Freedom to Differ

Miller, Diane Helene

Published by NYU Press

Miller, Diane Helene.
Project MUSE. muse.jhu.edu/book/10721.

For additional information about this book
https://muse.jhu.edu/book/10721

For content related to this chapter
https://muse.jhu.edu/related_content?type=book&id=281350
INDEX

Achtenberg, Roberta, 9, 17, 18, 30, 44, 85, 86, 139, 154, 159, 167 n. 20; accused of intolerance, 68, 70; activism of, 45, 53–55, 57, 59–60, 71, 74, 75, 78, 87, 110, 141–142; anti-Semitic attack on, 67; as Clinton supporter, 75, 86; compared with Carol Moseley-Braun, 50, 58; conflict with Boy Scouts, 69–72; distinguished from lesbian/gay community, 58, 60, 87; family of, 54, 66, 71–72, 74, 76, 141–142, 167 n. 21; Jewish identity of, 9, 67, 73; participation in pride parade, 53, 54; politics of, 74–75; portrayed as mainstream, 48, 52, 58, 79, 87; privilege of, 9–10; as religious, 73; representative status of, 10, 18, 35, 43, 48, 68, 70, 79, 87, 165 n. 10

Achtenberg nomination, 1, 164 n. 1; Banking Committee hearing, 1, 39, 43, 61, 65, 67, 69, 76, 164 n. 1; and civil rights strategies, 47–48, 49–59, 73, 74–78; compared with Cammermeyer case, 87–88, 101; opposition to, 1, 39–40, 41, 52–57, 64–65, 66–73, 74, 76, 78, 79–80, 87, 125, 154, 164 n. 3, 165 n. 10; as precedent, 43, 45, 56, 65, 165 n. 9; as progressive, 42–43, 48, 49, 51, 61; support for, 40, 42–43, 46, 48–49, 50–52, 56, 57–61, 68–73, 74, 75, 87, 165 n. 14

Activism, 74, 80, 110, 141–142, 157; attacks on, 45, 53–55, 57, 59–60, 65, 71, 78, 87; as means of empowerment, 133–134; spurred by defeat, 146–147

ACT UP (AIDS Coalition To Unleash Power), 29, 73, 74

Affectional orientation, 117, 123–124, 171 n. 22. See also Sexual orientation

Affirmative action, 19

African American women. See Women of color

Agnos, Mayor Art, 60

AIDS, 74, 78, 101, 117, 119, 123; and gay bathhouses, 55, 70; military concerns about, 171–172 n. 23

Amendment 2 (Colorado), 11, 44, 146–147

American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), 107, 112

American Psychiatric Association, 92

Anti-discrimination laws. See Equal protection laws

Anti-gay rhetoric, 35–36; views of homosexuality in, 50

Anti-gay violence, 12, 21, 31–32, 91, 148, 152, 162 n. 6

Anti-Semitism, 67

Army, 98, 106, 107

Aspin, Les, 97

Assimilation, 18–19, 23, 61, 154; consequences of, 47–48, 141, 147, 151–152; as goal of lesbian and gay rights movement, 8, 15, 140, 143; “white light” metaphor for, 46–47

Bathhouses, gay, 55, 69, 71, 78; as representative of homosexuality, 63, 70, 77

Bisexuality, 8, 66, 93, 171 n. 21

Black and White Men Together, 8

Bowers v. Hardwick, 100, 115, 164 n. 6, 172 n. 25; misapplication of, 111–112; prohibition of conduct in, 41, 48, 116

Boxer, Sen. Barbara, 51, 56, 57, 60, 68, 72

Boy Scouts, 53, 54, 69–71, 72, 73, 101; parallel to military, 166–167 n. 20

Brown, Dr. Laura, 116

Brown, Rita Mae, 66, 139

Bush, George, 72
INDEX

Cammermeyer, Col. Margarethe, 1–2, 18, 85–89, 96, 141, 159; accomplishments of, 83, 85; autobiography of, 88; distinguished from lesbian/gay community, 87; family of, 84; military career of, 167n. 2, 167n. 3; portrayed as mainstream, 87, 127; privilege of, 9–10; representative status of, 10, 18, 35, 87; statement to DIS agent, 84–85, 171n. 22; views on feminism, 117, 123–124, 125, 171n. 22

Cammermeyer case, 17, 30, 87–90, 97, 108, 125, 137, 141, 154; civil court ruling, 89, 90, 126, 127, 168n. 11; civil discrimination suit, 2, 88, 99, 108, 113, 117, 118, 126–127, 137; compared with Achtenberg nomination, 87–88, 101; military board hearing, 2, 83–85, 88, 89; military’s appeal of reinstatement, 161 n. 1 (Ch. I)

Campbell, Karlyn Kohrs, 110

Carter, Jimmy, 92

Catholic church, 172n. 26, 173n. 32

Celtic, 117, 114, 173n. 31

Cheney, Dick, 95

Chesebro, James, 162n. 4

Christian Action Network, 53

Civil Rights movement, 15, 19, 78

Civil rights strategies: in Achtneberc debate, 41–43, 46, 47–59, 73, 74–78; benefits of, 140, 157; consequences of, 6, 142–143; contradictions in, 41–42, 48, 75, 133–134; and identity, 6, 19–20, 48–49; international impact of, 148; and language, 17; limits of, 19, 73–78, 141, 151, 158; sacrifice of voice and visibility in, 59, 126, 152. See also Privacy arguments; Public/private distinction; Status/conduct distinction

Class, 8, 9, 22–23, 27, 35, 163 n. 10, 163n. 14; influence on attitudes toward the military, 168n. 7; social construction of, 34

Clinton, Bill, 1, 97, 114, 164n. 3; and Achtenberg nomination, 40, 75; lesbian and gay support for, 75, 86; pledge to lift military ban, 40, 75, 86, 95–96, 148; record on lesbian and gay rights, 11

Close, Glenn, 88

Closet metaphor, 15, 29–32, 173n. 32; ambiguity of, 61–64

Cobb County, Georgia, 146

Cohen, Sen. William, 56, 133

Coming out, 61, 64, 130, 134, 146, 163 n. 16; as continuous process, 15; contradictions of, 30–32; defined, 14, 29; importance of, 14–15, 134, 152, 155; among other marginalized groups, 15; as process of becoming, 153; risks and limitations of, 33, 35

Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs (U.S. Senate), 39, 164n. 1

Compulsory heterosexuality, 47, 59, 76, 77, 135, 150, 151

Constitution, U.S., 48, 94, 137, 139, 150

“Crossing the line,” 44, 49, 50, 56, 61–66, 79, 166n. 17

Daly, Mary, 163 n. 15

“Damn lesbian” quote (Helms), 1, 40, 164n. 2

Defense Department, 84, 90, 110, 112, 113

Defense Investigative Service (DIS), 84, 85

Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA), 11

DeGeneres, Ellen, 32, 45

Department of Defense, 26

Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM): removal of homosexuality from, 92

Directive on Enlisted Administrative Separations, 92–93

Discretion: as mandate for lesbians and gay men, 30, 109–110, 142. See also “Flaunting” sexuality; Invisibility; Silence

Dole, Sen. Bob, 55

Domenici, Sen. Pete, 54, 56–57, 166n. 17

Domestic partnership, 150, 163–164n. 17

Dominant culture, 7–8, 73, 74, 77, 79, 102; and assimilation, 47; and ideology, 111, 115, 125, 143, 149, 152, 159; gay men’s influence on, 21

Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell, Don’t Pursue policy, 3, 11, 29, 109, 130, 133, 135, 161 n. 1 (Ch. I), 167n. 20; announced, 89, 97; classification of statements as conduct, 98–100; conditions for separation under, 98; discharges under, 12, 106, 168–169n. 12; restrictions imposed by, 134–135; status/conduct split in, 97, 100. See also Military ban

Double bind, 27, 66, 79, 106, 118
Elzie, Sgt. Justin, 97
Employment Non-Discrimination Act (ENDA), 12
Empowerment: means of, 7, 23, 28, 29, 45, 133–134, 152–157
Equal protection laws, 16–17, 41, 42, 48, 49, 111, 114–115, 116, 137, 138, 148. See also Legal system; Rational basis review; Suspect class status
Equal rights arguments. See Civil rights strategies

Families, nontraditional, 128, 150, 156
“Family values,” 36, 55, 71–72, 80
Feinstein, Sen. Dianne, 50, 51, 56, 57, 68, 165 n. 14
Femininity, 66–69, 73, 104
Feminist movement, 2–3, 29; lesbians in, 22–26
Feminist theory, 22
First Amendment, 98, 100, 129, 172 n. 28
“Flaunting” sexuality: among heterosexuals, 130–131; lesbians and gays accused of, 76, 111, 154–155
Foucault, Michel, 33
Friedan, Betty, 24
Frye, Marilyn, 63–64, 165–166 n. 15

Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism, 14, 41; defined, 163 n. 9; relationship to sexism, 22, 163 n. 11
Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism: Boy Scouts as representative of, 70–71; and closetedness, 31; and coming out, 130, 163 n. 16; compulsory, 47, 59, 70, 77, 135, 150, 151; diversity within, 14, 122, 128–129, 150; “flaunting” sexuality among, 130–131; as homosexuality’s “opposite,” 6, 34, 49, 61, 63, 66, 77, 121–122; presumption of, 14, 15, 20, 47, 130; protected by anti-discrimination laws, 17; public nature of, 130–131; and “Queen for a Day” rule, 112–113, 115, 116; social construction of, 35, 63, 115, 121–122, 145; and sodomy, 101, 112–113, 119–123, 138, 172 n. 24; as unmarked norm, 40, 52, 58, 80, 115, 138; viewed as “natural,” 34, 122, 125, 145, 157, 158. See also Heterosexual privilege; Heterosexual women; Homophobia; Sexual orientation
Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism: Heterosexual privilege, 25, 47, 52, 59, 135, 149–150
Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism: HIV. See AIDS

INDEX 189

Elzie, Sgt. Justin, 97
Employment Non-Discrimination Act (ENDA), 12
Empowerment: means of, 7, 23, 28, 29, 45, 133–134, 152–157
Equal protection laws, 16–17, 41, 42, 48, 49, 111, 114–115, 116, 137, 138, 148. See also Legal system; Rational basis review; Suspect class status
Equal rights arguments. See Civil rights strategies

Families, nontraditional, 128, 150, 156
“Family values,” 36, 55, 71–72, 80
Feinstein, Sen. Dianne, 50, 51, 56, 57, 68, 165 n. 14
Femininity, 66–69, 73, 104
Feminist movement, 2–3, 29; lesbians in, 22–26
Feminist theory, 22
First Amendment, 98, 100, 129, 172 n. 28
“Flaunting” sexuality: among heterosexuals, 130–131; lesbians and gays accused of, 76, 111, 154–155
Foucault, Michel, 33
Friedan, Betty, 24
Frye, Marilyn, 63–64, 165–166 n. 15

Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism, 14, 41; defined, 163 n. 9; relationship to sexism, 22, 163 n. 11
Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism: Boy Scouts as representative of, 70–71; and closetedness, 31; and coming out, 130, 163 n. 16; compulsory, 47, 59, 70, 77, 135, 150, 151; diversity within, 14, 122, 128–129, 150; “flaunting” sexuality among, 130–131; as homosexuality’s “opposite,” 6, 34, 49, 61, 63, 66, 77, 121–122; presumption of, 14, 15, 20, 47, 130; protected by anti-discrimination laws, 17; public nature of, 130–131; and “Queen for a Day” rule, 112–113, 115, 116; social construction of, 35, 63, 115, 121–122, 145; and sodomy, 101, 112–113, 119–123, 138, 172 n. 24; as unmarked norm, 40, 52, 58, 80, 115, 138; viewed as “natural,” 34, 122, 125, 145, 157, 158. See also Heterosexual privilege; Heterosexual women; Homophobia; Sexual orientation
Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism: Heterosexual privilege, 25, 47, 52, 59, 135, 149–150
Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Heterosexism: HIV. See AIDS
Homosexuality (cont.)

- as deviant, 40, 66, 170 n. 19; diversity within, 128–129, 144, 150; as emotional orientation, 117, 123–124, 171 n. 22; equated with sodomy, 90, 100–101, 111–113, 115–118, 119–122, 127, 128–129, 138; as identity vs. as conduct, 36, 41–42, 48–49, 50, 55, 77–78, 87, 97, 122, 172 n. 26; as immutable, 41, 49, 50, 63, 113–116, 138, 145, 148; and military service, 84, 92–101; social construction of, 89. See also Gay men; Lesbianism; Lesbians; Lesbians and gay men; Military, lesbians and gay men in; Sexual orientation

Housing and Urban Development (HUD), 1, 39, 42, 51

Identity: and civil rights strategies, 6, 19–20, 28, 48–49, 57–58; consequences of declaring, 4–5; and empowerment, 23, 153; influence of language on, 1, 7, 13, 34; risks of invoking, 30, 33–35, 77, 144. See also Self-identification; Status/conduct distinction

Identity/behavior distinction. See Status/conduct distinction

Identity politics, 14, 23, 34, 35

Immutability arguments, 41, 49, 50, 63, 138, 145; international impact of, 148; and military ban, 90, 113–116. See also Civil rights strategies; Suspect class status

Internalized oppression: defined, 45

Invisibility, 1, 31; as characteristic of oppression, 62; and fragmentation, 29; of lesbians and gay men, 10–11, 27, 46, 62, 126, 134, 135, 142; as means of self-protection, 14, 30–32; of other minority groups, 13, 15, 26; range of, 13–14. See also Voice and visibility

Jewish identity: of Achtenberg, 6, 67, 73; and coming out, 15; and equal protection laws, 17; and feminism, 22

Kennedy, Sen. Edward, 165 n. 14

Kerry, Sen. John, 171–172 n. 23

Korb, Lawrence, 96, 168 n. 8

Labels: dangers of accepting, 33–35, 77, 144; dangers of assigning, 153–154

Language, 7, 35, 40, 87; and empowerment, 152–154; and identity, 3, 4–5, 13; influence of, xv, 6, 12, 17, 18, 28, 29, 34, 35, 37, 43–44, 46, 134, 153–154; of military ban, 150; as patriarchal, 20, 28, 145, 163 n. 15. See also Stories

Legal system: and immutability arguments, 41, 114–116, 138; limitations of, 19, 14; 129, 142–149, 152, 158, 159, 163–164 n. 17; and rational basis review, 94, 137; and social change, 147–148, 150, 158. See also Equal protection laws; Suspect class status

Legitimation vs. liberation, 140–141. See also Civil rights strategies

Lesbian and gay relationships: diversity among, 124, 128–129, 150; inadequate language for, 163–164 n. 17, 173 n. 3; perceptions of, 66, 159. See also Love, lesbian and gay

Lesbian and gay rights movement, 21, 48, 79, 152, 161 n. 2; Achtenberg as representative of, 165 n. 10; Achtenberg’s views on, 74–75; ambivalence toward military ban, 90–91; and assimilation, 8, 15, 140, 143; backlash against, 3, 11–12, 18, 139; Clinton’s support for, 75, 86; diversity within, 8, 35; equation of lesbians and gay men in, 143; and feminist movement, 2; international impact of, 148; and lesbian feminism, 15; media coverage of, 11, 12, 17; need for vision in, 7, 9, 139, 142, 136, 158, 160; origins of, 10–11, 162–163 n. 8; progress of, 11; in public discourse, 3–4, 12–13. See also Civil rights strategies

Lesbian chic, 18, 36

Lesbian continuum, 125

Lesbian feminism, 7, 8, 15, 22–24, 143

Lesbianism: consequences of acknowledging, 25; as continuum, 125; as emotional orientation, 117, 123–124, 171 n. 22; equated with sexual practice, 76–77; as identity vs. as conduct, 16, 36, 74, 87; invisibility of, 32, 76; and political empowerment, 23; political nature of, 75, 111; restrictions on, 40, 44, 78; social construction of, 17–18, 19, 39, 145. See also Homosexuality; Lesbian feminism; Lesbians; Lesbians and gay men; Sexual orientation

Lesbians: characteristics of, as soldiers, 106;
INDEX 191

differences among, 9, 22–23, 143–144; equated with gay men, 20, 66, 77, 118–119, 143, 164n. 18, 171 n. 23; in feminist movement, 22–24; gay men’s neglect of, 3, 21; invisibility of, 2–3, 14, 32, 159–160; lack of role models for, 14, 18; and multiple jeopardy, 3; oppression of, 20, 23, 24, 37; representations of, 6, 13, 14, 18, 22, 30, 36–37; scholars’ neglect of, 3–4, 6, 20, 162n. 4; silencing of, 3, 9, 25, 76, 159–160. See also Lesbian and gay relationships; Lesbianism; Lesbians and gay men; Military, lesbians and gay in; Sexual orientation

Lesbians and gay men: differences between, 66, 77; discretion expected of, 30, 109, 142; discrimination against, 6, 10, 11–12, 17, 21, 42, 49, 50–51, 58–60, 69, 91, 102, 112, 126, 127, 139, 140–141, 145–149, 157, 158–159; diversity among, 35, 77, 116–117, 155; “good” vs. “bad,” 42, 60, 78, 127; increased visibility of, 11–12, 44, 45, 85–86; insider/outsider status of, 62, 63, 65; and internalized oppression, 45, 46; invisibility of, 10–11, 27, 46, 62, 126, 134, 135, 142; and the legal system, 19, 34, 129, 142–149, 152, 158, 159, 163–164 n. 17; oppression of, xv, 7, 8, 20, 21–22, 27, 31–32, 44–46, 48–49, 61–64, 76, 77, 91, 132, 134, 141–142, 151, 154–155, 156, 157; as “Others,” 34, 40, 44–46, 52, 61, 63, 80, 115, 121, 122, 143; overcoming prejudice against, 44–45; as political constituency, 75–76; portrayed as oppressors, 69; representations of, xvi, 8, 12, 31–32, 80, 155, 158–159; silencing of, 46, 100, 126, 142, 154–155; as special interest group, 57, 60, 64; as suspect class, 16, 41, 114–115; violence against, 12, 21, 31–32, 91, 148, 152, 162 n. 6. See also Coming out; Gay men; Homophobia; Homosexuality; Lesbianism; Lesbians; Military, lesbians and gay men in; Military ban; Sexual orientation; Sodomy; Youth, lesbian and gay

Lesbian studies, 4, 18, 20, 28, 162 n. 5

Liberal politics. See Civil rights strategies

Lorde, Audre, 23, 29

Lott, Sen. Trent, 53, 55, 64, 67–68, 70, 71, 73

Love, lesbian and gay, 44, 76, 123, 125,

128–129, 130, 131, 159, 160; and coming out process, 128, 133; representations of, 54. See also Lesbian and gay relationships

Lyotard, Jean-François, 28

Marine Corps, 97, 107

Marriage, 24, 150, 163–164 n. 17; benefits of, 145. See also Same-sex marriage

Masculinity, 21–22, 36, 54, 70, 72, 87, 103–105, 108, 110, 166 n. 16

Military: definition of homosexual in, 167 n. 1; as gendered organization, 89–90, 103–104; influence on civilian life, 91–92; lesbian and gay separations from, 106–107, 168–169 n. 12; lesbians and gay men in, 29, 84, 90, 91, 92–94, 96–98, 99–100, 102–104, 106–108, 109–111, 113, 118–119, 121, 126–127, 129, 130–131, 132–133, 134–135, 136–138, 168 n. 8; and public/private distinction, 126, 131; regulation of speech by, 98–99, 100, 108–109, 110, 112, 129; and sodomy, 100, 122, 127; views on sexual orientation, 92–101, 113; women of color in, 107, 161–162 n. 3. See also Army; Defense Department; Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell; Don’t Pursue policy; Marine Corps; Military ban; Navy; Status/conduct distinction; Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ); Unit cohesion; Women in the military

Military ban, 73, 86, 88, 92–101, 148; activists’ ambivalence toward, 90–91, 168 n. 6, 168 n. 7; blanket ban, 92–93, 126; as class issue, 168 n. 7; Clinton’s pledge to lift, 40, 75, 86, 95–96, 148; compared with racial segregation, 101–103, 169–170 n. 16; costs of, 169 n. 12; Directive on Enlisted Administrative Separations, 92–93; historical variability of, 92; influence on civilian life, 91; influence of race and gender on, 107; old v. new policies, 87–88, 89, 97–98, 109; rationales for, 92–95, 100–101, 102, 108, 109–110, 121, 136, 137, 138; rebuttable presumption provision in, 170 n. 20; restrictions imposed by, 173 n. 31; role of heterosexual prejudice in, 90, 94; Senate hearings on, 40; as tool of sexism, 104–105. See also Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell, Don’t Pursue policy; Military;
Military ban (cont.)
Policy Concerning Homosexuality in the Armed Forces, Senate hearings on; Unit cohesion
Morgan, Mary, 54, 71, 76, 167 n. 21
Moseley-Braun, Sen. Carol, 42; compared with Achtenberg, 50, 58
Multiple jeopardy, 3; defined, 161–162 n. 3
Murkowski, Sen. Frank, 55, 64, 166 n. 16, 171 n. 23
Murray, Sen. Patty, 52
National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, 59
Navy, 12, 107, 132
Nazi Germany, 28, 138, 141
Newcombe, Mary, 116, 124, 159
Nunn, Sen. Sam, 71, 96, 99, 132, 164 n. 4
Oppression: and identity categories, 34; internalized, 45; of lesbians and gay men, xv, 7, 8, 20, 21–22, 27, 31–32, 141–142, 147, 148, 151, 154–155, 156, 157; systemic nature of, 62–64, 165–166 n. 15; of women, 9, 22, 26–27, 28, 110. See also Invisibility; Silence; Voice and visibility
Osborn, Torie, 59
Otherside Lounge (Atlanta), 12, 166 n. 18
Otjen, Gen. John, 97, 113, 118–119, 137
"Outing" homophobia, 136–138, 157

Pachuta v. Webster, 100–101, 111–112, 114
Persian Gulf War: lesbians and gays in, 95
Policy Concerning Homosexuality in the Armed Forces, Senate hearings on, 85, 96, 97, 101, 109, 121; unbalanced representation of views in, 96–97
Pornography, 172 n. 28
Powell, Gen. Colin, 101
Privacy arguments, 87, 142; limitations of, 41, 52–53, 115–116, 130–135, 145, 149; in military ban, 90. See also Public/private distinction
"Pro-gay" rhetoric, 35–36, 164 n. 19; views of homosexuality in, 50

Puitt v. Cheney, 98
Public/private distinction, 9, 36, 71, 74, 130, 135; condemnation of public actions through, 49, 53, 55, 76, 78, 87, 125–126; consequences of, 131–132; eroded by technology, 131; in military setting, 126, 131. See also Privacy arguments

"Queen for a Day" rule, 112–113, 115, 116
Queers United Against Straight-acting Homosexuals (QUASH), 168 n. 6
Queer theory, 32–35; critique of, 164 n. 18; defined, 21, 33; race in, 164 n. 18
Race, 8, 13, 22–23, 27, 28, 34, 35, 163 n. 10, 165 n. 11; analogy with sexual orientation, 16, 41, 46–47, 49, 50–51, 57–58, 59, 61, 41, 101, 102, 169–170 n. 16; as biological, 41; contrasted with sexual orientation, 51, 58, 65, 101–103; hiddenness of, 9; influence on military ban, 107; and political representation, 58; in queer theory, 164 n. 18; social construction of, 34, 115, 165 n. 12; as suspect class, 16–17, 164 n. 5. See also Civil Rights movement; Race; Women of color
Racial integration: military influence on, 91
Racism, 16–17, 46–47, 50–51, 89, 101–103, 107, 138, 147. See also Civil Rights movement; Race
Radical Faeries, 8
Radical right, 11–12, 54, 64, 72, 139
RAND report, 106, 169 n. 15
Rational basis review, 94, 137
Reno, Janet, 109
Representations: influence of, 3, 7, 12, 13, 18; of lesbians, 6, 13, 14, 18, 22, 30, 36–37; of lesbians and gay men, xvi, 8, 12, 31–32, 80, 155, 158–159; and self-identity, 4–5, 20
Rhetoric, 5–6
Rhetorical criticism, 5–6, 7
Rich, Adrienne, 1, 125
Riegle, Sen. Don, 50, 56, 57, 61, 65, 165 n. 13
Right-to-privacy arguments. See Privacy arguments
Rights vs. benefits, 145
Same-sex marriage, 11, 98, 134
San Francisco Gay and Lesbian Pride Parade, 53, 54, 63, 71, 73, 74
Schindler, Allen, 12
Schwarzkopf, Gen. Norman, 134; views on military ban, 103
Secrecy, 14–15, 30, 90, 130–133. See also Invisibility; Silence
Self-identification: as activism, 110; and conduct, 112–113; distinguished from status, 129; as mode of communication,
INDEX

4. See also Identity; Status/conduct distinction
Selland, Lt. Richard Dirk, 132–133
Senate confirmation process, 40
Separations, military, 106–107, 168–169 n. 12
Serving in Silence (Cammermeyer), 88
Sexism, 14, 22, 25, 50–51, 138, 147, 163 n. 11; and language, 28; in the military, 89, 101–108; and silence, 110
Sexual harassment, 104–105, 106
Sexual orientation: analogy with race, 16, 41, 46–47, 49, 50–51, 57–58, 59, 65, 102, 169–170 n. 16; as binary opposition, 6, 33, 34, 49, 61, 63, 66, 113, 121–122; as biological, 49–50, 61, 113, 114–116, 138, 148; as continuum, 125, 133; contrasted with gender, 63, 102; contrasted with race, 51, 58, 65, 101, 102–103; distinguished from sexual conduct, 116–117; as exclusive to lesbians and gay men, 80; as identity, 77–78; as immutable, 113–116, 142–143; as inadequate classification system, 124, 144; instability of categories, 121–122; as irrelevant, 41, 42–43, 48, 50, 52, 57–60, 75–76; military views of, 92–101, 113; and political representation, 42, 53, 57–60, 64; as private, 41, 43, 52–53, 57, 60, 75–76, 99, 125; social construction of, 6, 33–35, 39, 63, 77, 79, 89, 115, 118, 124, 138, 143, 153. See also Heterosexuality; Homosexuality
Silence, 29, 31, 37, 111, 134, 142, 151, 154–155; difficulty of maintaining, 130–133, 160. See also Invisibility; Secrecy
Simpson, Sen. Alan, 62, 64, 67
Slavery, U.S., 28
Smith, Sen. Robert, 53, 60, 71
Sodomy: among heterosexuals, 101, 112–113, 119–123, 138, 172 n. 24; defined, 100, 120, 169 n. 15; depicted on parade float, 54, 73; distinguished from homosexuality, 118, 123, 125; equated with homosexuality, 90, 100–101, 111–113, 115–118, 119–122, 127, 128–129, 138; equated with speech, 90, 99, 100, 112; Foucault on, 120; inconsistent definitions of, 48, 112, 120–121, 122, 127–128; linked with speech, 100; military laws prohibiting, 100, 121, 122, 127, 169 n. 13; military reasoning about, 118–119, 127; misinterpretation of statutes on, 172 n. 25; prevalence of, among lesbians, 119; state laws prohibiting, 100, 169 n. 14
Speech: equated with sodomy, 90, 99, 100, 112; as form of conduct, 98–99, 100, 108–109, 110, 112, 129; pornography protected as, 172 n. 28. See also Women’s speech
Speech communication, 28; neglect of gay and lesbian rights discourse in, 3–5, 20, 162 n. 4
Stonewall Rebellion, 10–11, 162–163 n. 8
Stop-lost policy, 95
Stories: power of, 28, 134, 152, 156, 159. See also Language; Voice and visibility
Streisand, Barbra, 88
Suicide: among lesbian and gay soldiers, 169 n. 12; among lesbian and gay youth, xv–xvi, 161 n. 1 (Preface)
Supreme Court, U.S., 11, 41, 48, 114, 129, 136, 147, 172 n. 25
Suspect class status, 41, 94, 111; criteria for, 16, 114–115
Technology: impact on public/private distinction, 131
Teenagers, lesbian and gay. See Youth, lesbian and gay
Thorne, Lt. Tracy, 99–100
Thurmond, Sen. Strom, 53, 109, 121, 170 n. 19, 172 n. 24
Transgendered people, 8, 33
Transsexuals, 8, 33, 152
Troutman, Agent Brent B., 84, 85
Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), 94, 96, 122, 123, 169 n. 13
Unit cohesion: defined, 95; as rationale for military ban, 93, 94–95, 97, 102, 109–110
United Way, 53, 69
USS Norton Sound, 107
Vaid, Urvashi, 140, 141
Visibility. See Voice and visibility
Voice and visibility, 15, 18, 19, 36–37, 139;
Voice and visibility (cont.)

defined, 7; importance of, 26–29, 155–156, 159; increasing for lesbians and gay men, 11–12, 44, 45, 85–86; limitations of, 27–28, 30–32; as means to combat prejudice, 44–45; in military policy, 99, 128; and privacy arguments, 128, 133–134; sacrifice of, in civil rights strategies, 59, 126, 152; scholarly approaches to, 22; as unacceptable for lesbians, 24, 44, 76, 78. See also Invisibility; Silence

Watkins, Staff Sgt. Perry, 167 n. 5

Women, heterosexual. See Heterosexual women

Women in the military, 102, 104–108; discharges for homosexuality, 106; views on military ban, 106

Women of color, 9, 22; in the military, 107, 161–162 n. 3. See also Civil Rights movement; Moseley-Braun, Sen. Carol; Race; Racism

Women’s speech: in African American communities, 9; as hypersexuality, 110; prohibitions against, 9, 26, 28, 110

Women’s studies, 20

World War II, 92, 102, 138

Youth, lesbian and gay, 18, 45, 59–60, 128, 156–157, 158, 161 n. 1 (Preface); and suicide, xv–xvi

Zilly, Judge Thomas S., 117–118, 125, 126, 127