"The Only True People"

LeCount, Lisa J., Beyette, Bethany J.

Published by University Press of Colorado

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/50019

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1935202
Tables

4.1. Contact with Q’eqchi’ 81
4.2. Contact with Eastern Ch’olan 81
4.3. Reconstructable for Proto-Yukatekan 82
4.4. Southern versus Northern Yukatekan 82
4.5. Lexicon only in Mopan and Itzaj 83
4.6. Lexicon unique to Mopan 84
5.1. Uses of the term Maya in Colonial Mayan–language sources 93
5.2. Maya terms of self-description containing possible ethnic implications 103
5.3. Ethnic diversity of Mesoamericans brought into Yucatán in the 1540s 107
6.1. Person markers of Greater Tzeltalan and Yukatekan languages 134
6.2. Person markers grouped person markers according to similar source patterns 137
8.1. Common archaeological measures to distinguish class 193
10.1. Copán 9N-8 Compound skeletal sample polar teeth measures 252
10.2. Copán rural skeletal sample polar teeth measures 253
10.3. K’axob skeletal sample polar teeth measures 254
10.4. Comparison of mortuary treatment in Late Classic Copán 259