ABOUT THE AUTHORS

KAYO DENDA is the head of the Margery Somers Foster Center and women’s studies librarian at Rutgers University Libraries. She is the liaison librarian to the Department of Women’s and Gender Studies, the Institute for Women’s Leadership, the Institute for Research on Women, the Center for Women’s Global Leadership, and Douglass Residential College.

MARY HAWKESWORTH is Distinguished Professor of Political Science and Women’s and Gender Studies at Rutgers University. Her most recent books include Embodied Power: Demystifying Disembodied Politics (Routledge, 2016), the Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory (Oxford University Press, 2016), and Gender and Power: Towards Equality and Democratic Governance (Palgrave Macmillan, 2016).

FERNANDA PERRONE, archivist and head, Exhibitions Program, and curator of the William Elliot Griffis Collection, Special Collections/University Archives, Rutgers University Libraries, specializes in women’s manuscript collections, especially the documentation of women’s higher education and women’s organizations. Her research focuses on the history and archives of women’s colleges and religious communities.
