The Taiwan Voter

Wang, T. Y., Achen, Christopher Henry

Published by University of Michigan Press

Wang, T. Y. and Christopher Henry Achen.
The Taiwan Voter.

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/53014

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2008562
Index

Page numbers in italics indicate tables and figures.

aboriginal people
defined, 21n8
KMT support, 41n3
legislative seats reserved for, 223, 238 absentee voting, lack of, 22n9
age
in multifactorial model, 279
national identity changes, 54–55, 55, 56 political generations definition, 67n6
political participation and, 253–54, 258, 259, 259, 260–62, 264
unification/independence issue, 62–64, 63
voting behavior connection, 35–36, 37

Aldrich, John, 167
The American Voter (Campbell et al.), 2–3, 170, 172, 276 Anderson, Christopher, 3, 278 assessment of candidates. See candidate evaluation

Bartels, Larry, 152, 277
Brody, R., 120
Bush, George H. W., 172
Butler, David, 3

Campaign for Rectifying the Name of Taiwan, 126
Campbell, Angus, 2–3, 72, 170
Canada, confusion with left-right labels, 215, 219n15 candidate evaluation, 170–97
data for, 173–80, 176, 178, 180, 190–91
formation of, 171–73
importance in electoral decision-making, 2, 12, 18–19, 277
overview, 170–71
partisan identification vs., 174, 180–88, 183–87, 191 role in pre-1986 elections, 76
survey questions, 192–94
vote choice vs., 174, 188–89, 189, 190, 191–92

Carlin, Ryan, 3
Carmines, Edward G., 99 characteristics of voters, 26–44
age, 35–36, 37
consolidation of two-party system, 15–16, 27–31, 28, 29, 39
education, 33–34, 35
ethnic identity, 31–33, 32, 36–39, 38
income, 33, 34
independent voters, 73
characteristics of voters (continued)
occupation, 34–35, 36
partisan identification, 36–40, 38 recent presidential election results, 26–27 wording and coding of demographic variables, 40
See also specific characteristics
Chen, Wen-chun, 202
Chen Chih-ping, 134n9
Chen Lu-an, 27, 119, 175
Chen Shui-bian assassination attempt, 27, 41n2, 178
candidate evaluation of, 173, 177–79, 183–87, 190–91 corruption charges, 104–5, 133n3, 195n8, 240 de-Sinicization measures, 10, 52, 65
economic policies, 108, 201
election of, 10, 286
electoral reform pledge, 234, 235, 236 evolution of unification/independence position, 115–16, 117, 126 Hakka appointments, 32
national referendum proposal, 155n3
New Central Way policy, 115, 121
nuclear power plant compromise, 112 partisan identification of supporters, 37, 39 presidential campaign, 27, 30 renaming of state agencies, 67n5 support for independence, 6, 52 trade restrictions, 7
voter perception of animosity from China, 60 Chi Hang, 174, 175, 182
Chi Hang Kai-shek crackdown in Taiwan, 6
mainlanders support for, 31
re-Sinicization measures, 5, 45, 65
retreat to Taiwan, 58
China factor. See China-Taiwan relationship; unification/independence issue China-Taiwan relationship, 158–169
in candidate evaluation, 185, 186, 186, 188–89, 189, 190 Chinese vs. Taiwanese consciousness, 51 complex dynamics of, in vote choice, 18, 162–68, 163–66 concerns for peace, 14
cultural heritage, 4–5
diplomatic isolation of Taiwan, 6, 9–10, 59–60, 64, 65, 162 economic ties, 7–8, 142, 158–162, 160, 161, 166–67 importance in future elections, 285–89
issue ownership theory applied to, 182 military coercion, 59–60, 65 by national identity, 60–62, 60, 61
overview, 1–2
public perceptions of, 161–64, 163, 167–68
security threat aspects, 5–7, 63–64, 162 Chinese identity. See also dual Chinese-Taiwanese identity cultural vs. political connotations, 56, 58 decrease in, 10, 64
by ethnicity, 53–54, 53
fostering of, 49, 51
one China beliefs, 8
Pan-Blue Alliance support, 11
by political generation, 54–55, 55
political participation and, 255, 258, 262
private poll results, 67n7
Chinese Nationalist Party. See Kuomin-tang (KMT) Party
Chinese/Taiwanese consciousness boundary, 51–58, 53, 55, 57, 64
Chinese Youth Party, 77, 95n2
Chu, Eric, 287
Chu, Yun-Han, 100
citizen evaluation of candidates. See candidate evaluation citizen identity. See voter identity Clark, Cal, 168

class concerns emergence of, 106–7, 129
occupation, 34–35, 36
unequal political participation, 264–66
See also education; income cleavage theory, 224–26
Clinton, Bill, 172, 173
collectivity of common fate (sheng-ming-gong-tong-ti), 50 communism vs. democracy, left-right labels, 203, 205 Communist Party (China), 5, 7, 58, 203 Comparative Study of Electoral Systems (CSES), 198–99, 201–2, 218n2 competence

in candidate evaluation, 172, 190–91
data for, 174–80, 176, 178, 180
relationship with partisanship, 180–88, 183–87
survey questions, 192, 193, 194, 194n1

conservatism, as the “right,” 218n3

collectionalism framework instrumentalism vs., 67n2
overview, 46–48, 64
relational aspects of boundaries, 45–46, 65
socialization role in, 47, 65
Converse, Philip E., 121, 198, 202
Cooley, Charles, 46
corruption, 185–86, 187
Council for Hakka Affairs, 32
Council of Grand Justices, 112
Cox, Gary, 242–43
cross-Strait relations. See China-Taiwan relationship CSES (Comparative Study of Electoral Systems), 198–99, 201–2, 218n2

Dahl, Robert, 252
Dalton, Russell, 3, 202, 214, 219n14 Dang-wai, 75, 76–77, 102, 103, 127 decision-making, electoral. See vote choice De Graaf, Nan Dirk, 3, 200 democracy political participation importance, 252–53, 262–63 political parties importance, 92 support for, 85–86, 86, 87 Democratic Progressive Party (DPP). See also Pan-Green Alliance absentee voting opposition, 22n9 campaign strategies, 117
candidate evaluation, 19
Chen Shui-bian leadership of, 177 Dang-wai involvement, 77
de-Sinicization measures, 52, 65
economic policies, 7–8, 111–14, 128, 142, 162 electoral system reform, 223–24, 234–36, 240–42 environmental policies, 111–14, 128
ethnic identity connection, 36–40, 38
formation of, 6, 75–76, 78, 91
framing of issues, 98, 102–3, 127 increasing power of, 10
irrelevance of left-right labels, 201, 209–10, 211
issue ownership theory applied to, 181–88
national referendum proposal, 149, 155n3
NP alliance, 104
as opposition party, 227
Pan-Green Alliance leadership, 11, 15, 39 Peng Ming-min nomination, 175
post-1990s partisanship, 79–81, 81
public perceptions of, 104, 105
reform/stability issue, 103–5, 126, 127
social welfare policies, 106, 107–9, 109, 110, 129, 130 Taiwanese consciousness of, 58
unification/independence issue, 52, 114–22, 126, 128, 286–87
Democratic Socialist Party, 77, 95n2 democratization of Taiwan discord with diplomatic isolation, 9–10, 59
effects on ethnic divide, 49–50
first popular election of president, 27
overview, 1
pace of reform, 6
party system changes, 71, 227 reform/stability issue prominence, 100, 103
support for democracy, 85–86, 86, 87
support for independence, 52 demographics. See characteristics of voters
diplomatic isolation of Taiwan, 6, 9–10, 59–60, 64, 65, 162
Directorate General of Budget, Accounting and Statistics (DGBAS), 150, 155n4
disposable income per capita (DIPC) effect on economic voting, 149–54, 151, 152, 153, 154
hypothesis for, 143
in multifactorial model, 281
district level elections, postreform changes, 242–43, 244
district magnitude (M), 224, 227, 233
Downs, Anthony, 140
DPP. See Democratic Progressive Party dual Chinese-Taiwanese identity
cultural vs. political connotations, 58
by ethnicity, 53–54, 53
increase in, 10, 58, 64
by political generation, 54–55, 55
political participation and, 255, 258, 262
Duch, Raymond, 141
DuPont, 111
Duverger, Maurice, 224, 243
Duverger’s hypothesis, 224, 225, 241, 242
Duverger’s law, 224–25, 241, 242
Economic Cooperation Framework Agreement (ECFA)
as emerging issue, 283–85, 284
implications of, 160–61, 162 KMT vs. DPP views, 129
signing of, 7, 143
voter evaluation of, 164–66, 164–68 economic issues
in candidate evaluation, 185, 186, 186, 187
discord with diplomatic isolation, 9–10, 59
evolution of issue, 106–7, 128, 282– 85, 284
importance in electoral decision-making, 17–18, 141–43
issue ownership theory applied to, 181–82
left-right political spectrum, 199–200
overview, 1
ties with China, 7–8, 142, 158–62, 160, 161
as valence issue, 123–24 economic voting, 139–57 bivariate relationship between economic evaluation and vote choice, 145–46, 145, 146
evaluations of national economic conditions, 144–45, 145
logistic regression models, 147–49, 148
mixed evidence for, 18, 139, 141–43, 154–55, 277–78
overview, 18, 139
personal income factors, 149–154, 151, 152, 153, 154
survey questions and coding scheme, 143–44, 144
theoretical framework, 140–41
education
of independent voters, 79, 81–82, 82
in multifactorial model, 281
political interest among independents and, 83–84, 84
role in collective memories, 52 status quo support among independents and, 85, 85
support for democracy among independents and, 86, 87
vote choice among independents and, 90, 90 voting behavior connection, 33–34, 35
effective number of electoral parties (ENEP), 241–42, 242 effective number of parliamentary parties (ENPP), 241–42, 242 effective threshold, 247n8 elderly
political participation, 260–62
social welfare programs for, 107, 108, 109–10, 134n9 Election Study Center, National Cheng- chi University, 102, 104, 120, 150, 253 electoral decision-making. See vote choice electoral participation, non-voting, 260–63, 264–68, 270n8 See also political participation electoral system change, 223–51 convergence to two-party system, 245–46 district level effects, 242–43, 244 first postreform legislative election, 239–40, 245 national level effects, 240–42, 242
overview, 223–24
reform, 231–39, 233, 237 SNTV system, 226–231, 228, 229, 230, 245
theoretical frameworks, 224–26
voter level effects, 243–45
ENEP (effective number of electoral parties), 241–42, 242 ENPP (effective number of parliamentary parties), 241–42, 242 environmental protection/economy issue
evolution of issue, 101, 111–14, 113, 128
importance in electoral decision-making, 17
irrelevance of left-right labels, 210, 212–13, 212, 213
questionnaire wording and results, 131, 132
status as most important problem facing Taiwan, 124, 125, 126–27 survey question wording, 217
equilibrium. tendency to, 22n10 Erikson, Robert S., 140, 149
ethnic identity
changing boundaries of, 48–51, 50, 64, 274–75 effects on unification/independence issue, 13
importance in electoral decision-making, 31–33, 32
in multifactorial model, 281 partisan identification connection, 36–40, 38
political participation and, 253, 254, 258, 259, 260–62, 260, 265 role in political cleavage, 16 wealth distribution connection, 106 evaluation of candidates. See candidate evaluation Evans, Geoffrey, 3, 200
Executive Yuan, 112

factional politics, prevalence in Taiwan, 21n2 Fa-tong, 74
February 28 Incident (1947), 6, 9, 48, 73
Feldman, Stanley, 140
Fell, Dafydd, 122, 201, 234
Fiorina, Morris P., 140
Formosa Incident (1980), 177, 195n6
Four Noes plus One Without pledge, 116, 134n15 freezing hypothesis, 11–12, 224, 285 Fukushima nuclear incident (2011), 113, 128, 134n13
funnel of causality model, 170, 191
Geertz, Clifford, 47
Gellner, Ernest, 47
Gomez, Brad, 141
group consciousness
Chinese vs. Taiwanese consciousness, 52, 67n4 effects on constructed identities, 47

Hakka ethnic group
defined, 21n8
national identity changes, 53–54, 53
political participation, 254, 258, 260
pre-1986 lack of representation, 74
support for KMT, 74, 75, 76
support for Lee Teng-hui, 175
views on ethnic tension, 50, 50
voting behavior, 31–33, 32
Hakka TV, 32
Hand-in-Hand Rally (2004), 118
Hansen, John Mark, 253
Hau Pei-tsun, 195n4
Hayes, Danny, 181
Hibb, Douglas A., Jr., 149
Hotelling, Harold, 198
Hsiao, Yi-ching, 142
Hsieh, John Fuh-sheng, 100, 142 Hsieh Chang-ting (Frank) environmental and economic policies, 112 presidential campaign, 105, 179
unification/independence issue, 118, 119, 121
Hsu, Yung-ming, 155n3
Hsu Hsin-liang, 177
Huang, Chi, 225
Huang, Hsiu-tin, 155n3
Hung Hsiu-chu, 287
Hunt, W. Ben, 199–200

independence/unification issue. See unification/independence issue
independent voters
candidate evaluation, 188
demographics of, 73
education levels, 79, 81–82, 82, 92 literature review, 72–73
national identity connection, 57, 58
as non-KMT supporters, 78
overview, 16–17
pivotal role of, 73, 91, 92 political interest, 83–84, 84
political participation, 254
post-1990s partisanship, 79–81, 81 role in developing party system, 91
support for democracy, 86, 87
Taiwan Provincial Assembly elections, 77–78, 77
unification/independence issue, 85, 85
vote choice, 89–90, 89, 90 voting percentages, 87, 88, 89 industrial restructuring, 1, 159, 160 inequality. See wealth inequality Inglehart, Ronald, 100, 114, 200 instrumentalism, 67n2 investment in China, by Taiwan benefits of, 166–67
change over time, 159–62, 161
Ireland, confusion with left-right labels, 215, 219n15
issue orientation, 98–138
environmental protection/economy issue overview, 101, 111–14, 113, 128
importance in electoral decision-making, 2, 17–18, 98–102
irrelevance of left-right labels, 210, 212–13, 212, 213 partisan elites framing of, 102–3 public perceptions of most important problems, 123–27, 123, 124, 125
questionnaire wording and results, 130–31, 132
reform/stability issue overview, 98, 100, 101, 103–5, 105, 127 identity. See voter identity

income
classification of groups, 40–41
effect on economic voting, 149–54, 151, 152, 153, 154
hypothesis for, 143
in multifactorial model, 281
voting behavior connection, 33, 34 incumbent reward-punishment voting. See economic voting wealth distribution issue overview, 100, 101, 106–11, 109, 129
See also specific issues issue ownership theory, 181, 188

Jansen, Guido, 200

Japan
adoption of mixed-member system, 19, 232, 245 colonial rule of Taiwan, 4–5, 9, 48
Jones, Calvin C., 121
Jou, Willy, 202, 215

Key, V. O., Jr., 140
Kiewiet, D. Roderick, 140
Kinder, R. Donald, 140, 172, 173, 174
KMT Party. See Kuomintang (KMT) Party
Kramer, Gerald, 140
Kuomintang (KMT) Party. See also Pan-Blue Alliance authoritarian regime, 5–6, 10, 73–76, 255–56 candidate evaluation, 19, 175
Chinese consciousness of, 58 coalition nature of, 41n3 constitutional amendments, 246n4 control of legislative branch, 227 development of offshoot parties, 78, 116, 239 dominance under single-party system, 226–27 economic policies, 111–14, 128, 142, 162, 283
electoral reform advocacy, 223–24, 234–36, 240–42
environmental policies, 111–14, 128
ethnic identity connection, 36–40, 38 grassroots support for, 75
irrelevance of left-right labels, 201, 209–10, 209, 211
issue ownership theory applied to, 181–88
monopolization of political power, 16–17, 91 number of registered members, 95n3 Pan-Blue Alliance leadership, 11, 15, 39
post-1990s partisanship, 79–81, 81 postcolonial rule of Taiwan, 48–49 presidential campaigns, 27, 88, 90
public perceptions of, 104, 105
reform/stability issue, 126
re-Sinicization measures, 45, 49, 51, 65
retreat to Taiwan, 5, 16, 31, 48, 58, 73
six-three-three slogan, 147, 155n2
social welfare policies, 106, 107–9, 109, 110, 129, 130, 134n9 suppression of left views, 203
unification/independence issue, 115, 116, 118, 119, 120–22, 128, 287

Laakso-Taagepera numbers, 241–42, 242
Lacy, Dean, 142
Lai, William, 21n7
Lanoue, David, 141
Laver, Michael, 199–200
Lazarsfeld, Paul, 2
Lee Teng-hui
candidate evaluation of, 173, 174–77, 182–83, 186, 188, 190 economic conditions during presidency, 182 evolution of unification/independence position, 51–52, 119, 120, 126 independent voter support of, 88 indirect election of, 49, 195n3
Japanese citizenship of, 21n4
Minnan support for, 31
missile crisis, 163
National Development Meeting, 233 popularity of, 33
reelection of, 6, 30
social welfare policies, 134n9
left, cultural connotations of term, 203–4 left-right political spectrum, 198–222
  citizen perception of, 204–7 concept of, 199–201, 218n3 conventional view of, 214 cultural connotations of, 203–4, 219n6–7 lack of meaning in Taiwan, 19, 134n10, 201–2, 213–16, 218n4, 219n5
  overview, 198–99
  survey evidence, 207–13, 208–9, 211–13
  survey questions, 216–18
legislative elections
  electoral system change effects, 242–45, 242, 244
  history of, 226–27, 228, 229, 231, 237 interaction with presidential elections, 232, 233, 241, 246n6
  post-1990s partisanship, 80
  preludes to postreform election, 239–40 unification/independence issue importance, 125–26 voter turnout, 256–57, 257, 258, 259
Legislative Yuan
  change to direct election, 256 constitutional amendment of, 231–32 electoral system change ratification, 223 events leading to electoral reform, 231–39, 233, 237 nuclear power plant compromise, 112
Lien Chan
  candidate evaluation of, 183, 185–87, 190–91
  electoral reform advocacy, 235–36
  presidential campaigns, 27, 30, 115, 177, 178–79, 235 running mate candidacy, 174, 286
  social welfare policies, 134n9
Lijphart, Arend, 247n8
Lin His-shan, 134n9
Lin Yang-kang, 27, 119, 175, 183, 195n4
Lin Yi-tze, 142, 146
Lin Yi-Xiong, 236
Lipset, Seymour M.
  freezing hypothesis, 11, 224, 285
  political cleavages, 100, 224
  political participation, 262–63
  list tier seats, 238
  local elections, history of, 256
  Lockerbie, Brad, 141
MacKuen, Michael B., 140
mainlanders
  defined, 21n8
  monopolization of political power, 48–49
  national identity changes, 50, 50, 53–54, 53, 58
  Pan-Blue Alliance identification, 16, 51
  political participation, 254, 258, 260
  support for KMT, 74, 76
  support for Lee Teng-hui, 175 Taiwanese identity among, 56
  voting behavior, 31–33, 32, 281
Malanchuk, Oksana, 172
Mandarin dialect, left-right terms, 203, 204, 214 manufacturing move from Taiwan to China, 159 small factory participation, 133nn6–7
Markus, Gregory B., 121, 140
Ma Ying-jeou
  candidate evaluation of, 173, 179–80, 186
  economic policies, 112, 143, 160, 283
  election of, 7, 10, 27, 31, 53, 240 engagement policies, 18
  environmental policies, 112 mayoral election victory, 177, 179 Minnan support for, 31
  peace dividend, 149
  pinyin system use, 22n9
reelection of, 287
reform/stability issue, 105
Sunflower Student Movement protest, 290n9 support from business, 129
unification/independence issue, 118, 120
memory-based model of candidate evaluation, 171
Miller, Arthur, 172
Miller, Warren, 172
Minnan ethnic group defined, 21n8
national identity changes, 9, 53–54, 53
Pan-Green Alliance identification, 16, 51
political participation, 254, 258, 260
pre-1986 lack of representation, 74
support for KMT, 74, 75, 76
support for Lee Teng-hui, 175
views on ethnic tension, 50, 50
voting behavior, 31–33, 32
missile buildup and tests, 7, 10, 14, 59–60, 163 mixed-member majoritarian system (MMM) adoption of, 12, 19–20, 223, 238 impact of, 239–45, 242, 244
Japan adoption of, 19, 232, 245
SF ratio, 243, 244
subtypes of, 246n1
ticket-splitting, 243–45
Moser, Robert, 226
most important problem, as issue, 123, 123–27, 124, 125, 131

Nadeau, Richard, 140
National Assembly of Taiwan change to direct election, 41n1, 195n3, 256 constitutional amendments, 246n4
electoral system change ratification, 223, 231, 232, 236, 238
National Development Meeting (1996), 233

national health insurance programs, 107, 108 national identity changing boundaries of, 58–62, 60, 61, 64, 65, 274–75 crossing with left-right labels, 215
by ethnicity, 53–54, 53
importance in electoral decision-making, 2, 8
in multifactorial model, 281
overlap with partisan identification, 275–77, 276 perception of animosity from China, 60–61, 61
by political generation, 54–55, 55
political participation and, 254–55, 258, 259, 260–62, 262, 267
private poll results, 67n7
unification/independence issue and, 10, 13, 16, 20–21, 61–62, 61
See also Chinese identity; dual Chinese-Taiwanese identity; Taiwanese identity Nationalist Party. See Kuomintang (KMT) Party national referendum proposal, 149, 155n3
national security, as valence issue, 123–24
National Unification Council, 52, 119
National Unification Guidelines, 52, 119
New Central Way policy, 115, 121
New KMT Alliance, 119
New Party (NP)
DPP alliance, 104
formation of, 27, 78, 91, 119, 175
Pan-Blue Alliance membership, 11 support for unification, 13, 117 new Taiwanese (xin-Taiwanren), 50, 52
Nie, Norman, 252
1992 consensus, 119, 134n16, 283, 287, 290n8
Niou, Emerson M. S., 100, 142 nominal tier seats, 238, 243, 246n1, 246n3 Nonpartisan Solidarity Union (NPSU) cooperation with KMT, 240 opposition to MMM system, 236, 238
Pan-Blue Alliance membership, 11 nonpartisan voters. See independent voters nonresponse rates to left-right question, 207–8, 208 Norris, Pippa, 108, 201 north-south divide. See regional divide
No Unification, No Independence, and No Use of Force pledge, 120
NP. See New Party
NPSU. See Nonpartisan Solidarity Union nuclear power plant protests, 111, 112–14, 128 occupation, and voting behavior, 34–35, 36 One China principle insistence on, 58–59 international effects, 9
KMT support for, 51–52, 74
1992 consensus, 119, 134n16, 283, 287, 290n8 online model of candidate evaluation, 171 Page, Benjamin, 120, 121
Paldam, Martin, 277
Pan-Blue Alliance
age demographics, 35–36, 37
consolidation of two-party system, 27–31, 28, 29
coordination in, 240
education demographics, 33–34, 35 electoral advantage of, 28, 31, 39, 285–86
ethnic identity connection, 31–33, 32, 36–40, 38
formation of, 11, 17, 27, 78–79, 270n4
income demographics, 33, 34 mainlanders identification with, 16, 51
national identity connection, 57, 58
occupation demographics, 34–35, 36
post-1990s partisanship, 79–81, 81
regional divide effects, 15–16, 30–31
wealth distribution issue, 129
See also Kuomintang (KMT) Party Pan-Green Alliance
age demographics, 35–36, 37
consolidation of two-party system, 27–31, 28
economic policies, 283
ethnic identity connection, 33–34, 35, 36–40, 38 ethnic identity demographics, 33
formation of, 11, 17, 27, 78–79, 270n4
income demographics, 33, 34
increasing competitiveness of, 15 Minnan identification with, 16, 51
national identity connection, 57, 58
occupation demographics, 34–35, 36
post-1990s partisanship, 79–81, 81
regional divide effects, 15–16, 30–31
wealth distribution issue, 129
See also Democratic Progressive Party parliament. See Legislative Yuan parliamentary elections. See legislative elections partisan identification, 71–97
candidate evaluation connection, 19, 174, 180–89, 183–87, 191 categories of, 79, 94–95n1 democratization effects on, 90–91 ECFA evaluation connection, 164–67, 164, 166
economic voting connection, 143, 149, 153, 155
ethnic identity connection, 16, 36–40, 38, 57, 58
factors in, 273–74, 288 freezing hypothesis effects, 11–12 historical origins of, 73–79, 77 impact on voting, 87, 88, 89
importance in electoral decision-making, 2, 8, 16–17
independent and weakly partisan voters, 81–82, 82, 91–92 irrelevance of left-right labels, 213, 214, 219n12 issue position connection, 121–22, 122, 135n18
literature review, 72–73
measurement in TEDS survey, 289n2
in multifactorial model, 278–82
overlap with national identity, 275–77, 276
overview, 71–72
political interest effects, 81–83, 82, 83, 84
political participation and, 254, 258, 259, 260–62, 261, 266
post-1990s partisanship, 79–81, 81
support for democracy and, 85–86, 86, 87
survey question wording, 218
unification/independence issue effects on, 11–12, 84–85, 84, 85 vote choice effects, 88–90, 89, 90 party list system, 223, 238, 241, 247n9 party polarization, confusion with left-right labels, 214–15 party switching, 239
party system
history of, 228
importance to democracy, 92
power of identity in, 288–89 pre-1986 elections, 73–79, 77
theoretical frameworks, 224–26
See also two-party system; specific parties Peng Ming-min, 88, 115, 175, 188
People First Party (PFP) cooperation with KMT, 116, 239
electoral reform advocacy, 235, 236, 238
formation of, 27, 78, 91
Pan-Blue Alliance membership, 11
postreform election, 241
social welfare policies, 109
personal character
candidate evaluation of, 172–73, 174–80, 176, 178, 180, 190–91
relationship with partisanship, 180–88, 183–87
survey questions, 192, 193, 194, 194n1 personal income. See disposable income per capita Petrocik, John, 181
PFP. See People First Party
Pierce, Roy, 198, 202
pinyin system, 22n9
Plebiscite Law, 118
Political Change in Britain (Butler and Stokes), 3 political generations, 67n6 political identity. See voter identity political interest, partisanship and, 81–83, 82, 83, 84 political knowledge, political participation and, 255, 259, 260–62, 263, 268
political participation, 252–72 concerns with unequal participation, 261–62, 265–66 defined, 253
electoral participation, 260–63, 264–68, 270n8
factors in, 20, 253–55, 264–65 need for further research, 263–64
overview, 252–53
restriction of, during authoritarian period, 49 survey questions and coding scheme, 267–69
position issues, 101
See also specific issues postal voting, lack of, 22n9 Powell, G. Bingham, Jr., 225, 278 presidential elections candidate evaluation in, 19 comparison of factors influencing vote choice, 278–82, 280, 282 presidential elections (continued) ECFA evaluation and vote choice, 166, 166 economic voting in, 18, 142–43, 154
electoral system change effects, 242, 242
former indirect election practice, 41n1, 195n3 historical trends in voter turnout, 256–57, 257 independent voter influence on, 90 interaction with legislative elections, 226, 232, 233, 241, 246n6 partisanship changes over time, 80, 88–89 plurality system, 227, 230 recent results of, 26–27
unification/independence issue importance, 125–26, 286–87 voter turnout by age, 258, 259 primordialism framework
overview, 46–48, 64
relational aspects of boundaries, 45–46, 65 views on Taiwanese identity, 54, 56 proportional representation Duverger’s hypothesis, 224, 225, 241, 242
electoral system change effects, 242, 242
in postreform legislature, 240–41 in prereform legislature, 227 sincere voting, 243, 245 prospective economic voting
hypothesis for, 143
logistic regression models, 147–49, 148
mixed evidence for, 142–43, 154, 278
in multifactorial model, 279, 281
results of survey, 144–46, 145, 146
theoretical framework, 141
public perceptions
environmental protection/economy issue, 111–12, 113, 113, 114
most important problem facing Taiwan, 123–27, 123, 124, 125 response to elite framing of issues, 99
unification/independence issue, 115–22, 116, 122
wealth distribution issue, 108–9, 109
Qing dynasty, 4, 9, 48
Rectification Movement (zheng-ming-yung-dong), 52
reform/stability issue
diminishing importance of, 17 framing of, 103–5, 105 importance during democratization, 100, 101
irrelevance of left-right labels, 210, 212–13, 212, 213
issue ownership theory applied to, 182, 186, 187
questionnaire wording and results, 130, 132
role in party competition, 98
status as most important problem facing Taiwan, 124, 125, 126
survey question wording, 217
regional divide, 15, 28, 30–31
Regulations for Managing the Relations between Citizens of the PRC and Taiwan, 118 Republic of Taiwan, as term, 9, 115 Resolution on Taiwan’s Future, 115 retrospective economic voting
hypothesis for, 143
logistic regression models, 147–49, 148
mixed evidence for, 142–43, 154, 278
in multifactorial model, 279, 290n6
results of survey, 144–46, 145
theoretical framework, 141 right, cultural connotations of term, 203–4 right-left political spectrum. See left-right political spectrum rising new nation (xin-xing-min-zu), 50 Rokkan, Stein, 11, 100, 224, 285
Rosenstone, Steven, 253
Scheiner, Ethan, 226
semipresidential system of Taiwan interaction with legislature, 225–26, 232 role in electoral reform, 239, 245 seniors. See elderly
SF ratio, 242–43, 244
Shanks, J. Merrill, 172
Sheng, Shin-yuan, 142
sheng-ming-gong-tong-ti (collectivity of common fate), 50
Shih Ming-te, 133n3
Shils, Edward, 46
Shugart, Matthew, 246n1
Sigelman, Lee, 198
Singer, Matthew, 3
single-member districts (SMDs) creation of, 223
Duverger’s law, 224–25, 241, 242
electoral system change effects, 242, 242 strategic voting in, 243, 245 single non-transferable vote (SNTV) electoral rules
disadvantages of, 231
history of, 226–31, 228, 229, 230, 246n2
reform of, 12, 223
SF ratio, 242, 244
six-three-three slogan, 147, 155n2
small business ownership, 107, 134n8 small parties
MMM system disadvantages, 238, 239
SNTV system advantages, 231
SNTV. See single non-transferable vote (SNTV) electoral rules socialization, effect on constructed identities, 47, 65
social order, as valence issue, 123–24
social welfare policies
as emerging issue, 283–85, 284
evolution of, 106–11, 109
irrelevance of left-right labels, 199– 200, 210, 212–13, 212, 213
in multifactorial model, 281
survey question wording, 217
Soong, James
electoral reform advocacy, 236
Lien Chan alliance, 115, 177, 178 move to PFP, 27, 116, 179
presidential campaigns, 30, 235, 241, 286, 287
south-north divide. See regional divide spatial model of left-right voting, 198
Stevenson, Randolph, 141
Stimson, James A., 99, 140
Stokes, Donald, 3
strategic voting, 241, 243–45
Sunflower Student Movement, 262,
266, 283, 290n9
Taiwan citizen, defined, 21n3
Taiwan Consensus, 119, 286, 287
Taiwan Election and Democratization Studies. See TEDS (Taiwan Election and Democratization Studies)
Taiwan Election Commission, 257
Taiwanese, as term, 21n3
Taiwanese dialect, left-right terms, 203, 214 Taiwanese identity
by ethnicity, 53–54, 53
increasing population with, 58, 64
in multifactorial model, 281
Pan-Green Alliance support, 11 perception of animosity from China, 60–61, 61
by political generation, 54–55, 55
political participation and, 255, 258, 262
primordial conceptualization of, 54, 56 reinforcement with independence views, 10
Taiwanese consciousness vs., 67n4
See also dual Chinese-Taiwanese identity
Taiwan Independence Clause, 114, 119
Taiwan National Security Survey, 4
Taiwan Provincial Assembly elections,
77–78, 77
Index

Taiwan Provincial Council, 233 Taiwan Solidarity Union (TSU)
  formation of, 78, 91
  opposition to MMM system, 235, 238
  Pan-Green Alliance membership, 11 party switching to DPP, 239
  postreform election, 241
  unification/independence issue, 13, 116–18, 126
Tan, Alexander, 168
Tanaka, Aiji, 214, 219n14
TEDS (Taiwan Election and Democratization Studies)
  left-right political spectrum, 202, 204
  partisan identification measurement, 289n2 political participation data, 253, 257 as source, 4
  ticket-splitting evidence, 244
Thomassen, Jacques, 3
Three Direct Links, 162
ticket-splitting, 243–45
Tien, Hung-mao, 142
tongdu issue. See unification/independence issue trade between Taiwan and China
  benefits of, 166–67
  change over time, 159–62, 160
trait ownership theory, 181, 191 trust, in candidate evaluation, 172 Tsai Ing-wen
  candidate evaluation of, 179, 180, 186
  loss to Ma Ying-jiou, 241 support for cross-Strait status quo, 130, 287
Taiwan consensus, 119, 286
TSU. See Taiwan Solidarity Union
Tuan Yi-kang, 119
Tufte, Edward R., 140, 149
Tverdova, Yulia, 173
2-28 Incident (1947), 6, 9, 48, 73
two-party system
Dang-wai situation, 77
district level effects, 243
institutional structures effects on, 19–20 largeness of parties in, 273 stability of, 285
unification/independence issue
  changing boundaries of, 62–64, 63
  Chinese vs. Taiwanese consciousness and, 51 dominance in Taiwanese politics, 8–12 economic voting connection, 143, 164–67, 164, 165
evolution of issue, 114–22, 116, 122, 128
importance in future elections, 285–89
irrelevance of left-right labels, 203, 206, 210, 212–13, 212, 213, 215
issue ownership theory applied to, 182
relationship with partisanship, 84–85, 84, 85, 276–77 relative importance of, 6, 14–15
role in electoral reform, 245–46
role in party competition, 98, 100–101 shifting public opinion of, 167–68
status as most important problem facing Taiwan, 124–26, 124, 125
survey questions, 131, 132, 133, 216
wealth distribution issue absorbed into, 129–30 United Nations, Taiwan application for membership, 118, 121 valence issues, 101, 124
See also specific issues
Verba, Sidney, 252
vote choice
  comparative strength of factors influencing, 2, 8, 13–15, 101, 277–82, 280, 282
  funnel of causality model, 170, 191
power of identity in, 289 relationship with candidate evaluation, 174, 188–89, 189, 190, 191–92
relationship with partisanship, 88–90, 89, 90
See also economic voting; specific issues to identity, 45–70, 273–290 Chinese/Taiwanese consciousness boundary, 51–58, 53, 55, 57, 64–65 comparative strength of factors influencing vote choice, 278–82, 280, 282, 289n4 complexity of, 273–74 economic voting and, 277–78 ethnicity boundary, 48–51, 50, 64 evolution from ethnic to national, 274–75 implications for future elections, 285–89
importance in electoral decision-making, 2 national identity boundary, 58–62, 60, 61, 65 overlap of national identity and partisanship identification, 275–77, 276
overview, 45–46
role of ECFA attitudes in central cleavage, 282–85
theoretical frameworks, 46–48, 64
unification/independence issue effects on, 62–64, 63, 65
See also ethnic identity; national identity voter level changes, postreform, 243–45
voter turnout
explanations of, 257–59, 259–63 historical trends in, 255–57, 257 importance to democracy, 252–53 misreporting of, 257, 270nn6–7
relationship with partisanship, 87, 88, 89

Wattenberg, Martin, 172, 246n1 wealth distribution

evolution of issue, 100, 101, 106–11, 109, 129–130, 282–85, 284
importance in electoral decision-making, 17
questionnaire wording and results, 130, 132
status as most important problem facing Taiwan, 124, 125, 126

wealth inequality

economic development effects, 155n1
increase in, 107, 110–11, 129, 282–85, 284 unequal political participation and, 265–66

Western democracies, left-right political spectrum, 198, 199–201, 215

Whitten, Guy, 278

Wilson, J. Matthew, 141

Wong Chung-chun, 134n9

Wu, Chin-en, 142, 146

Wu, Yu-Shan, 284

xin-Taiwanren (new Taiwanese), 50, 52 xin-xing-min-zu (rising new nation), 50

Yough, Syng Nam, 198

You Xi-Kun, 235

Zaller, John, 152

Zechmeister, Elizabeth, 3, 200–201

Zhang Xue-shun, 246n7

zheng-ming-yung-dong (Rectification Movement), 52