Political Landscapes of Capital Cities

Published by University Press of Colorado

Political Landscapes of Capital Cities.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/47400
Illustrations

0.1. Example of an urban beautification mural project, southern Tehran ii
1.1. Map of the contemporary setting of the site of el-Amarna 28
1.2. View from the Aten Temples resembling the Akhet glyph at sunrise 29
1.3. Boundary Stela N 32
1.4. Map of boundary stelae marking the territory of el-Amarna 34
1.5. Boundary Stela X in situ 35
1.6. Boundary Stela A 38
1.7. Boundary Stela B 39
1.8. Map of the ancient capital el-Amarna 40
1.9. Plan of the Central City of el-Amarna 41
1.10. Ramps and stairs with double-sided balustrades 47
2.1. Plan of the Roman Forum 69
2.2. Reconstruction of the five-column monument on the western Rostra 74
2.3. “Decennalia” column base 76
2.4. Arch of Constantine, relief of Constantine with the five-column monument 77
2.5. So-called Rostra Vandalica 79
2.6. Equestrian statue base of Constantine overlapping the Rostra Vandalica 80
2.7. Porphyry statue group of the Tetrarchs, Basilica of San Marco, Venice 83
3.1. Late antique and medieval capital cities mentioned in the text 98
3.2. The Tabula Peutingeriana, a medieval copy of a Roman road map 101
3.3. Map of Byzantine Constantinople 103
3.4. Church of Hagia Sophia, Constantinople, modern Istanbul, Turkey 105
3.5. Third Military Gate, containing inscription in honor of Theodosius II 107
3.6. Virgin Orans framed by Constantinopolitan walls 110
3.7. Fortification system of Constantinople with Long Walls of Thrace 111
3.8. Siege of Constantinople, fresco, Moldova, Romania 113
3.9. Medieval capitals in the Balkans and eastern Europe 115
3.10. Veliko Tŭrnovo 118
3.11. Kiev 122
3.12. Old City, Vladimir 123
3.13. Vladimir 125
3.15. Smederevo 131
3.16. Small Town, Smederevo 132
3.17. Dedicatory inscription from the tower of Small Town, Smederevo 133
3.18. Building techniques of the city walls in Smederevo and Constantinople 134
4.1. Map of Central Siam 156
4.2. Emerald Buddha, Bangkok, Thailand 158
4.3. “View of Judea [Ayutthaya], the Capital of Siam” 159
4.4. Map of Kingdom of Siam 162
4.5. Ordination Hall, Temple of the Emerald Buddha, Bangkok, Thailand 168
4.6. Wat Phra Sri Sanpetch, Ayutthaya, Thailand 169
5.1. Lake Titicaca and the extent of influence from the Tiwanaku polity 185
5.2. Sacred mountains visible from the Titicaca Basin 186
5.3. Tiwanaku-Period monuments 188
5.4. Temple at Tiwanaku 192
5.5. Cross sections of the Kalasasaya and Akapana platforms 195
5.6. Kalasasaya and Putuni platforms with points of access 197
5.7. View south of Quimsachata from between the Putuni and Kalasasaya platforms 200
5.8. Idealized view of the southern horizon from inside the temple 203
6.1. Map of the Inka empire 214
6.2. Plan of the center of Cusco 218
6.3. Cusco, Saqsaywaman 221
6.4. Machu Picchu, kallanka, and view to the Ceremonial Rock 231
6.5. Machu Picchu, view showing potential Hanan and Hurin division 232
6.6. Chinchero, Great Plaza with Structure II and Pumaccacca outcrop 233
6.7. Chinchero, Great Plaza with kallanka buildings 234
6.8. Huanuco Pampa, plan, and alignment between usnu and Sector IIB 235
6.9. Vilcaswaman, usnu 237
6.10. Vilcabamba the Old (Espiritu Pampa) 238
7.1. Basin of Mexico, post-Classic settlements including Mexico-Tenochtitlan 250
7.2. Folio 2r, Codex Mendoza 257
7.3. Island of Mexico-Tenochtitlan/Tlatelolco with major barrio divisions 264
7.4. Excavated remains from Templo Mayor showing diversity of construction stones 269
7.5. Reconstruction of Offering 98 unearthed at the Templo Mayor 270
7.6. Two-tufted figures from Offerings S, L, and 20 271
7.7. Drawings of temples with twin shrines illustrated in codices 271
7.8. Frontispiece, Thomas Hobbes’s The Leviathan 273
8.1. Map of Italy showing location of Matera in the deep south 288
8.2. Intricate layers of houses carved into and out of the limestone hillside 289
8.3. Axonometric and section drawings of cave structures in the hillside 292
8.4. Section and aerial illustration of the Sassi 293
8.5. Matera’s cathedral dominates the Civita, which towers above the Sassi 295
8.6. Line of buildings forming the Quinta, separating the Sassi from the Piano 299
8.7. Reproductions of peasant wagons in the Sassi today; faded traffic sign 300
8.8. Interior of a peasant home in the Sassi with mule in background 307
8.9. Interior of a Sassi home showing large, prosperous family dining 308
8.10. Sassi residents collecting water from a well 309
9.1. Mussolini’s visit to the work at the Imperial Fora from Capitolium, 1928 326
9.2. Demolition underway at the Imperial Fora 327
9.3. The Piazza Montanara before and during demolition 329
9.4. La Domenica del Corriere cover from October 9, 1932 330
9.5. La Domenica del Corriere cover from October 23, 1932 332
9.6. Capitolium article, demolition at the Mausoleum of Augustus 335
9.7. Mussolini center stage swinging the pickaxe to demolish buildings 337
9.8. Article on the work underway at the Piazzale Augusto Imperatore 338
9.9. Photograph of the work underway at the Piazzale Augusto Imperatore 340
10.1. Map of Tehran, 1796 351
10.2. Map of Tehran, 1890 352
10.3. Citadel Square, Qajar Tehran, 1890s 354
10.4. Shahyad (Azadi) Monument and Square, Tehran 362
10.5. Map of Tehran, 2006 366
10.6. Highway retaining wall and landscaping as urban beautification, Tehran 368
10.7. Haft-e Tir Square, central Tehran 368
10.8. Urban beautification mural project, Tehran 369
10.9. Vali Asr Avenue, stencil of presidential candidate Musavi 370
10.10. Graffiti stating “don’t vote,” June 2009 presidential campaign 370