Exposé of Polygamy
DeSimone, Linda, Stenhouse, Fanny

Published by Utah State University Press

DeSimone, Linda and Fanny Stenhouse.
Exposé of Polygamy: A Lady's Life Among the Mormons.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/12760.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/12760

For content related to this chapter https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=381587
CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.
Early Life and Experience of the Authoress . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 35

CHAPTER II.
Seeking after Truth—First Acquaintance with Mormonism—
Favourable Impressions—I become the Wife of a Mormon Elder . . 37

CHAPTER III.
My Husband leaves for Italy—Experiences as the Wife of a Missionary—Privations and Struggles with Poverty in England—
Suspicions of Polygamy—“Privilege” of “washing the Elders’ Feet”—Cheering Words in Time of Trouble . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 39

CHAPTER IV.
Our Mission to Switzerland—Introducing Mormonism—Terrible
Trials of Faith—Geneva—Days without Food—The new Convert—
“The Labourer worthy of his Hire”—Timely Aid . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 43

CHAPTER V.
The “Revelation” on Polygamy—How I received it—Left without Hope—The Doctrine of “plural Marriage” first taught—“ Beauties” of the System—My first Convert to Polygamy—A Scene—Trials—
How Work progressed—Disaster to Swiss Emigration . . . . . . . . . . 47

CHAPTER VI.
We return to England—How Polygamy was taught there—The Girls happy—The Wives miserable—General Effects of the Doctrine—A Runaway Wife—How she acted in Haste and repented at Leisure—A Mother leaves her Babes—A Lady is “counselled” to emigrate without her Husband—Follies of certain Elders—Polygamic “Poetry” . . 54

CHAPTER VII.
Mormon Life in London—“Counselled” to go to Salt Lake
Chapter VIII.
We emigrate to America—New-York—The Mormon—An “Apostle,” two “High-Priests,” and a “Seventy,” and what they did—Polygamy in New-York—The Elders from Utah choose other Wives—Plans disarranged—We set out for “Zion”—Three Months on the Plains—First Glimpse of “the City of the Saints”...65

Chapter IX.
Life in Salt Lake City—Polygamy in Practice—The first Wife to be “destroyed” unless she consents—Deceptive Teaching about taking a second Wife—The Mormon Plan—“Labouring” with refractory Wives—Elderly Ladies assisting in Courtship—A first Wife’s Trials—Anomalies of Polygamic Life...69

Chapter X.
Shocking Effects of Polygamy—Marrying a Half-Sister—A Mother and Daughter married to one Man—Marrying three Sisters on one Day!—“Covenants of Marriage”—Influence of Elders—A deluded “Sister” and her Persecutor—Mistaken Ideas of Duty—Another “Sister” betrayed—Men unhappy in Polygamy...75

Chapter XI.
Illustrations of practical Polygamy—A “Sister” in deep Affliction—A Husband’s Cruelty—A sad End—Various and fearful Results of Polygamy—Broken Hearts and Lunacy—Men “Sparking” in the Ball-Room—Women sitting like Wall-flowers!—Painful Memories—Introduced to five Wives at once—“Are these all you have got?”—Matrimonial Felicities...81

Chapter XII.
Going to the “Endowment House”—Wives cruel to other Wives—The Story of a young second Wife—How she came to marry—How she was treated—Neglect of the Husband—Cruelty of the first Wife—Goes to the “Bishop”—How young Girls in Polygamy value the Attentions of their Husbands—The Ways of Mormon Men...86

Chapter XIII.
Fears realized—Meeting an old Friend from Switzerland—The Vicissitudes of himself and Family—How he was “counselled” to take another Wife—Brigham sends for me—My young Charge—“Not feeling well”—My Husband seeking a second Wife—A “painful” Task!—Striving to submit—My attempts at Friendship with his Fiancée—My Heart not quite subdued . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 93

Chapter XIV.
The Sacrifice of my Life—I give another Wife to my Husband—The Scene in the “Endowment House”—My Day of Trial—It was all over now—Bitter Miseries of Polygamy—Rebellious Thoughts—Retrospect of that Time—The first Wife not alone unhappy—Watchful Eyes—A ludicrous Picture—Want of Sympathy—Seeking another “Jewel” for his “crown”—Enlarging the “Kingdom”—“Stolen Waters”—Love-Letters read in Secret—Reading the “Revelation” a second Time . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 100

Chapter XV.
Trouble with the Church—Implicit Obedience demanded—Confidence in the Church Authorities declining—Clinging to Faith—Attempting to suppress Doubts—How Inquiry was suggested—Brigham angry—“A Prophet might be mistaken”—Day dawning at last—“Obeying Counsel,” and what it cost—An Article on “Progress”—A Scene—We withdraw from the Church—A brutal and scandalous Outrage upon my Husband and myself—Strange Police!—Without redress—Popular Anger—Private Sympathy . . 107

Chapter XVI.
Recent Conclusions on Polygamy—Faith in the Doctrine declining—How Women in Utah feel—False Notions and Statements—Sophistries about Want of Faith—Opinions of the young Girls—Better Chances now—Changes operating in Utah—Brigham becomes fashionable—He abandons his own Teachings—How a Man with two Wives cleverly escaped from Utah and Polygamy—Difficulties of Husbands when they leave the Mormon Faith—Effects of the Law of 1862—Domestic Sympathies—Evil Effects of Example upon Boys. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 118

Chapter XVII.
An interesting Courtship—Brigham Young seeks another Wife—Martha Brotherton tells her Story of the Wooing—Abstract of her History—Difficulties in creating Faith in Polygamy—“Tricks that are Vain”—“Are you ready to take Counsel?”—Joseph Smith’s little Room—"Positively no Admittance"—Joseph comes in—He assists Brigham’s Courtship—The Prophet a “proxy” Lover—“A few Questions”—“Lawful and Right”—“The best Man in the World but Me”—“I will have a Kiss anyhow”—“Don’t you believe in me?”—“If you accept Brigham, you shall be blessed”—“If he turns you off, I will take you on”—“Not exactly, sir” .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  . 124

Chapter XVIII.
Marriage—The Age for Marrying—Seventy and Seventeen—Women privileged to choose their own Husbands—Some Women make a Choice—Joseph’s Widows—“Serving for seven Years”—Celestial Marriages—Baptism and Marriage for the Dead—Saving one’s Ancestors ad infinitum—Marrying for “Time and for Eternity”—The Register at Salt Lake, from which the World shall be judged—Difficulties of “proxy” Marriages—“Proxies” for the Empress Josephine and Napoleon I—“The next best Thing”—Joseph’s unproductive Polygamy—Divorce—Woman’s solitary Privilege—Divorce for ten Dollars!—Re-Marrying—Shocking instance of self-fulfilling a “Revelation”—Perverted Heroism—“Affinity”—Brother Hyde’s Argument—The Woman with seven Husbands—Statistical Facts .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  .  . 129

Chapter XIX.

Chapter XX.
Gentiles in Utah—Mormon Women not allowed to mingle with them—Restrictions and Prejudices—Women and Men kept apart in the Tabernacle and in the Theatre—Keeps a Gentile Boarding-House—Times changed—Mormon Girls marrying Gentile
Husbands—Why they prefer the Gentiles—Reasons of Jealousy—
The Looks of the Mormon Women—False Notions—The Railway working Changes—An Appeal to Congress—The wisest Course to be adopted—To the Women of Utah . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 151

APPENDIX.
The “Revelation” of Joseph Smith on Polygamy . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 156