Sustaining Linguistic Diversity

Published by Georgetown University Press

Sustaining Linguistic Diversity: Endangered and Minority Languages and Language Varieties.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/13067
Contents

List of Illustrations vii

Introduction 1

Kendall A. King, Natalie Schilling-Estes, Lyn Fogle, Jia Jackie Lou, and Barbara Soukup

PART I: DEFINING

1. Linguistic Diversity, Sustainability, and the Future of the Past 7

Suzanne Romaine

2. When Is an “Extinct Language” Not Extinct? Miami, a Formerly Sleeping Language 23

Wesley Y. Leonard

3. Evaluating Endangerment: Proposed Metadata and Implementation 35

M. Paul Lewis

PART II: DOCUMENTING

4. Endangered Language Varieties: Vernacular Speech and Linguistic Standardization in Brazilian Portuguese 53

Gregory R. Guy and Ana M. S. Zilles

5. The Linguistic Negotiation of Complex Racialized Identities by Black Appalachian Speakers 67

Christine Mallinson

6. Working at “9 to 5” Gaelic: Speakers, Context, and Ideologies of an Emerging Minority Language Register 81

Emily McEwan-Fujita

7. Voice and Biliteracy in Indigenous Language Revitalization: Contentious Educational Practices in Quechua, Guarani, and Maori Contexts 95

Nancy H. Hornberger
PART III: DEVELOPING

   Tadhg Ó hIfearnáin
   113

9. Scandinavian Minority Language Policies in Transition: The Impact of the European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages in Norway and Sweden
   Leena Huss
   129

10. Language Development in Eritrea: The Case of Blin
    Paul D. Fallon
    145

11. Indigenous Language Policies in Social Practice: The Case of Navajo
    Teresa L. McCarty, Mary Eunice Romero-Little, and Ofelia Zepeda
    159

12. Heritage Language Education in the United States: A Need to Reconceptualize and Restructure
    Joy Kreeft Peyton, Maria Carreira, Shuhan Wang, and Terrence G. Wiley
    173

13. Language Diversity and the Public Interest
    Walt Wolfram
    187

AFTERWORD

    Elana Shohamy
    205

15. Unendangered Dialects, Endangered People
    William Labov
    219