CONTENTS

Foreword by
Alexander Laban Hinton  vii
Acknowledgments  ix

Introduction: Bridging the Gap between Two Genocides  1

PART ONE
Some Theoretical Questions

1 Defining the Concept of Genocide  11
2 Toward a Typology of Genocidal Social Practices  39
3 Reconciling the Contradictions of Modernity: Equality, Sovereignty, Autonomy, and Genocidal Social Practices  52

PART TWO
Historical Foundations: The Nazi Genocide

4 Discourse and Politics in Holocaust Studies: Uniqueness, Comparability, and Narration  71
5 The Problem of Explaining the Causes of the Nazi Genocides  87
6 Reshaping Social Relations through Genocide  104
PART THREE
Toward a Historical Basis: Genocidal Social Practices in Argentina

7 Explaining Genocidal Social Practices in Argentina: The Problem of Causation 131
8 Toward a Periodization of Genocide in Argentina 161
9 Concentration Camp Logic 186
10 In Conclusion: The Uses of Memory 205

Notes 215
Index 251