freedman), 130
Stokes, William H., 283n90
Stone, Kate, 200
Story, Neal, 155
Stowe, Harriet Beecher, Uncle Tom’s Cabin, 111
straggler, 31
Stringham, Thomas, 28–30, 40
Stuart, J. E. B., 27
Sturtz, John, 173
suffering: and Christ as model, 15–16, 243–48; of Confederate soldiers, 3–4; of Confederate veterans, 4; of Confederate women, postwar, 5; of Confederate women, wartime, 4–5; as correlation with suicidal activity, 2; of enslaved people, 5–6; and freedpeople, 6–7; as gendered, 3, 4; historiography of, 2–3; and historiography of Civil War, 12, 14–15; and Lost Cause myth, 13; as racialized, 13; and Southern compared to Northern, 12–13 “suicidal ideation,” 8 suicide, among freedpeople: attributed to mania, 144–46; frequency of, 133–35, 138, 142–44; historiographical treatment of, 6, 121–23. See also freedpeople suicide, among the enslaved: as act of resistance, 94–99, 118–19; frequency of, 87, 93; historiography of, 118–19; sources for, 88, 98, 106, 108; white denial of, 5–6, 85–88, 89, 117, 132. See also enslaved people suicide, attitudes toward: and African American suicide, 16; changes as result of war, 15, 16, 27, 37, 245–54; and Christ as model, 243–48; Christian doctrine condemnation of, 15–16, 47, 236–38, 239–41, 243–48, 258, 273n19; Christian doctrine versus laypeople, 241–43, 248, 252–53; Christian doctrine versus ministers, 253; as heroic, 46–47; and secularization of suicide, 16, 250–54, 258 suicide, motives: assigned motive, 9; Civil War as backdrop, 25; contemporary conjectures, 30; determination of, 24–25; as gendered, 79–80, 297n84; methodology for, 8–12; for slaveowner to hide enslaved suicide, 89; as unknowable, 23–24; and war trauma, link to, 9. See also Confederate soldiers; Confederate veterans; Confederate women, wartime; Confederate women, postwar; enslaved people; freedpeople suicide, responses to: among enslaved population, 117–19; as brave, 251; as commendable, 238; compassion, 16, 37–39, 80, 242–43, 249–51, 259–60; in coroners’ reports, 252; covering up of, 40–41; as cowardice, 239–40, 241, 258; empathy, 215; as honorable, 247, 257, 258, 259; from judgment to compassion, 27, 236–37; local support for victims, 40; motive as unknown, 156; newspaper accounts of, 250–51, 258–59, 362n82; as noble sacrifice, 16, 37–39, 48, 237, 255–57, 260–61; punishment for, 240, 241, 273n19; romanticization of, 255–57, 258, 259; as shameful, 40; soldier suicides as heroic, 80; white response to enslaved suicides, 85–88, 89, 117, 132; for women, 80 suicide, study of: as gendered, 7–8; methodological challenges, 7–12; as racialized, 7, 16; sources for, 7–8 suicide mania, 121–22, 160, 229, 259 suicide notes, 173–77, 180, 186, 235

Sullivan, Hutson B., 252

Sumner, John M, 165–66

Talcote, Catherine, 232

Taylor, Ira, 187–88

Taylor, Joseph, 44

Taylor, Polly, 120

Taylor, Simon, 252

Taylor, William, 140

Taylor, William H., 241–42, 252–53

Teat, James, 182

temporary insanity, 24, 30

Thomas, Ella Gertrude Clanton, 65, 81, 158–59, 213, 230

Thomas, Mary, 354n135

Thompson, Benjamin, 187

Thornwell, James Henley, 245

Thysent (Confederate captain), 37

Tom (enslaved man), 102

Tompkins, George H., 113

Toombs, Robert, 186–87

Torrey, Jesse, 94, 109

total warfare, 75–78

Towns, William Henry, 104, 118

transmigration, 91

traumatic brain injury (TBI), 44, 45–46, 314n137, 325n2

Trey, Joseph, 142

Tripp, Joe, 124–25

Tripp, Lou, 124–25

Tucker, Noah, 43

Tuggle, Charlotte, 141

Turner, Josiah, 222–23

Turner, Sophia, 222–23

Turnipseed, Laura Ann, 56–57

Uncle Tom’s Cabin, 111

Unionists, 188
vagrancy, 130
Varner, Edward, 183
Vernon, Eliza, 295n69
Vinovskis, Maris A., 12, 340n53
v. w. violence: and Confederate soldiers, 43;
and Confederate veterans, 151, 152,
154–55, 157, 159, 160, 162, 165, 168,
171–72, 184, 186, 190; and Confederate women, postwar, 205; and Confederate women, wartime, 67, 71, 77; and enslaved people, 6, 91–92, 99–103, 104, 105, 117; and enslaved people, sexual assault of, 93–94, 95, 100, 113–15, 126,
331n77; and freedpeople, 123, 127–28,
131, 139–40, 145–47; in Southern history, 1
v. w. vital statistics, collecting of, 7, 88

Wacker, Emil, 184
Wadley, Sarah, 200
Wanderer, 114
v. w. war trauma, 26, 270n11
Washington, George N., 160
Way, Hannah, 76
Way, Henry, 76
Webb, Juda, 141
Weeks, Edward, 156–57
Wellborne, James, 154
Westcott, Thomas, 253
Western Lunatic Asylum, 283n90
Whitaker, J. Chesnut, 41–42
White, E., 28
Whites, LeeAnn, 58n15, 193n63, 274n22
widowhood, 4, 67–73, 77, 206, 212, 213,
225–29
Williams, James, 110
Williams, John, 155
Wilson, Louisa, 62, 80
Wilson’s Raid, 77
Wimm, Robert, 252
Witherspoon, A. J., 245
Works Progress Administration (WPA)
interviews, 91, 99
Worthy, Mary, 231
Wright, George, 46
Wright, Louise Wigfall, 52, 55
Wright, Stephen “Jockey,” 145
Wythe, Henry, 100
This page intentionally left blank