Identity Politics of Difference

Montgomery, Michelle

Published by University Press of Colorado

For additional information about this book https://muse.jhu.edu/book/55920
Index

academic achievement, of multiracial students, 36, 37–39 academic expectations, 111 agency, of mixed-race identity, 6–7 Alaska Native, identity as, 54–55, 73, 100 alienation, of mixed-race students, 125, 128 Alipuria, L. L., on racial labeling, 42–43 alliances, 28, 31
Alutiq, 54
AMEA. See Association of Multiethnic Americans
American Indian(s): authenticity, 86, 95, 98–99; blood quantum and, 64–65; boundary marking, 130; identity as, 51, 79; intermarriage, 28; learning to be, 108–9; in New Mexico, 18; stereotypes, 62, 114–15; survival legacy, 100–101. See also Indianness
American Indian Law Center, 77
Amy, 55, 78, 84, 101, 143; college experience, 88, 89; on whiteness, 83, 95
Anthony, 73, 143; college experience of, 88, 95, 113–14, 115; self-identity of, 52–53, 83 anti-blackness, 8
art: authenticity of, 98–99, 109–10; cultural and traditional, 108, 125; legitimate American Indian, 86, 87
Asians: biracial, 29; as honorary whites, 27, 28
Association of Multiethnic Americans (AMEA), 26 authenticity, 73, 102, 108; black, 66; blood quantum and, 75, 104, 138; construction of, 63–64, 72; cultural, 77–79; Indianness, 67–68, 109; Nativness and, 115, 116; phenotype and, 94–95, 114; racialized, 96 Bell, Derrick, “Serving Two Masters,” 116 benefits, of mixed-race identity, 33–34 “Bill of Rights for Racially Mixed People, A” (Root), 26 biraciality, 23, 29, 55; and academic achievement, 38–39; school curriculum and, 39–40 Black Indians (Katz), 80–81 blackness, 5, 8, 65; and American Indian identity, 67, 98–99, 109; authentic, 66; in classroom settings, 85–86, 110; disenfranchisement of, 100; and group association, Index 155

families: acceptance of, 87–88; group association, 79; identity construction, 65–68, 71–72, 80; support for, 136; survival legacy, 100–101 Fernandez, Carlos, 26
funding, tribal college, 117–18, 119

Grier, Mike, 76
group association/membership: acceptance in, 86, 87–88; authenticity and, 94–95, 102; blood quantum and, 103–4; boundary marking, 96–97; exclusion, 109–10; families and, 79; and phenotype, 118–19; survival legacy and, 100–101 group sessions, in Cliff View College study, 56, 57

Haliwa Saponi Tribe, 4
Hawaii, Hispanic identity in, 83 heritage, importance of, 101–2 hierarchy, racial, 9, 12, 18–19, 20, 25, 28–29, 47(n1), 61, 62, 68, 80, 104, 118, 130, 133 higher education, identity studies, 31, 34–36 high school students: and biracial curriculum, 39–40; identity choice, 31, 33–34 Hispanicness, vs. Mexicanness, 83–84
Hispanics, 91(n4); academic achievement, 39; as honorary white, 27, 28; identity politics, 41, 81–82; self-identity as, 52–53, 55, 83, 88 hockey, 76
hypodescent, 21–22, 67

identity, 8, 10; and academic success, 37–39; American Indian, 107–8; authenticity, 78–79; changing, 30, 115–16; liberty and, 26–27; multiracial, 23–24, 33–34, 41; renegotiation of, 62–63, 99–100, 105; in New Mexico, 81–82; racial, 9–10; racialized, 3–5; survival legacy and, 100–101 identity choice, 17, 36, 40, 83, 123–24; of Cliff View students, 64, 73–74; mixed-race, 6, 18, multiracial, 29–30, 37–38, 44; stereotypes and, 127; white control of, 30–31; women’s, 46 identity politics, 8, 134, 136; blood quantum and, 5, 64–69, 75–76, 104; mixed-race, 36, 118; in New Mexico, 81–82; power relations and, 31; studies of, 41–43 identity variance, of college students, 34–36

IEA. See Indian Education Act Ignacio University, 43 immigrants: dark-skinned, 68; Mexican, 82; in racial hierarchy, 25, 68 Indian Arts and Crafts Act, 86, 91(n5)
Indian Education Act (IEA), 107, 119(n1)
Indianness, 6, 13(n5), 65, 66, 134; authenticity, 63–64, 67–68, 72, 87, 109; blood quantum and, 104; defining and renegotiating, 11, 100, 116–17; economic value of, 76–77; and mixed-race heritage, 129–30; in power structure, 69; in racial hierarchy, 80
Indian Reorganization Act (Indian New Deal), 65, 76, 90–91(n3) inequality, educational, 127 intellectual capital, skin color and, 82–83 intermarriage: and American Indian survival, 101; and racial categories, 27, 28 interviews, 50; Cliff View College study, 56, 57, 139–42

Japanese, mixed-race study of, 32 Jennifer, 55, 81, 111, 143 judgment, peer, 55, 98–99

Kathy, 53–54, 143; authenticity of art, 98–99, 109–10; authenticity of identity, 68, 78–79; discrimination against, 111–12; exclusion of, 86; and family identity, 66; mixed-race experience, 85, 87; partner preference, 102; peer judgment, 98–99; on perception and self-identity, 74–75; and tribal college, 107–8
Katz, William, Black Indians, 80–81
Kim, 54–55, 143; college experience, 113; on group separation, 97; on identity choice, 73–74
Kiowa, 55
knowledge, racial, 137

Latinos, 83
learning environments, 11; social relations and, 32–33; self-determination and, 107; at tribal colleges, 133, 135 legitimacy, of American Indian art, 86 Lewis, A., on identity politics, 41–42 liberty, and multiracial identity, 26–27 literature, mixed-race, 11 lived experiences, 3–4, 32, 50, 90, 107, 133; race and, 13(n6), 126 Logan, 3, 143; authentic identity, 67–68; on blood quantum, 103; on cultural authenticity, 77, 96; mixed-race experience, 89, 114–15, 116; reason for attending college, 112–13; self-perception, 54, 70–71; on skin color and intelligence, 82; on survival legacy, 101; on tribes and whiteness, 69

Lopez, A. M., high school study, 33–34

Lyda, J.: multiracial study, 34–36; on phenotype, 88

"Marginal Man" (Stonequist), 22

marriage: desire for Native, 101–2; interracial, 7, 22; mixed-race, 21

McQueen, N., mixed-race study, 31–33 membership. See group association/membership mestiza/os, mestizaje, 18; in New Mexico, 81–82

Mexicanness, 18; vs. Hispanicness, 83–84

Mexicans, Nuevomexicanos perceptions of, 82, 84, 85

miscegeny, 22

mixed-race heritage, 4; agency and, 6–7; assets of, 89–90; benefits of, 40–41; components of, 22–23; disadvantages of, 84–88; identity and, 10, 11–12, 134; misconceptions about, 129–30

monoracial identity, 23, 36–37, 40

Moore, T., high school study, 39–41 multiculturalism, cultural competence, 137 multiracialism, multiraciality, 7, 12(n2); monoracial category, 19, 26; politics of, 8–9, 79; research on, 15–16

multiracial: academic achievement, 37–39; categorization, 8, 16; identity, 4–5, 7; identity choice by, 6, 17, 29–30; identity negotiations, 62–63; identity variance, 34–36; inheritance, 22–23; light-skinned, 95; politics of, 23–24; and racial hierarchy, 28–29; racialization of, 41–42, 125–26, 133; whiteness and, 19–20

Munoz-Miller, M., on self-identification, 36–37

National Health Interview Surveys, 28

Nativeness, 63; blacks and, 79, 82; college focus on, 115, 116 natural law, white supremacy and, 21

Navajo, 67, 73, 102; self-identification as, 52, 53, 71–72 negotiation, of racial identity, 62–63

New Mexico, 6, 10, 11, 18; phenotype advantages in, 89–90; Spanish identity in, 81–82, 83

North Carolina, 4; identity and academic achievement, 37–38

Nuevomexicanos, whiteness of, 81–82

Obama, Barack, racial identity, 8, 123

Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act, 76, 90–91(n3)

Omi, M., Racial Formation in the United States from the 1960s to the 1990s, 16 one-drop rule, 25–26, 30, 80

Ongtooguk, Paul, on identity negotiation, 100 oppression, and whiteness, 46 outsiders, black mixed-race as, 86 partners, Native, 101–2 passing, 45–46

patriarchy, whiteness and, 46

peer groups, 11, 96; judgment by, 55, 95, 98–99, 131 perception: and self-concept, 42; and self-identity, 73–75

phenotype: American Indian, 62, 63; and authenticity, 114; and group acceptance, 86, 87–88, 104, 118–19; identity negotiation and, 99–100, 136; judgment, 55; Mexican, 84; perceivable, 93–94; prejudice and, 127; and race, 11, 20–21; and racial categorization/classification, 73, 117; and racial identity, 33, 65–66, 75; and self-identity, 52, 53, 54; and self-perception, 35–36, 70–71

Phinney, J. S., on racial labeling, 42–43

"playing the race card," and self-identity, 76–77 political institutions, racial policies of, 116–17 poverty: white privilege in, 28 power structure: crossover, 40; multiraciality, 79; racial identity and, 31; tribes and, 69; white, 25–26, 28, 67–68, 82 privilege: racial, 124, 126, 135; whiteness and, 82, 88 public policy, self-identification and academic achievement, 37–38 public schools, 6, 11

Puerto Ricans, biracial identification, 55

Pulera, Dominic, 45

purity, whiteness and, 64 race, 13(16), 30, 125; colorism and, 124; vs. ethnicity, 33; identity politics and, 118; phenotypes and, 20–21; politics of, 61–62; positionality of, 135–36; purity of, 21–22; self-perceptions of, 69–84; social construction of, 34, 138; as social process, 16–17, 27; social recognition of, 61–62; student comments on, 110–11; as symbolic or signifying system, 126–27 race essentialism, 20–21, 22–23, 62, 69, 118 racial classification/categorization, 3, 9–10, 11, 24, 30, 35, 42–43; and academic achievement, 37–39; authenticity and, 73, 96; criticism and, 98–99; phenotype and, 80–81; racialization, 134; of mixed-race students, 41–42, 125–26, 133 racism, 25, 46, 68; institutionalized/structural, 116–17, 125, 126, 128–29, 133
Renn, K. A., 43
research, qualitative, 49–50
resistance, to racial hierarchy, 130
Racial Formation in the United States from the 1960s to the 1990s (Omi and Winant), 16 racial hierarchy/stratification, 9, 12, 18–19, 20, 25, 28–29, 47(11), 61, 62, 80, 104, 133; mixed-race, 68, 118; resistance to, 130 racialization, 134; of mixed-race students, 41–42, 125–26, 133
racism, 25, 46, 68; institutionalized/structural, 116–17, 125, 126, 128–29, 133
Renn, K. A., 43
research, qualitative, 49–50
resistance, to racial hierarchy, 130
Samantha, 53, 143; college experience of, 89, 112, 115; family and identity of, 68; on group associations, 78, 94–95
Sanchez, C. E., University of New Mexico study, 43 schools, 9; curriculum, 39–40; identity cultivation, 10; institutional racism at, 128–29; mixed-race issues, 46–47, 87; racial hierarchy, 12, 130; as white space, 32–33 Seattle, 46
segregation, 9
self-determination, 107, 117–18, 119, 125, 126, 133; re-envisioning, 136–38; and survival, 102–3 self-identification: of Cliff View students, 51–55; economic value of, 76–77; multiracial, 36–37; as Navajo, 71–72; of high school students, 34; perception and, 73–75, 80–81; and social perceptions, 35 self-labeling, 42, 43; blood quantum and, 70 self-perception, 64, 90; biracial, 29; black, 51–52; and categorization, 42; identity choice and, 73–74; and multiracial identities, 36–37; phenotype and, 35–36, 70–71; of race, 69–70 self-representation, 6
“Serving Two Masters” (Bell), 116
Simon, Chris, 76
skin color, 11, 75, 136; and disenfranchisement, 95, 100; and family identity, 65–66; material value of, 126, 128; and politics, 97–98; and racial categorization, 74, 80; and social value, 82–83; and whiteness, 27, 29, 71 slaves: African, 18; skin color, 80 social Darwinism, 21 social groups. See group association/membership social order, 125
social relations, 35; learning environments, 32–33; race and, 61–62 social status, 8, 21, 41, 79, 83, 94 social stigma, 76
social value(s), 32, 81; skin color and, 82–83 societal norms, racialized, 100
Spanish, identity as, 18, 81–82, 83
Spanish-immersion programs, 41
Spokane, 46
Stacey, 74, 143; on college experience, 87–88, 97–98; on colorism, 72–73; self-identification, 52, 71–72; on student expectations, 113; on survival legacy, 100–101 staff, education of, 134–35 stereotypes, 96, 127; American Indian, 62, 82–83, 108–9, 114–15 Storrs, D., 46
strategic essentialism, 24
students: Cliff View College, 51–55; college experiences, 105, 118–19; community membership, 44–45; identity studies, 31–36; mixed-race, 15, 43–44, 137–38; racial comments by, 110–11; racialization of, 41–42, 125–26; self-determination, 136; self-labeling, 42–43; self-perception and academics, 36–37, 40–41; social interactions, 94; at tribal colleges, 107 Subcommittee on Census Statistics and Postal Personnel, hearings, 26 survival: concepts of, 100–102; self-determination and, 102–3 Taino, identity as, 55
Tony, 51–52, 143; on authenticity, 68, 75, 79; on black identity, 85–86; college experience of, tribal colleges: colonization and, 135; discrimination and oppression in, 124–25; institutionalized racism in, 117, 126; learning environments in, 133; race issue literature in, 11; racial culture at, 6, 10, 118–19, 131, 134; reasons for attending, 107–8, 112–14; role of, 106; and self-determination, 138 Tribal Critical Race Theory (TribalCrit), 134, 137 tribes: enrollment and legitimacy, 86; identity politics of, 104; and white power structure, 69, 128–29 Troy, student comments about race, 110–11 universities: identity variance at, 34–35; minority preference at, 77; multiracial students at, 43–44; racial issues at, 130; racial labeling at, 42–43
University of New Mexico, multiracial identity study, 43–44
US House of Representatives, Subcommittee on Census Statistics and Postal Personnel, 26 victimization, 40
Virginia, American Indian identity in, 65 voices, of racial inequality, 127 whiteness, 17–18; access to, 68–69; advantages of, 83; changing definitions of, 25–26, 27, 29; claims to, 71; and group association, 118; material value of, 128; in mixed-race contexts, 19–20, 45–46, 86, 87–88; in New Mexico, 81–82, 84; perception of, 42; power dynamics, 64, 67–68, 131; in racial hierarchy, 61, 80 white privilege, 19, 20, 28, 46, 82, 88, 126; in schools, 32–33, 131; tribes and, 128–29 whites, 12(n3), 19, 20; honorary, 27, 28; identity choice, 30–31; racial purity, 21–22; school curricula and, 39–40; social power of, 25–26; and universities, 42–43 white supremacy, 17, 19, 20, 62; color-blind ideology and, 26–27 Winant, H., Racial Formation in the United States from the 1960s to the 1990s, 16 women, identity choice, 46
Wooley College, 43