Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Chapter 1 Interdisciplinary Ripples across the Indian Ocean
KRISH SEETAH AND RICHARD B. ALLEN 1

Chapter 2 Investigating Premodern Colonization
of the Indian Ocean
The Remote Islands Enigma
ATHOLL ANDERSON, AARON CAMENS,
GEOFFREY CLARK, AND SIMON HABERLE 30

Chapter 3 Facing Mecca from Africa
Islam and Globalization on the Swahili Coast
during the First Millennium CE and Beyond
MARK HORTON, ALISON CROWTHER,
AND NICOLE BOIVIN 68

Chapter 4 Researching the History of the Indian Ocean World
An Interdisciplinary Approach
EDWARD A. ALPERS 92

Chapter 5 History, Historical Archaeology, and the “History of Silence”
Forced and Free Labor Migration in the Indian Ocean, 1700–1900
RICHARD B. ALLEN 121
Chapter 6  The Archaeology of Colonial Encounters in Coastal East Africa
   Recent Developments and Continuing Conceptual Challenges
   PAUL J. LANE  143

Chapter 7  Historical Archaeology of Pearling in the Indian Ocean
   Through the Lens of North West Australia
   ALISTAIR PATERSON  171

Chapter 8  Interdisciplinarity as Image
   At the Intersections of Historical, Heritage, and Media Approaches in the Indian Ocean World
   DIANA HEISE AND MARTIN MHANDO  204

Chapter 9  Archaeology and Religious Syncretism in Mauritius
   SABA ČAVAL  230

Chapter 10  Archaeology and the Process of Heritage Construction in Mauritius
   DIEGO CALAON AND CORINNE FOREST  253

Chapter 11  Climate and Disease in the Indian Ocean
   An Interdisciplinary Study from Mauritius
   KRISH SEETAH  291

Bibliography  317
Contributors  389
Index  397