Legacies of Space and Intangible Heritage

Gutierrez, Julio Hoil, Armstrong-Fumero, Fernando

Published by University Press of Colorado

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/50584

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=1945902
Contents

List of Figures    vii
List of Tables    ix

Chapter 1. Introduction
   Fernando Armstrong-Fumero and Julio Hoil Gutierrez    3

Chapter 2. Settlement Patterns, Intangible Memory, and the Institutional Entanglements of Heritage in Modern Yucatán
   Fernando Armstrong-Fumero and Julio Hoil Gutierrez    15

Chapter 3. Hopisinmuy Wu’ya’mat Hisat Yang Tupqa’va Yeesiwingwu (Hopi Ancestors Lived in These Canyons)
   Maren P. Hopkins, Stuart B. Kayiymptewa, Saul L. Hedquist,
   T. J. Ferguson, and Chip Colwell    33

Chapter 4. Designs on/of the Land: Competing Visions, Displacement, and Landscape Memory in British Colonial Honduras
   Christine Kray, Minette Church, and Jason Yaeger    53
Chapter 5. Cultivating Community: The Archaeology of Japanese American Confinement at Amache
Bonnie Clark  79

Chapter 6. Indigenous House Plans and Land in Mexico City (Sixteenth Century): Reflections on the Buying and Selling, Inheritance, and Conflicts Surrounding Houses and Land
Keiko Yoneda (translated by Hannah Becker)  97

Chapter 7. The Archaeology of Place in Ebtún, Yucatán, Mexico
Rani T. Alexander  131

Chapter 8. Names, Naming, and Person Reference in Quiahije Chatino
Emiliana Cruz  163

Chapter 9. A Culturescape Built over 5,000 Years, Archaeology, and Vichama Raymi in the Forge of History
Winifred Creamer, Jonathan Haas, and Henry Marcelo Castillo  189

Chapter 10. Interpreting Long-Term Human-Environment Interaction in Amazonia
Anna C. Roosevelt  209

Contributors  239

Index  241