The Art of Distances
Stan, Corina

Published by Northwestern University Press

Stan, Corina.
The Art of Distances: Ethical Thinking in Twentieth-Century Literature.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/58133.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/58133
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

List of Abbreviations

Introduction: Adorno and Barthes on the Question of the Right (Di)stance

Part I. The Pathos of Distances in “a World of Banished People”

Chapter 1
George Orwell’s Critique of Sincerity and the Obligation of Tactlessness

Chapter 2
The Inferno of Saviors: Notes in the Margin of Elias Canetti’s Lifework

Chapter 3
A Socialism of Distances, or On the Difficulties of Wise Love: Iris Murdoch’s Secular Community

Part II. “The World in Me”: The Distantiality of Everyday Life

Chapter 4
In Search of a Whole Self: Benjamin’s Childhood Fragments

Chapter 5
Annie Ernaux’s Diaries of the Outside

Chapter 6
Günter Grass’s Century

Chapter 7
Damon Galgut on Emptying Oneself for Sleep