The Roots of Latino Urban Agency

Navarro, Sharon A., Rosales, Rodolfo

Published by University of North Texas Press

Navarro, Sharon A. and Rodolfo Rosales.
The Roots of Latino Urban Agency.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/27572.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/27572

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1013884

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.
Index

Page references followed by fig indicate an illustrated figure; followed by t indicate a table.

Abers, Wil-Dog, 33
Abney, Glen, 77
Abrajano, Marisa A., 102
Abu-Jamal, Mumia, 32
Acevedo, Edward, 70
African Americans—Los Angeles brown and black coalitions, 20–35, 41n.59; Los Angeles business ownership by, 17; Los Angeles population demographics of, 15; Miami’s Overtown neighborhood development symbol of injustices for, 92; perceived labor competition as source of conflict between Latinos and, 17–20; regression of 2005 San Antonio mayoral run-off election percent of voters among, 108t, 109t; scatterplot of vote for Kerry 2004 vs. vote for Gonzalez 2003, 60–61fig; SLCD 167 membership among, 21; social economic stratification in Los Angeles by, 16; US Census on declining Miami population (2000–2003) of, 90 age differences—logit estimates: probability of Castro support by all voters, 113t; logit estimates: probability of Castro support by white and Latino voters, 113t
AGENDA (Action for Grassroots Empowerment and Neighborhood Alternatives), 34
Alarcon, Richard, 16
Alatorre, Richard, 16
Alcaraz, Lalo, 33, 34
Alinsky, Saul, 13
Alioto, Joseph, 44, 45
Ambruster-Sandoval, Ralph, 8
Ammiano, Tom, 48, 49, 52, 53, 54, 56, 57, 59
Andrade, Juan, 71
Anglo population—demographics of San Francisco’s, 43–44; Los Angeles population demographics of, 15; Manny Diaz’s strong ties to Miami’s, 84; population demographics in Los Angeles, 15; SLCD membership among, 21, 22 anti-immigrant, anti-Latino discourse—California’s Proposition 187, 46; examining the post-9/11 politics of, 4; H.R. 4437 forbidding offering aid to illegal immigrants, 62; San Francisco declared an official city of Refuge, 46, 62; See also non-citizens
Anzaldúa, Gloria, 29
Armbruster-Sandoval, Ralph, 9, 13, 123
Arriola, Joe, 87
Asians/Pacific Islanders—Los Angeles population demographics of, 15; scatterplot of vote for Kerry 2004 vs. vote for Gonzalez 2003, 60–61;
social economic stratification in Los Angeles by, 16;
Avila, Kaitlyn, 19, 35
Bailey, Robert W., 44
Barrymore, Drew, 32–33
Beach, George, 72
Becerril, Alicia, 53, 54
Bell, Derrick, 34
Berriozabal, Maria, 104–107
Bexar County Elections Office (Texas), 104
Biafra, Jello, 31
Biberman, Herbert, 30
Bigstep.com sit-in protest (San Francisco), 52
Black Guerrilla Army (Los Angeles prison gang), 19 black politics, comparing Latino politics with history of, 6, 7
Black P-Stones (black gang, Los Angeles), 19
Index

blacks. See African Americans
Boondocks comic strip (McGruder), 33, 34
Bowser, Christopher, 19
Bratton, William, 18
Bread and Roses (film), 26, 30
Brischetto, Robert R., 100
Brown, Amos, 53
Brown, Jerry, 31
Brown, Willie— anti-Willie
Brown backlash against, 52; elected as San Francisco mayor (1996), 46; MAC-led defeat of political machine of, 56; MAC opposition during 2000 board of supervisors election to, 53–56; pro-business, pro-growth agenda of, 46–48; reelection campaign (1999) of, 48–49; See also San Francisco brown and black coalitions. See Los Angeles brown and black coalitions
Brown Berets (San Francisco), 44
Browning, Rufus P., 57, 63
Bryant Square project (San Francisco), 49–51
Bush, George W., 54, 59
Bus Riders Union (Los Angeles)—lawsuit filed against MTA by, 24–25; origins and mission of, 24–25; racial composition and coalition of membership, 20, 24, 34
Californi a— anti-immigrant Proposition 187 of, 46; Latino immigrant streams into, 15–16; position of elite on racial tolerance (1840s through Civil War) in, 36n.4–37n.4; race riots in high schools in, 18; social economic stratification of Latinos in, 16–17; Spanish-speaking population (1848 to 2013) living in, 15–16; See also San Francisco California Constitutional Convention (1848), 14
California Eagle, 22
“California Uber Alles” (song), 31
“Camp César Chávez” (Chicago tent city), 71
Cardenas, Tony, 16
Carrollo, Joe, 83, 84, 85
Cartoon Network, 33
Castells, Manuel, 8, 45
Castro, Julian, 97–98, 104, 105, 109–114
Ceijas, Paul, 88, 94
Cervantes, Luis, 19
Chicago— examining alliance of Mexican Americans and Puerto Ricans in, 10, 67–72, 75, 77, 124; Latino population living in, 9, 67; as site of greatest demographic impact on Latino community, 4–5;
Chicago Board of Education approval for new Little Village high school, 72; history of promises for new school in Little Village by, 71; Latino community protests against Daley School conditions, 68–69; non-citizens allowed to vote in elections for, 74;
Chicago Latino political action—CDC campaign
The Roots of Latino Urban Agency

for new Little Village high school, 70–72; complaints about Daley Elementary School leading to new school, 68–70; “ethic of care” theory applied to Latina mothers involved in, 75; explaining the gendered protest vs. political approach to, 74–75; hunger strikes used in school protests, 70, 71–72, 75–76, 77; impact of increased political representation on, 76–77; latinismo spirit driving successful, 73; long history of successful, 67; multiple marginalizations of Latina mothers involved in, 74–75; significant advancements of, 77–78; United Neighborhood Organization (UNO) role in school-related, 70

Chicago Latino urban agency—electoral power and increased political representation of, 67–68; successful school protests demonstration of, 69–72, 75, 77

Chicano Movement, 22
Chico, Gery, 70
Chinese American Democratic Club (San Francisco), 55
Cisneros, Henry, 99, 101
Cisneros, José, 58

cities—Latino community in five major, 4–5; majority-minority, 16, 43–44; as product of conflict between elites and communities, 8; San Francisco declared an official City of Refuge, 46, 62; See also specific city “City of Angels” (Ozomatli song), 33
Civil Rights movement (mid-1950s), 25
Clinton, Bill, 59
Communist Party, 21, 22, 23
Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) [Miami], 92–93
Community Service Organization (CSO), 13
Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO), 21
Conrad, Paul, 33

crossover voting—by Anglo voters in Los Angeles mayoral election (2001), 102; as norm for Latino voters, 103; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005), 111–112; See also racial/ethnic bloc voting

Cuban community (Miami)—equally dominant political role achieved by, 8; Miami Renaissance and the, 81–83, 85–94; reconciliation between Cuban dissidents, Castro government, and, 93

La Cucaracha comic strip, 21, 34

Dahl, Robert, 100, 102
Daley, Richard M., 67–68, 71
Daly, Chris, 54, 56, 57
Dawkins, Miller, 82
Dead Kennedy, 31
DeFortuna, Walter, 94
De la Garza, Rodolfo, 101
De la Rocha, Zack, 32
de Leon, Jaime, 70, 72
DeLeon, Richard Edward, 8, 9–10, 43, 47, 61, 123–124
del Valle, Miguel, 69
Democratic County Central Committee (DCCC) [California], 60
Democratic National Convention (2000), 32
Democratic Party—dominance in Queens Latin community by, 73; Manny Diaz’s abandonment of the, 84; Matt Gonzalez switch to Green Party from the, 54–55; profile of San Antonio voters, 115t; San Antonio advantage of the, 98–99; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005) and voter, 111–112t; San Antonio mayor run-off election (2005) voters registered with, 111t; support for Newsom over Gonzalez (2003) by, 59–62
Denver racial/ethnic bloc voting, 114–115 deracialized campaigns—contrasting traditional insurgent campaign strategies to, 118n.18; elements key to a successful, 101; examples of successful, 101; multiracial/ethnic electoral coalitions and, 99; on spatial voting models emphasizing ideology over race/ethnicity in, 99; See also racial/ethnic bloc voting
Diaz, José, 21
Diaz, Manual (Manny)—ability to craft a political machine of minority developers, 124; depressed economic outcome of growth-at-all-costs strategy pushed by, 94; economic growth agenda of, 82–83; as Elián González’s attorney, 84; failure of the Miami Renaissance under administration of, 93–94; founding president of Spanish American League Against Discrimination (SALAD), 84; mayoral campaign and election (2001) of, 83–85; Miami Renaissance during mayor administration of, 81–83, 85–94; “power over” leadership style of, 83; Prosperity Campaign by, 87; reform of Miami by, 85–878
Disposable Heroes of Hiphoprisy (multi-racial rock bank), 31 diversity—American ideal of, 126; Latino community, 3, 121–122
Don’t Mess with the Dragon (Ozomatli album), 33
Doonesbury comic strip (Trudeau), 33
The Roots of Latino Urban Agency

Duncan, Arne, 72
Duran, Elena, 74–75
Durazo, Maria Elena, 27–28, 29

Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) program, 87 education level—logit estimates:
probability of Castro support by voters of, 113t; profile of San Antonio voters, 115t;
San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005) and voter, 111–112t; San Antonio mayor run-off election (2005) voter, 111t

Eikon Investments, 49
Emiliano Zapata Academy (Chicago), 70 environmental issues—MTA’s agreement to purchase “green” buses, 25; Strategy Center’s battle against environmental racism, 24; “ethic of care” theory, 75; ethnically polarized voting study; data and methods used in, 103–105; findings on San Antonio Latino and Anglo voters, 114–115, 124–125; San Antonio’s individual level analysis of 2005 election, 109–114; San Antonio’s mayoral elections precinct analysis (1991 and 2005), 105–109; three hypotheses regarding, 102–103

ethnic identities—as political context faced by Latina mothers of Chicago, 74; as salient in the electoral process, 124–125; San Francisco Mission District intersection of place identity and, 63; social and economic class concerns that tie together, 102; See also Latinos/Latinas; racial/ethnic bloc voting

Euro Americans. See Anglo population
Evers, Liliana, 69

feminism—Chicano/Latino politics perspective of Chicana, 29–30; Gilligan’s “ethic of care” theory, 75; racial myopia of white, 22

Fenno, Richard F., Jr., 76
Ferre, Maurice, 83–84
Ferre, Suarez, 83, 84–85
Fierra de Bright, Josefina, 23
Florez, Juan Carlos, 10, 81, 124
Florida International University, 87
Fox, Vicente, 18
Franti, Michael, 31
Free Speech Movement (UC Berkeley), 32
Frias, Rafael, 70
Frias, Ray, 69

Garcia, Jesus, 69
Garcia, Ken, 55
Garcia Pedrosa, Jose, 84
Garza, Ed, 99, 101
Gay, Claudine, 76
gender identity—Chicago activism protests vs. politics and role of, 75–76; Chicano/Latino politics perspective of Chicana, 29–30; how Chicago hunger strikes were impacted by, 75
Index

Gilligan, Carol, 75
Gin, June, 50
Gonzales, Matt, 54, 55, 56, 58, 59–62
González, Elián, 82, 84, 85, 93
Gore, Al, 54, 59
Gort, Willy, 83

government agencies—changing Latino politics and expectations of, 127; examining changing relationship of Latinos to, 3–4; reinforcement of single Latino community idea by, 122; See also United States

Green, Cheryl, 18, 19, 35, 38n.25–39n.25
Green, Gerald, 51
Green Party (San Francisco), 54, 55, 60, 62
Gutierrez, Armando, 84
Gutierrez, Luis, 67

Hall, Tony, 55
Hammonds, Mark, 19
Hardberger, Phil, 98, 104, 105, 109–114
Hartman, Chester, 47
Harvey Milk Lesbian and Gay Democratic Club (San Francisco), 48, 55, 60
HERE Local 11, 27–28
Hernández, Mike, 16
Hero, Rodney E., 99, 101
Herrera, Dennis, 58
Hill, Kevin A., 100
Himes, Chester, 22
The History of Forgetting (Klein), 20

Horace Mann Middle School meeting (San Francisco), 51

Houston racial/ethnic bloc voting, 115
Huckfeldt, Robert, 100
Huizar, José, 16
Human services Coalition, 87
hunger strikes (Chicago)—as alternative to traditional political power, 77; for Emiliano Zapata Academy school opening, 70; how gender identity affected the impact of, 75–76; New Village high school campaign use of, 71–72
Huntington, Samuel, 125
Hutcheson, John D., 77

ideology—profile of San Antonio voters, 115t; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005) and voter, 111–112t; San Antonio mayor run-off election (2005) voters by, 111t
If He Hollers Let Him Go (Himes), 22–23
“I Love L.A.” (Newman song), 33 identity-multiplexing, 44
independent party affiliation—profile of San Antonio voters, 115t; San Antonio mayor run-off (2005) voter, 111t; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover (2005) voter, 111–112t
Inglehart, Ronald, 50
Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 87
International Ladies’ Garment Workers Union (ILGWU) Local 96, 28–29
Industrial Areas Foundation, 13
Japanese Americans—interethnic connection with Mexican Americans, 23; Manzanar internment camp for, 23; SLCD membership of, 21, 22
Jones-Correa, Michael, 73, 74
Jordan, Frank, 48
Justice for Janitors movement (Los Angeles)—brown and black coalition of, 26–27; leadership and participation by Latinas, 27
Kaufmann, Karen, 99
Kennedy presidential campaign (1960), 6
Kerry, John—San Antonio precinct percentage vote for, 104, 107; scatterplot of vote for Kerry 2004 vs. vote for Gonzalez 2003, 60–61 fig
Kleinn, Norman, 20
Kotkin, Joel, 91

Labor organizing—HERE Local 11 Latino participation, 27–28; ILGWU Local 96 leadership by Chicana laborers, 28–29; Justice for Janitors movement, 26–27; as locus for political agency among Latinos, 25–29; Spanish and bilingual meetings to include Latino membership, 28; United Farm Workers’ si se puede (it can be done), 35
La Cucaracha (cartoon), 21
LA Opinion, 19
Latinas—Chicago hunger strikes by mothers, 70, 71–72, 75–76, 77; “ethic of care” theory applied to school protests by, 75; fight for school equity by Chicago mothers, 67–78; HERE Local 11 leadership by, 27–28; ILGWU Local 96 leadership by, 28–29; Justice for Janitors movement participation by, 27; multiple marginalizations of, 74

Latino community—changing expectations of, 127; considering global economy context of roots of the, 122–123; current transformations of the, 9; diversity of the, 3, 121–122; examining the changing relationships to government by, 3–4; five major cities of greatest demographic impact on the, 4–5; government, economic, and media reinforcement of single, 122; Miami Cuban community, 8, 81–83, 85–94; Protest is Not Enough study examining political struggles of, 4; See also Latino urban agency; specific five major cities

Latino Democratic Club (California), 60
Latinos political action—CSO mobilization of L.A.’s, 13–14; examining emerging patterns in Chicago, 10 examining ethnic polarization in urban elections, 10; explaining the gendered protest vs. political approach to, 74–75; forms of political mobilization taken... by immigrants, 74; increasing demands for representation and, 122–123; labor organizing in Los Angeles, 25–29, 35; MAC (Mission Anti-displacement Coalition) success in, 51–57, 62–63; for school equity in Chicago, 67–78; See also Latino urban agency

Latino political discourse—anti-immigrant, anti-Latino, 4, 46, 62; the nature of, 7–8

Latino political incorporation—coalition politics pathway to, 8; demand/protest pathway to, 8; increasing demands for inclusion and, 122–123; legal challenges to structural barriers pathway to, 8; non-confrontational political evolution pathway to, 8; as requiring formal representation and informal policy making inclusion, 57–58; San Francisco Latino urban agency advancing, 57–58; uneven process of, 7–8

Latino political representation—Chicago Latina electoral power and increased, 67–68; historic demise and revival of Los Angeles City Council, 13–16; increasing demands for, 122–123; Los Angeles City Council (1999–2005), 16; racial/ethnic bloc voting and, 10, 99–115; research on how community political action is positively impacted by, 76–77

Latino politics—changing expectations of, 127; comparing black political history with, 6; the complex and diverse impact on national political context by, 5–6; defining in a changing political landscape, 3; description of Queens, 73–74; as essentially a regional and/or urban phenomenon, 6–7; four dimensions of Los Angeles, 14; interconnection between other minority groups and, 14; as sharing contours of what identifies as Latino, 122; traditional invisibility and/or exclusion from national politics, 6, 127n.1; unevenness of incorporation into national politics, 7–8

Latinos/Latinas—complicated definition and status of, 125; definition of, 11n.6; emergence of relationships between political community and, 3; emerging successful Latino Middle Class among, 126–127; historic invisibility of, 6, 127n.1; projections of American politics role of, 126; U.S. demographics of, 9; See also ethnic identities; Mexican Americans; Puerto Ricans

Latino urban agency—assessing the conditions of, 7; description and function of, 123; examining state of Los Angeles, 9; examining the growing political power of, 10–11; examining the rebirth in San Francisco, 9–10, 43–63; how class may impact potential of, 123; labor organizing locus for, 25–29; manifestations of, 125; political role in Los Angeles past and present, 13–36; tracing the barriers and progress in, 121–127; See also Latino community; Latino political action
The Roots of Latino Urban Agency

Latino voters—comparing voting blocs in different cities, 114–115; crossover voting norm of, 103; ethnically polarized voting study on, 98, 102–115; findings on ethnic block voting by, 114–115, 124–125; logit estimates: probability of Castro support by San Antonio, 113t; profile of San Antonio, 115t; racial/ethnic bloc voting by, 10, 98–102; regression of 2005 San Antonio mayoral run-off election and Spanish surname, 108t, 109t; San Antonio mayor general election (2005), 110t; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005), 111–112t; San Antonio mayor run-off election (2005), 111t

Latin Recording Academy, 86

Latterman, David, 61

Left Coast City (DeLeon), 123

Leno, Mark, 53

liberal ideology—profile of San Antonio voters, 115t; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005) and voter, 111–112t; San Antonio mayor run-off election (2005) voters with, 111t

Little Village Community Development Corporation (CDC) [Chicago]—formation of, 70–71; political action for new Little Village high school by, 71–72

Little Village Lawndale High School (Chicago), 72

Liu, Baodong, 101

Loach, Ken, 26, 30

Lopez, Edgar, 69

Lorenzo, Alberto, 84

Los Angeles—brown-on-black violence in, 18–20; Cheryl Green killing in, 18, 19, 35, 38n.25–39n.25; disenfranchisement of East Los Angeles from urban governance in, 6; examining Latino political agency in, 9, 13–20, 123; four dimensions of L.A. Latino politics in, 14; Latino immigrant streams into, 15–16; Latino population demographics in, 9, 15–16; Mexican American grassroots activism (1948) in, 13–14; as “minority-majority” city, 16; race riots in public high schools of, 18; racial/ethnic bloc voting in, 114–115; racial tensions between blacks and Latinos in, 17–20; as site of greatest demographic impact on Latino community, 4–5; Villaraigosa’s 2005 campaign for Mayor of, 28; Zoot Suit Riots (1943) in, 22
Los Angeles brown and black coalitions—AGENDA (Action for Grassroots Empowerment and Neighborhood Alternatives), 34; Bus Riders Union (BRU), 20, 24–25, 34; examining the evidence on, 20–21; Justice for Janitors movement, 26–27; labor organizing, 25–29, 35; popular culture and interethnic/interracial relations of, 29–34; popular culture portrayal of solidarity of, 29–34; Sleepy Lagoon Defense Committee, 20, 21–24, 34, 41n.59; Southern California Library for Social Studies and Research, 34; Watts Century/Latino Organization, 34

Los Angeles City Council—historic demise of Latino representation on the, 14–15; Latino membership in the 1850, 13; Latino representation (1999–2005) on the, 16; Richard Alatorre’s election (1985) to the, 16; Roybal’s grassroots activism and election (1949) to the, 13–14, 16; Los Angeles County federation of Labor, 27; Los Angeles Latino community; labor organizing participation by the, 25–29; Los Angeles business ownership by, 17; perceived labor competition as source of conflict between blacks and, 17–20; political, economic, and social context of the, 15–21; population demographics of the, 15; social economic stratification of, 16

Los Angeles Times, 18, 19, 33

Los Angeles urban agency; brown and black coalitions and, 20–36; dramatic decline since 1850 of Latino, 13; political, economic, and social context of, 15–21

Loza, Ralph, 23

majority-minority city—Los Angeles status as, 16; San Francisco status as, 43–44; Manzanar internment camp (California), 23

Manzano, Sylvia, 8, 10, 97, 124

Marcial, David, 19

Marcial, Larry, 19

Marin, Steve, 84

Marquez, Richard, 51

Marshall, Dale Rogers, 57, 63

Martin, Pedro, 94

Martinez, Ben, 44

Martinez, Elizabeth, 29

Maxwell, Sophie, 56

McCormick, Juan, 6

McGoldrick, Jake, 55, 56

McGrath, Alice Greenfield, 21, 22, 24, 30, 34

McGruder, Aaron, 33, 34

McWilliams, Carey, 21–22

Mendoza, Susana, 70

Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA), 24–25

Mexican American Political Association, 60

Mexican Americans—Community Service Organization (CSO) of
The Roots of Latino Urban Agency

L.A., 13; examining Chicago alliance between Puerto Ricans and, 10; historic invisibility of, 6, 127n.1; interethnic connection with Japanese Americans, 23; political agency in Los Angeles, 13–36; SLCD membership among, 21; Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo (1848) protecting voting rights of, 14, 36n.1; “Viva Kennedy” clubs (1960 presidential election) to mobilize vote of, 6; See also Latinos/Latinas

Mexican Mafia (Los Angeles gang), 19

“Mexican Problem,” 125

Miami—depressed economic outcome of Diaz’s growth-at-all-costs strategy, 94; Elián González crisis (2000) in, 82, 84, 85, 93; gentrification of, 90–93; increasing number of ETIC applicants among residents of, 87; Latino population living in, 9; mayoral election campaign (2001) and election of Manny Diaz, 83–85; Miami Renaissance under Mayor Diaz, 81–83, 85–94; racial/ethnic bloc voting in, 114–115; as site of greatest demographic impact on Latino community, 4–5

Miami Police Department (MPD), 86–87

Miami real estate development—Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) Crosswinds project controversy, 92–93; decline of Miami’s real estate market (2006–2012), 94; examining how minority development role in, 10, 88, 93–94; Florida East Coast (FEC) Railroad Corridor study on potential development of, 90–91; gentrification of Hispanic neighborhoods, 93; Midtown Miami development (2005) construction, 91–92; Overtown neighborhood battleground over, 92; “The Shops at Midtown” shopping area, 91–92

Miami Renaissance—Diaz administration’s political reform during, 85–87; Diaz’s Prosperity Campaign for, 87; examining the failure of the, 93–94; gentrification during the, 90–93; Miami 21 Master Plan for transformation of city’s skyline during, 88–90; reform of Miami Police Department (MPD) as part of, 86–87

Michelson, Melissa R., 8, 10, 67, 124, 125

Miller, Mike, 44

Minutemen, 17

Mission Agenda (San Francisco), 49

Mission Anti-displacement Coalition (MAC) [San Francisco]—Bigstep.com sit-in protest by, 52; creating the “perfect political storm,” 51–53; evolution into vanguard for urban progressivism by, 62–63; helping to consolidate Latino urban agency, 56–57; Horace Mann Middle School meeting held by, 51; mission statement of, 50; as model for land planning tools, 63; opposition to Bryant Square project in Mission District, 49–51; opposition to Willie Brown during 2000 board of supervisors election, 53–56; “People Plan” formulated by, 57; slow-growth focus of, 48; See also San Francisco Latino urban agency

Mission Council on Redevelopment (MCOR) [San Francisco], 44–45
Mission Economic Development Association (MEDA), 49, 50
Mission Housing Development Corporation (MHDC), 49
Model Mission Neighborhood Corporation (MMNC) [San Francisco], 44–45

moderate ideology—profile of San Antonio voters, 115
San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005) and voter, 111–112; San Antonio mayor run-off election (2005) voters with, 111

Molina, Gloria, 16
Monforti, Jessica Lavariega, 8, 10, 81, 124
Montgomery bus boycott, 25
Morello, Tom, 32
Moreno, Dario, 10, 124

Moscone, George, 45
MTV Video Music Awards (Miami, 2004 and 2005), 86
Mueller, Robert, 18–19
Muñoz, Ricardo, 70

NAACP, 25
Nader, Ralph, 55
Naples, Nancy A., 75

national political community—complex and diverse impact of Latino politics on, 5–6; emergence of relationships between Latinos and the, 3
national politics—changing
Latino expectations impact on, 127; complex and diverse impact of Latino politics on, 5–6; examining the anti-immigrant, anti-Latino discourse of post-9/11, 4; traditional invisibility and/or exclusion of Latino politics from, 6, 127n.1; unevenness of Latino political incorporation into, 7–8; See also United States

Native Americans, 15
Nelson, Bill, 84

Never Been Kissed (film), 32–33
Newman, Randy, 33, 60–62
Newsom, Gavin, 53, 59

New York Police Department (NYPD), 87

9/11, 4
non-citizens—allowed to vote in Chicago Board of Education elections, 74; failed initiative for right to vote in San
The Roots of Latino Urban Agency

Francisco elections, 58–59; forms of political mobilization of immigrant, 74; See also anti-immigrant, anti-Latino discourse non-Latino whites. See Anglo population

Odio, Cesar, 82
Ojeda, Alan, 94
Ozomatili (musical group), 21, 32–33

Pacheco, Nick, 16
Padilla, Alex, 16, 73
Paya, Oswaldo, 93
Peace and Justice Center (Los Angeles), 33
Pelosi, Nancy, 59
Peltier, Leonard, 32
Peña, Albert, Jr., 6
People Organizing to Demand our Economic and Environmental Rights (PODER) [San Francisco], 50
Perez, Jorge, 88, 94
Peskin, Aaron, 54, 56
Pesotta, Rose, 28, 29
Peterson, Paul, 63
Plater-Zyberk, Elizabeth, 89 political cartoons, 33–34
popular culture—interethnic/interracial relations portrayed in, 29–34; political activism by cartoonists, 21, 33–34; racial and ethnic stereotypes depicted by, 32–33
Progressive Party, 22
Proposition 187 (California), 46
Proposition G (San Francisco), 53
Proposition K (San Francisco), 52, 54, 55
Proposition L (San Francisco), 52, 54, 55
Proposition M (San Francisco), 47, 52, 55
Protest is Not Enough study (Browning et al.), examining political struggles of Latino community, 4
Prudhomme, Anthony, 19
Puerto Ricans—examining Chicago alliance between Mexican Americans and, 10; Latin urban agency in Chicago and role of, 124; See also Latinos/Latinas
Queens Latino political action, 73–74
Quezada, Eric, 50, 54–55 race riots—in California high schools, 18; Los Angeles Zoot Suit Riots (1943), 22 racial/ethnic bloc voting—comparing Los Angeles, Denver, Miami, Houston, and San Antonio, 114–115; complementary racial threat frameworks on persistence and impacts of, 99; deracialized campaigns and multiracial/ethnic electoral coalitions of, 99, 101; examining, 10; hypotheses on ethnically polarized voting, 98, 102–115; literature on urban elections
Index

... and, 99–102; See also crossover voting; deracialized campaigns; ethnic identities

Racism—Bus Riders Union (BRU) lawsuit against MTA’s, 24–25; Civil Rights movement (mis-1950s) protesting, 25; Strategy Center’s battle against environmental, 24; Zoot Suit Riots and SLDC’s fight against, 21–24;

Rage Against the Machine (punk rock band), 31–32

Rage Against the Machine (musical group), 21

Real estate development. See Miami real estate development

Reilly, Clinton, 48

Related Group, 88, 94

Relational goods theory, 99

Reno, Janet, 84, 85

Republican Party—logit estimates: probability of Castro support by voters of, 113t; Manny Diaz’s switch to the, 84; profile of San Antonio voters, 115t; San Antonio advantage of Democratic Party over, 98–99; San Antonio mayor run-off crossover votes (2005) and voter, 111–112t; San Antonio run-off election (2005) voters registered with, 111t; Residential Builders Association (San Francisco), 47

Rice, Constance (“Connie”), 25

Richard J. Daley Elementary School (Chicago), 68–70

Roc, Sergio, 94

Rosales, Rodolfo, 123

Roybal, Edward R., 13–14, 16

Salt of the Earth (film), 30

San Antonio—demographics of Latino population living in, 9, 115; examining ethnic polarized voting in, 10, 97–115; history of Mexican Americans serving as mayor of, 99; hypotheses on ethnically polarized voting in mayoral election in, 98, 102–115; Latino and Anglo voter profile in, 115t; as site of greatest demographic impact on Latino community, 4–5

San Antonio mayoral race (1991)—ethnic bloc voting as dominant characteristic during, 105–107t; hypotheses on ethnically polarized voting during, 102–115; between Maria Berriozabal and Nelson Wolff, 104–107t; regression of 1991 run-off election, 107t

San Antonio mayoral race (2005)—general election and ethnicity of voters, 110t; individual level analysis during three-man, 109–114; logit estimates: probability of Castro support by all voters, 113t; logit estimates: probability of Castro support by white and Latino voters, 113t; regression of run-off election during, 107–108t, 109t; voter ethnicity, ideology, party affiliation, and education in run-off crossover votes, 111–112t; voter ethnicity, ideology, party affiliation, and education in run-off election, 111t

Sánchez, George, 29
Sanchez, Mark, 55, 58
Sandoval, Geraldo, 54, 56, 58, 62
San Francisco—Anglo population of, 43–44; declared an official City of Refuge, 46, 62; examining the rebirth of Latino urban agency in, 9–10, 43–63; five-year Model Cities project (1971) of, 44–45; gay and lesbian community of, 44; gay marriage political issue in, 62; history of putting development under siege in, 124; Latino population living in, 9, 43–44; Local 2 UNITE-HERE protest lockout in, 62; as majority-minority city, 43–44; map of districts, board of supervisors, 46fig; “Multimedia Summit” (1998) held in, 47; Silicon Valley venture capitalist investment into, 47–49; as site of greatest demographic impact on Latino community, 4–5; See also Brown, Willie; California
San Francisco elections—initiative for non-citizen voting rights in school board elections, 58–59; instant run-off voting (IRV) implemented in 2004, 58; new voting policies and reforms, 58–59; Proposition G change to district elections of supervisors, 53; Proposition K supported by Willie Brown, 52, 54, 55; Proposition L banning new developments, 52, 54, 55; Proposition M controlling high-rise office development in, 47, 52, 55; scatterplot of vote for Kerry 2004 vs. vote for Gonzalez 2003, 60–61fig; Willie Brown elected as mayor (1996), 46; Willie Brown’s reelection campaign (1999), 48–49
Coalition (MAC) [San Francisco]
San Francisco Mission District—intersection of ethnic identity and place identity in, 63; Latino residents of, 43; MAC’s opposition to Bryant Square project in the, 49–51; MCOR (Mission Council on Redevelopment) of the, 44–45; MMNC (Model Mission Neighborhood Corporation) of, 44–45
San Francisco neighborhoods—grassroots slow-growth movement projects (1998) in, 47–48; Haight-Ashbury and Portrero Hill support of Willie Brown, 48; predominately African American Hunter’s Point, 44; rising real estate prices (1990s) in, 46–49
Saucedo, Renee, 51
Savio, Mario, 32
School of the Americas, 33 school protests (Chicago)—CDC campaign for new Little Village high school, 70–72; for Emiliano Zapata Academy school opening, 69–70; hunger strikes used by Latina mothers during, 70, 71–72, 75, 77
Schubert, Carroll, 109–110
Scott, Michael W., 72
Shakur, Tupac, 31
Shibley, George, 21
Sleepy Lagoon Defense Committee (SLCD) [Los Angeles]—brown and black cooperation through, 20, 23–24, 34; description and membership of, 21–22; disbanding of, 41n.59; publicity functions of, 22 social class—as door to political inclusion, 123; ethnic identities tied together by concerns of, 102
Solis, Danny, 71
Southern California Library for Social Studies and Research, 34
Spanish American League Against Discrimination (SALAD) [Miami], 84
Spanish Coalition for Jobs (Chicago), 73
St. Peters Housing Committee (San Francisco), 49
“The State of Black California” (Bell), 34
Stein Kingsley Stein Investments (SKS), 49
Stone, Clarence N., 10
Strategy Center, 24
Suarez, Xavier, 82
Survey USA polls on San Antonio mayor race (1991), 104
Tabb, David H., 57, 63
Teng, Mabel, 53
Texas Secretary of State, Elections Division, 104
Timoney, John, 86–87
“To Live and Die in L.A.” (Tupac Shakur song), 31
Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, 14, 36n.1
Trudeau, Gary, 33
204th Street gang (Latino gang, Los Angeles), 18, 19, 39n.25

UC Berkeley Free Speech Movement, 32

Uhlander, Carole, 99

United Farm Workers, 35

United Neighborhood Organization (UNO) [Chicago], 70

United States—anti-immigrant, anti-Latino discourse in the, 4, 46, 62; election of the first African American President of the, 126; emerging successful Latino Middle Class in the, 126–127; Latino population demographics in the, 9; projections about Latinos in American politics, 126; See also government agencies; national politics

United States Hispanic Leadership Institute (USHLI) [Chicago], 71

US Census Bureau—on decline of African Americans residents in Miami (2000–2003), 90; on estimated racial/ethnic population in California (2005), 15; naming Miami as poorest city in the U.S., 82, 85; precinct electorate (2003 and 2004) by racial/ethnic population percentages, 61; on San Francisco’s Anglo population falling below 47%, 43; on states and cities with largest Latin population, 9

Valdez, Luis, 30

Vallas, Paul, 71, 72

Vanderleeuw, James, 102

Varela Project, 93

Vega, Arturo, 8, 10, 97, 124

Villaraigosa, Antonio, 16, 18, 20, 28, 34, 101

“Viva Kennedy” clubs (1960 presidential election), 6

Voting Rights Act (1982 amendment to Section 2), 102, 115

War Worker (World War II-era paper), 23

Washington, Harold, 67

Washington School (Chicago), 68–69

Watts Century/Latino Organization, 34

white feminist movement, 22

whites. See Anglo voters

Williams, Melissa, 76–77

Wilson, Kenneth, 19

Wilson, Pete, 31, 46

Winton, Johnny, 88–89, 90

Wolf, Ken, 97

Wolf, Nelson, 104–107r

Wolfinger, Raymond E., 100, 101, 102

World Trade Organization (WTO) riots (Seattle, 1999), 42n.79

Yaki, Michael, 53, 55

Yee, Leland, 53

Yuppie Eradication Project (San Francisco Mission District), 47–48
Index

Zapatistas, 32
Zoot Suit Riots (1943) [Los Angeles], 22
Zuniga, Paola, 50