In the Red

Barta, Zsofia

Published by University of Michigan Press

Barta, Zsofia.
In the Red: The Politics of Public Debt Accumulation in Developed Countries.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/64081

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=2278757 accounting manipulations. See fiscal gimmickry adjustment approach to debt accumulation, 13–15, 16, 21, 25, 31, 52 aging, 51, 103, 130, 133, 137, 153, 185n3
Alesina, A., 20, 35–36, 180n1, 180n5
Amato reform of 1992, 172, 183n5
annual budgetary decisions. See yearly budgetary decisions Ansell, B. W., 44
anti-tax-state-dependency coalition (Italy), 71–72, 80, 81
austeriterians: arguments for elimination of debt, 10–11; debate with Keynesians, 9–12; support for spending-based contractions, 11
Austria, debt accumulation in, 7, 183n29, 187n4
balanced budgets, coordination mechanisms, 49, 181n16
Bank of Italy, 69, 70
Belgium, 85–103; austerity measures of 1982, 54, 85, 87, 90, 94–95, 99, 153; austerity measures of 1993, 92, 100–101; class conflict, 158, 161; currency crises, 90, 95; debt crisis threats, 169; debt-to-GDP ratios, 6, 32, 85, 89, 90, 91–92, 103, 168–69; Disaster Plan, 91, 98, 153, 173; Economic and Monetary Union membership, 166; enduring problems of fiscal polarization, 101–3; euro accession, 92–93, 95–96, 100, 167; financial internationalization effects, 168–69; fiscal polarization in, 22–23, 54, 56, 83, 86, 87, 111, 112, 161–64; fiscal trajectory, 85–88, 89–93; Global Pact on Employment, Competitiveness, and Social Security, 92, 100, 101, 185n7, 187n1; Global Plan, 92; growth of debt despite concerns, 2, 12; ideational factors in adjustment, 173; inclusion in sampling, 23, 53, 54; institutional factors in adjustment, 111, 170–72; international exposure in, 4, 54–55, 83, 86, 87, 88, 111, 158, 164–69; linguistic communities, 97, 102, 185n4, 185n8; origins of fiscal imbalances, 153, 158; party system, 97; pension financing, 38; polarization-exposure theory applicability, 87–88, 150–51; political uncertainty in recent years, 102–3; regional conflicts, 101–3; regional economic disparities, 94, 95, 96, 98, 158, 161, 173; social coalitions, 157, 158; Special Powers Act of 1982, 94, 99, 170; standen, 98, 185n6; state reform, 102; strikes, 155, 156; summary of case study, 22–23, 111–12
Blyth, Mark, 11
bond yields, 168, 169. See also interest rates Bretton Woods system, 142
bureaucratic clientelism. See clientelism business interests: in Belgium, 54, 86, 88, 93, 95, 96, 97–101, 158; in Canada, 175; in Greece, 124, 125, 126, 127–28, 129; in Ireland, 105–6, 110, 156, 158, 159; in Italy, 61–62, 71, 73, 74–80, 81–82, 154, 157; in Japan, 135, 139, 140–45; lobbying, 155; structural power of, 46. See also corporate income taxes; international exposure to economic competition; large enterprises; small- and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs)
Canada: debt-to-GDP ratios, 6, 174; fiscal trajectory, 174–76; growth of debt despite concerns, 12; international exposure in, 55, 56, 175; recent experiences with sustained debt growth, 6, 53; similarities with Belgium and Italy, 56, 174–75
Cassa Integrazione Guadagni (CIG), 183n2
Cassa Integrazione Guadagni Straordinaria (CIGS), 183n2
Cassa per il Mezzogiorno, 66, 79
Celtic Tiger era (Ireland), 104, 105, 109, 110
Christian Democracy (DC) (Italy): business support, 74, 76; end of party, 77; Mani Pulite campaign, 77; protection of business interests, 74, 77; social coalitions participation, 75, 80, 157; support in the North, 76; support in the South, 74
Christian Democrats (Belgium), 96–101; dilemma of social security, 98; electoral strength, 97; regional conflicts, 102; standen, 98
Christian unions (Belgium), 97–101, 173
Ciampi reform of 1993, 183n5
civil unrest, in protest of policy adjustment, 131, 155, 159 class conflict: in Belgium, 96, 97, 99–100, 103, 112, 158, 161, 171; in Canada, 175; in Ireland, 111; in Italy, 75, 161; in Japan, 23; role in fiscal polarization, 3, 4, 15–16, 20, 161–62. See also income inequality clientelism: in Greece, 23, 24, 116, 122–23, 126, 127, 129, 171; in Ireland, 171; in Italy, 171; in Japan, 144, 154, 171; varying effects of, 171 closed economies: compensatory policies in, 19; exposed sectors in, 165–66; impact of economic side effects, 19, 40–41. See also Greece; international exposure to economic competition; Japan coalitions, social. See social coalitions collective action problems, 13, 48–49
collective consumption. See public consumption collective investment. See public investment common resource pool models, 48–49, 182n22
Communist Party (Italy), 157 competitiveness. See international competitiveness competitiveness coalition (Italy): during the 1990s, 77–79; dominance of, 72; fall of, 79–81; formation and disintegration, 62, 157 compromise: conditions for, 34–36, 47, 51, 52; institutional and ideational aspects, 45, 180n9; role in adjustment, 18, 41; role in formation of social coalitions, 18, 30–31, 43–44; role of crisis in, 19, 24, 95; structural and institutional determinants of, 46–47, 84, 170–71
Confcommercio (Italy), 154
Confindustria (Italy), 77–78
Conservative Party (Canada), 175, 176 constraints on governmental discretion, 33, 154–56, 176–77 consumption taxes: in Denmark, 163–64; in Greece, 119; in Ireland, 158; in Japan, 135, 136, 137, 138, 141, 145, 146 coordination mechanisms. See fiscal coordination mechanisms core executive (Italy), 69
corporate income taxes: in Denmark, 163–64; encompassing vs. targeted policies, 42; in Greece, 125; in Ireland, 105, 106; in Italy, 65, 66, 68, 72, 79, 184nn6–8; in Japan, 136, 137, 138, 139, 142; personal income taxes vs., 39 corporatist institutions. See social partnership/corporatist intermediation crawling-peg exchange rate mechanism (Greece), 126, 166 currency crises: in Belgium, 90, 95; in Italy, 66 debt crises: in Europe, 60, 63, 67, 81; from global financial and economic crisis, 169; in Greece, 6, 21, 130–32; incentives for stabilization from, 19, 21; in Ireland, 169; political costs of, 12–13. See also default debt metrics: ambiguity of boundary between moderate and excessive, 9–10, 11, 12, 179n2; debt-to-GDP ratio as indicator, 57; fiscal space, 10, 33; net vs. gross debt, 133, 134, 179n1; share held by foreign creditors, 168 debt servicing cost. See interest rates default: difficulty of predicting, 10–11; in Greece, 6, 53, 131; political costs of, 9, 12–13. See also debt crises delays in fiscal adjustment/stabilization: conditions for, 34–36; risks of, 32–33; utility loss from, 36; war of attrition model, 20–21, 35–36, 39, 43, 180n1 Democratic Party of Japan (DJP), 143, 146, 147 demographic shifts. See aging Denmark: fiscal stabilization, 2, 163–64, 176; international exposure in, 55; pension financing, 37, 38; recent experiences with sustained debt growth, 7, 183n29; similarities with Ireland, 56–57, 163–64 dependents of the state: in Greece, 119, 120–21, 122–23, 126, 159; in Italy, 61–62, 71–72, 74–75, 77, 78–79, 82, 156; in Japan, 160 diachronic approach to debt accumulation, 16, 28, 52, 62 Dini reform of 1995, 183–84n5 disability benefits, in Italy, 64, 66, 68 Disaster Plan of 1981 (Belgium), 91, 98, 153, 173 Domar’s conditions, 11–12 Drazen, A., 20, 35–36, 180n1, 180n5 economic growth: effects on debt-to-GDP ratios, 57, 60, 89; effects on solvency, 10–11; in Greece, 119, 125; in Ireland, 104, 105; in Japan, 116, 135, 136–37, 140–41, 142; Keynesian views, 9 economic openness. See international exposure to economic competition economic shocks: in Belgium and Ireland, 85, 87, 103, 153; debt accumulation triggered by, 31, 85, 87, 103, 153; in Greece and Japan, 114. See also origins of fiscal imbalances economic side effects of debt accumulation: countervailing policies, 40; as incentive for social compromise, 3, 18–19, 24, 39–41, 165; in Belgium, 86, 95; in Greece, 126; in Ireland, 86, 105; in Italy, 76; in Japan, 115; interaction with vested fiscal interests, 43–44; international exposure, 3, 39–41, 165; political costs of, 1–2, 12; rationalist fiscal governance lack of focus on, 50; relation to debt-to-GDP ratio, 9–10; types of, 19, 33, 39–41; war of attrition model, 20–21, 35, 36. See also inflation electoral consequences of austerity: in Belgium, 99; in Greece, 128–30, 154; in Ireland, 109; in Japan, 145, 147 electoral consequences of borrowing: benefits of borrowing posited by rationalist governance school, 13, 48–49, 181n12; costs of borrowing, 1, 12–13, 76 electoral systems, 170, 180n6; in Greece, 116, 117, 170, 186n1; in Italy, 69, 73; in Japan, 117, 146, 160, 186n2 employers’ organizations: in Belgium, 97, 98; in Greece, 128; in Italy, 77, 157; policy preference of, 46, 47; source of policy influence of, 46, 47 endogenous escalation of fiscal imbalances, 2, 3, 4, 12, 14, 16, 20, 27, 32–33, 35 entitlements. See welfare spending euro accession: Belgium, 92–93, 95–96,
100, 167; Greece, 118, 168; Italy, 62,
67, 70–71, 80, 168; Maastricht criteria,
70, 95, 118, 167–68; policy constraints
from, 167–68
European Central Bank, 60, 67, 80, 131, 133, 169
European Commission, 131
European Common Agricultural Policy,
124
European Economic and Monetary
Union (EMU): Belgium membership,
166; fiscal coordination mechanisms
and, 49; Greece membership, 120, 166; Ireland membership, 166; Italy
membership, 70, 166; policy constraints from, 167
European Exchange Rate Mechanism
(ERM), 166, 167
European integration: effects in Italy, 66,
70, 166; policy constraints from, 152,
164–65, 167–68
European Monetary System (EMS): Belgium membership, 55, 90, 95; Greece
membership, 118; Ireland membership,
55, 105; Italy membership, 64,
66, 75, 76
existing policies. See policy legacies expected value of resisting fiscal pain, 179n7
Export Profits Tax Relief of 1956 (Ire-lund), 106
exposure to international economic competition. See international exposure to economic competition

farmers: in Greece, 118, 121, 123, 124,
125, 126, 128, 187n6; in Japan, 114,
135, 136, 145, 146, 147
Fianna Fail (Ireland), 107–9, 110, 159,
185n11
Finance Act of 1989 (Belgium), 185n9
financial internationalization, 152, 168–69
Fine Gael (Ireland), 107–9, 110, 159,
185n11
Finland, recent debt accumulation, 7, 176, 183n29, 187n3
fiscal adjustment/stabilization: acknowledgment of need for, 12, 153–54; institutional and ideational factors, 51–52, 169–74; insufficient analysis of role of redistributive conflict, 14–15; limits on governmental discretion, 32–34, 154– 56; qualitative analysis of, 58, 183n34;
societal support needed for, 17, 18–20, of, 15, 18, 35–36, 39–42, 43–44, 51. See also delays in fiscal adjustment/stabilization; specific countries
fiscal coordination mechanisms, 49–50, 181n16, 181n19, 182n21
fiscal gimmickry, 49; in Greece, 115,
120, 130, 168, 186n3; in Japan, 115,
118, 133, 134, 136
Fiscal Governance in Europe (Hallerberg et al.), 182n23
fiscal illusion concept, 182n22
fiscal indiscipline: criticism of European fiscal system, 182n19; in Greece, 122, 148; inapplicability to Belgium and Ireland, 87; incorporation of political costs, 182n22; in Japan, 148; rationalist fiscal governance literature on, 13–14; refutation of, 13; in yearly budgetary decisions, 13
Fiscal Investment and Loan Program
(Japan), 136
fiscal polarization: comparison of countries studied, 54; de jure vs. de facto policies, 38; difficulty of standardizing, 38, 39, 52, 58; existing policies effects on, 36–39, 152, 161–64; government size unimportance, 152, 162–64; in Belgium, 22–23, 54, 56, 83, 86, 87, 111, 112, 161–64; in Canada, 56, 175;
in Greece, 23–24, 54, 113, 115, 118,
122, 130–32, 159, 162–64; in Ireland, 23, 54, 56, 83, 86–87, 112, 162–64; in Italy, 54, 82–83, 161–64; in Japan, 23–
24, 54, 113, 115, 118, 138–39, 140–48,
161–64; origin of term, 36; overview,
3–4, 36–39; role in polarization-
exposure argument, 2–4, 5, 17, 18–20, 36–39, 151; strength of, 20; varieties of, 161–62. See also polarization-exposure theory
Five Star Movement (Italy), 81, 82
fixed exchange rates, 55, 75, 76, 90, 95, 166, 167
Flanders, Belgium: alternating support for and rejection of retrenchment, 93, 94, 98; regional conflict with Walloonia, 94, 95, 96, 98, 101–3, 158, 161, 173; share of taxation, 185n9
foreign direct investment, in Ireland, 106, 110, 155, 158
Forza Italia, 78
France, debt accumulation in, 7, 183n29, 187n4
government-centered approaches to debt accumulation, limits of, 50–51
government size, limited importance of, 58, 152, 162–64
Grootjans tax reform of 1985 (Belgium), 91
Hallerberg, Mark, 49–50, 181n16
health care spending: in Belgium, 102; in Italy, 64, 66; in Japan, 135, 137, 146 Hiscox, M. J., 44
historical institutionalism, 25, 26, 44–46
ideational factors in adjustment: comparative political economy, 15, 45; cross-country comparisons, 169, 172–74; in Belgium, 87; in Ireland, 87; in Italy, 62–63, 69–70, 71; interplay with interests and institutions, 44–47; limited impact of, 177; policy entrepreneurship, 27–28; role in compromise, 45; unfixed nature of, 51 income inequality: fiscal polarization from, 37, 38, 39; in Ireland, 106–7, 110, 112. See also class conflict income taxes. See corporate income taxes; personal income taxes inflation: in Belgium, 83, 86, 90, 95; in Greece, 126; international competitiveness effects, 3, 18–19, 40, 43, 83, 165, 166; in Ireland, 83, 86, 105, 107, 159; in Italy, 65, 76, 184n13; in Japan, 142. See also economic side effects of debt accumulation institutional factors in adjustment: Belgium vs. Ireland case, 83–84, 88, 111–
Index 205

Italy (continued)

institutional factors in adjustment, 170–72; international exposure in, 4, 55, 164–69; origins of fiscal imbalances, 74, 153, 157; pentapartito, 61, 71–72, 157; polarization-exposure theory applicability, 150–51; political conditions in wake of crisis, 81–82; relapse in debt accumulation, 166; risanamento, 64, 76, 154, 173; social coalitions, 22, 71–81, 83, 157; summary of case study, 22–23, 60–63, 82–84

Katzenstein, Peter, 41

Keynesians: arguments in favor of temporary deficits, 10; debate with austeritarians, 9–12; shift to neoliberal policies, 23, 87, 88, 172–73; views on debt accumulation, 9

labor. See organized labor

Labor Party (Ireland), 107–9, 159

Lambermont agreement of 2001 (Belgium), 185n9

large enterprises: in Greece, 125, 126; in Italy, 61–62, 75, 76, 77, 80, 82; in Japan, 141; varying responses to policy needs, 155, 156

legacy policies. See policy legacies

Lega Nord (Italy), 76, 77, 78–79, 80

Liberal Democratic Party (Japan): clientelistic ties, 144, 154, 171; factions in, 132, 139, 142, 144, 145, 146, 147, 186n2; formation of, 187n9; inability to implement adjustment, 141, 142–43, 145–46, 160; introduction of new welfare benefits, 114, 140, 153; pressure to increase welfare spending, 135; resistance to reform, 115, 118; schism of 1993, 145; strategic choices, 143–47

Liberal Party (Canada), 175–76

liberals (Belgium): attempts at stabilization, 154; changing coalition participation, 158; political role, 96–101; regional conflicts, 102

liberal unions (Belgium), 97–101

Lustick, I. S., 58

Maastricht criteria, 70, 95, 118, 167–68

majoritarian electoral systems: ability to overcome resistance to reform, 180n8; in Greece, 116, 170, 186n1; in Japan, 186n2

Mani Pulite campaign (Italy), 77

Maribel operation of 1981 (Belgium), 91

Mavrogordatos, G. T., 122

Maystadt tax reform of 1988 (Belgium), 91

methodological considerations: benefits of qualitative approach, 52; cases chosen for sampling, 53–57; numerical analysis combined with policy choice, 57–58; time period of study, 52–53; use of secondary sources, 58–59
Ministry of Finance (Japan): accounting practices, 136; attempts at stabilization, 118, 132, 135–36, 172; Liberal Democratic Party influence on, 144; tax reform support, 137, 138; warnings of budgetary crisis, 134 moderate cases of debt accumulation, 176

Moene, K. O., 38

monetary policy, under the Economic and Monetary Union, 166

Monti, Mario, 81, 82

National Alliance (Italy), 78, 184n14
National Imperative (Italy), 70–71

neoliberal policy prescriptions: shift from Keynesian views, 23, 87, 88, 172–73; troika demands, 131

Netherlands, debt accumulation in, 7, 183n29, 187n4

New Democracy (Greece): attempts at stabilization, 127, 129–130, 154; constituencies of, 127–28, 159; losses, 129, 154; overseeing of fiscal deterioration, 121, 122; respite from escalating problems, 120

New Flemish Alliance, 102

non-compliance, in protest of policy adjustment, 155. See also strikes and strike threats; tax evasion

North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 56, 175

obfuscated reforms, in Greece, 129–130

oil crises, 89, 104, 141

open economies: impact of economic side effects, 19, 40–41, 165; institutional factors in adjustment, 41; large government spending by, 41–42; pressure for swift stabilization, 19. See also Belgium; international exposure to economic competition; Ireland organized labor: in Belgium, 93, 95, 96, 97–101, 158; in Ireland, 107–9; in Italy, 62, 72, 74, 75, 76–78, 79, 80, 81, 82; in Japan, 144–45; strikes and strike threats, 46, 155 origins of fiscal imbalances: in Belgium, 89, 153, 158; in Greece, 119, 153; in Ireland, 104, 153; in Italy, 64, 153, 157; in Japan, 135, 153, 160; summaries of, 3–4, 31–32, 152–53

overview of recent experiences with sustained debt growth in developed countries, 6–8. See also specific countries

Panhellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK): attempts at stabilization, 127, 129–130, 154; bureaucratic clientelism, 122–23, 153; coming to power of, 119; constituencies of, 127–28, 159; electoral setbacks, 120, 129, 154; overseeing of fiscal deterioration, 121, 122

party systems and partisan strategies: in Belgium, 97, 185n6; in Greece, 127; in Ireland, 107–8; in Italy, 69, 73, 74, 76–79, 81; in Japan, 143–47; societal conflict resolution, 170–71, 180n6, 180n9

PASOK. See Panhellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK)

path dependence: in historical institutionalism, 26, 44; in Ireland and Belgium, 112; in Ireland and Greece, 158; limited importance of government size, 162–64; role in polarization-exposure argument, 25, 44

pension reform: in Belgium, 91, 92, 184n3; in Greece, 120, 121, 122, 125, 129, 130; in Ireland, 67, 68, 72, 79, 187n2 pension systems: in Belgium, 91; in Greece, 114–15, 118, 119, 120, 123–24, 130, 131, 159, 186n5; in Italy, 64, 66, 184nn8–9; in Japan, 140; varying redistributive nature of, 37, 38

pentapartito (Italy), 61, 71–72, 157

personal income taxes: corporate income taxes vs., 39; in Denmark, 163–64; in Greece, 125; in Ireland, 104, 105, 106, 110, 158, 159; in Italy, 65, 68; in Japan, 137, 138, 141

Pierson, Paul, 28

Plaza Accord of 1985, 142

polarization, fiscal. See fiscal polarization polarization-exposure theory, 31–44; building blocks of, 16–21; case studies summary, 21–24; competing theories, 47–52; delayed emergence of societal support, 4, 24, 34–36; fiscal polarization role in, 17, 18–20, 36–39, 151; international exposure role in, 17, 39–42, 83, 151; interplay with interests, institutions, and ideas, 44–47; limits on governmental discretion, 154–56; methodological considerations, 52–59; overview, 3–5, 31–34; social coalitions role in, 17, 18, 30–31, 33–34, 42–44, 150–51; summary of argument, 2–4, 5, 30–31, 151–52. See also fiscal polarization; international exposure to economic competition

Policy Affairs Research Councils (Japan), 144

policy creates politics, as phrase, 25

policy legacies: coalitional analysis vs. historical institutionalism, 26; in Belgium, 112; in Greece, 114, 115, 122, 148–49, 159; in Ireland, 106–7, 112, 158; in Italy, 74–75, 157; in Japan, 115, 116–17, 148–49, 160; international exposure effects on, 164–69; multidimensionality of policy making, 179n8; role in determining fiscal polarization, 36–39, 152, 161–64; role in shaping policy preferences, 25

policy preferences: effects of existing policies on, 26, 37; evolution of, 26, 28, 47, 52; interplay with institutions and ideas, 46, 49; role of social coalitions, 26, 28, 47, 76

policy status quo. See policy legacies political business cycle models, 181n12

punctuated policy change, 27

qualitative case studies, suitability of, 52, 183n34

rationalist fiscal governance approach: common resource pool models, 48–49; costs of borrowing, 13–14; focus on electoral benefits of debt accumulation, 48; focus on yearly budgetary decisions, 13, 47, 50; lack of emphasis on time, 16; literature on, 13–14; recent experiences with sustained debt growth, in developed countries, 6–8. See also specific countries redistributive conflicts, in comparative political economy, 14–16. See also fiscal polarization

Rengo (Japan), 144

Rincho (Japan), 135, 143, 144, 171

risanamento (Italy), 64, 76, 154, 173

risks generated by debt accumulation, 9–10, 176, 186n4, 182n22, 187n4

Rogowski, R., 44

Prodi reform of 1997, 70, 184n5

Program for National Recovery of 1987 (Ireland), 109, 173

Progressive Democrats (Ireland), 109

progressive parties, in Japan, 143, 144, 145, 146

proportional electoral systems, 49, 170, 186n2

public choice school, 181n12

public consumption: in Belgium, 22, 86, 90, 93, 100, 102; in Canada, 165; disguised targeted nature of, 38; in Ireland, 87

public investment: in Belgium, 22, 86, 90, 93, 100, 102; in Canada, 165; disguised targeted nature of, 38; in Greece, 119; in Ireland, 87, 104, 108–9; in Italy, 64, 67, 68, 74; in Japan, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 144, 146

public sector employment: in Belgium, 89, 90; in Greece, 114–15, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122–23, 124, 125, 128–29, 130, 131, 159; in Ireland, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 159; in Italy, 64, 67, 68, 74; in Japan, 132

Postal Savings System (Japan), 136

Portugal, debt accumulation in, 7, 183n29, 187n4

privatization: in Greece, 121, 125, 129, 130; in Italy, 65, 66, 79; in Japan, 136

process tracing: benefits of, 21–22, 52; overview, 47; use of, 58
Index

Sakigake (Japan), 146
self-employed: in Greece, 121, 123, 124, 125, 128, 155, 186n4, 187n5; in Italy, 65; in Japan, 140, 145; tax evasion by; 39 side effects, economic. See economic side effects of debt accumulation
Silver Fund (Belgium), 184–85n3
Single Market, 65, 79, 166, 167, 184n7
Skocpol, Theda, 28, 172
small- and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs): in Greece, 118, 123, 124, 125, 126; in Italy, 61–62, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 82, 154 social coalitions: in Belgium, 93–101, 102, 158; evolution of, 25, 28, 42–44, 156–61; in Greece, 159; institutional explanations of adjustment vs., 84; interest-representing organizations, 46; in Ireland, 107–9; in Japan, 145; role in polarization-exposure argument, 17, 18, 30–31, 33–34, 42–44, 150–51; socioeconomic structure role in, 26, 161–62; time dimension, 21; war of attrition model and, 43, 18on5 social coalitions, in Italy: during the 1980s, 75–77, 82, 157; during the 1990s, 77–79, 83; after euro accession, 79–81, 82, 83; alternative explanations of fiscal history, 71–74; overview, 61–62, 74–75; post-global financial and economic crisis, 81–82; summary of, 22
Social Democratic Party (Denmark), 163
Social Democratic Party (Japan), 146
Socialist Party (Belgium), 91, 96–101, 158
Socialist Party (Ireland), 110
Socialist unions (Belgium), 97–101
social pacts: in Belgium, 87; emergence and demise of, 181n11; in Ireland, 87, 171; in Italy, 69, 71, 77–78, 81, 171
social partnership/corporatist intermediation: in Belgium, 96, 97–98, 111; fiscal polarization effects vs., 23; international exposure effects vs., 41, 88; in Ireland, 110, 111–12; in Italy, 63, 77–78, 80, 81, 157; leverage in policy making and, 18on6; varying effects of, 171–72 social security benefits: in Belgium, 86, 88, 89, 90–91, 94, 158; in Greece, 119; in Ireland, 107, 108; in Italy, 64, 65, 68, 79; in Japan, 141 socioeconomic structure: identification of winners and losers, 25; multidimensionality of policy making, 179n8; role in commonalities and conflicts of interest, 26, 161
Spain, debt accumulation in, 7, 183n29, 187n4
Special Law of 1988 (Belgium), 185n9
Special Powers Act of 1982 (Belgium), 94, 99, 170 spending cuts and tax increases. See fiscal adjustment/stabilization spending cycle models, 181n12
Stability and Growth Pact, 167, 181–82n19
standen (Belgium), 185n6
St. Anna Plan of 1986 (Belgium), 91, 99
state capacity, 28–29, 172
state strength and weakness: capacity vs. autonomy, 172; in comparative political economy, 28; in Italy, 172; policy choices and, 18on6; power to impose fiscal pain, 18on8
St. Eloi agreement of 1999 (Belgium), 185n9 strikes and strike threats: in Belgium, 91, 95, 99, 101, 155, 158; in Greece, 119, 125, 131, 155, 159; in Ireland, 107, 155; in Italy, 72, 74, 155, 157; varying effects of, 155, 156
structural vs. institutional power, 46–47
subsidies: in Belgium, 90; in Greece, 118, 120–21, 124, 126; in Ireland, 104, 106; in Italy, 64; in Japan, 135, 136, 139, 140, 141, 144, 146, 147; phasing out in Single Market, 166; for sheltering from inflation and interest rate effects, 19
Sweden, recent debt accumulation, 7, 176, 183n29, 187n3
Tallaght strategy, 183n11

tax amnesty: in Greece, 124, 155; in Ireland, 105; in Italy, 66, 67, 68, 79 taxation: in Belgium, 92; categories of, 38–39; de jure vs. de facto policies, 39; in Greece, 114, 118, 121, 122, 125, 129–30; in Ireland, 104–5, 106; in Japan, 114, 115, 118, 135, 136, 139, 140. See also specific types of taxes tax evasion: in Greece, 39, 114, 115, 118, 119, 121, 123–25, 126, 130, 131–32, 155, 159; in Italy, 65, 67, 68, 74, 75, 79, 80, 155, 156; by self-employed, 39

tax exemptions: in Greece, 124; in Italy, 74, 75, 79, 80; in Japan, 141, 144; phasing out in Single Market, 166; in the US, 39

technocratic governance, in Italy: core executive, 69; first reform measures, 66, 67, 174, 187n2; international exposure effects, 70; partisan support for, 78, 172; support from competitiveness coalition, 72, 79

time dimension: benefits of qualitative approach, 52; evolving strategic preferences with passage of time, 20, 25, 35; role in polarization-exposure argument, 16, 17, 20–21, 35; time as driver of change, 28; in war of attrition model, 35–36

TINA (there is no alternative), 104
trade unions. See unions troika, 131

unemployment: in Belgium, 89, 91, 92, 95, 99, 101, 102; in Canada, 175–76; in Ireland, 104, 105, 106; in Italy, 75, 77, 183n2 unions: in Belgium, 97–98, 158, 173; conflict resolution, 180n9; in Greece, 128, 129, 130; in Ireland, 107–9, 110, 159; in Italy, 157; in Japan, 144; role in policy reform, 46, 47, 51, 171. See also organized labor

United Kingdom: pension redistribution, 38; recent experiences with sustained debt growth, 7

United States: debt accumulation, 7, 183n29, 187n4; defense spending, 38; pension financing, 37; tax exemptions, 39

Vandenbroucke law of 2003 (Belgium), 184n3

VAT (value-added tax): in Belgium, 92, 185n9; in Greece, 119, 122, 123, 129, 154; in Ireland, 104, 106, 110, 159; in Italy, 67 vested fiscal interests: amenability to adjustment with passage of time, 21, 24; expected value of resisting fiscal pain, 179n7; historical institutionalism emphasis on, 26; identifying vested fiscal interest groups, 42, 43; impact of polarization vs. extensiveness, 41–42; interplay with institutions and ideas, 44–47; need for explicit modeling of, 50; redistributive conflicts among, 19–20; sensitivity to economic side effects and, 43–44

veto-actor approach, 48–49

Visentini affair, 154, 155

Wallerstein, M., 38

Wallonia, Belgium: regional conflict with Flanders, 94, 95, 96, 98, 101–3, 158, 161, 173; share of taxation, 185n9

war of attrition model, 20–21, 35–36, 39, 43, 180n1

welfare spending: in Belgium, 89, 94, 95, 96, 99, 158; benefits of encompassing policies, 25; in Denmark, 163; fiscal polarization from, 22–23, 42; in Greece, 119, 123, 127, 159; income inequality effects, 38; in Ireland, 107, 110, 112, 158–59; in Italy, 62, 64, 69, 72, 74–75, 82, 157, 161; in Japan, 114, 132, 135, 136–37, 139, 140–41, 144–45, 146, 160; in open economies, 41–42

yearly budgetary decisions, 13, 16, 47, 50